Marin City Action Group Ousts Chief

The Marin City Community Action Committee ousted its chairman yesterday in an aftermath to the firing of Walter Bremond as county community relations director.

Then, in a second meeting two hours later, members of the committee accused the board of supervisors and county administrator with by-passing the committee in the Bremond ouster.

Arthur L. Brown was ousted as chairman of the committee by 5-3 vote at the first meeting, with members James Quiett and Mrs. Gene Beard not voting and four members of the 14-member committee absent.

Rogers Jones was appointed acting chairman.

The second meeting was attended by Supervisors Chairman Byron W. Leydecker, County Administrator Alan Bruce, and County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney.

Jones said Leydecker attended "to seek better relations with the Community Action Committee," but wouldn't talk on the subject of Bremond's ouster.

"No one got anything out of him regarding Bremond whatsoever," said Jones. "Everything was sidetracked."

Perry Howell, Committee on Racial Equality officer, told the supervisor: "This has been the past record of the power structure—act first and consult us afterward."

ARTHUR L. BROWN
Loses chairmanship

Mrs. Mitchell Howard, the committee member who had moved for dismissal of Brown as chairman, told Leydecker:

"You have asked the committee to meet you here. You didn't say what for and we still haven't found out. If the decision are made up at the board of supervisors, why de we have a committee?"

"If you don't know what I'm talking about, you haven't been listening," replied Leydecker.

The meeting which climaxed in Brown's ouster had been called for the committee's office. About 75 Marin City residents showed up, however, so it was moved to St. Andrew Presbyterian Church. The second meeting, held at Leydecker's request, was also in the church.

Jones said: "We asked Brown to make a statement letting us know what he thought of Bremond . . . He knew more about the situation than anyone else. He wouldn't do it. He didn't say anything."

Jones reported the committee voted to back Bremond, but Brown said he felt it had no business to do it. He would not tell why, Jones claimed.

Bremond was ousted by the board of supervisors in a six-hour closed meeting Thursday afternoon, after County Administrator Bruce had given him an ultimatum of resign or be fired.

Supervisors were unhappy to learn Monday that Bremond had not submitted an application for federal funds for a job-training project for Marin City high school dropouts because he felt the $1.25 per hour pay was insufficient.

Various persons at the second meeting yesterday sought to find out why civil rights and anti-poverty groups were not in-

One-Car Crashes Kill Two On Marin County Highways

DEATH AT THE ROADSIDE — Frank Paul Franklin, 18, of Fairfax was at the wheel of his car when it left Sir Francis Drake Boulevard near San Geronimo Valley Drive early yesterday and slammed into the clump of trees, virtually winding itself around them. Removing the body and freeing the wreckage took two and one-half hours.

Neither Accident Is Seen

Auto crashes took the lives of two young men in Marin yesterday, about 15 miles and 17 and one-half hours apart.

Both were alone in the cars. Both were killed instantly.

Frank Paul Franklin, Drake High School senior of 101 Cascade Drive, Fairfax, was killed when the borrowed car he was driving plowed into a clump of trees beside Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, about a quarter-mile east of San Geronimo Valley Drive, at 3:20 a.m.

Albert de Lopez y Apolaca Vigil, 25, of San Francisco, was killed when his Volkswagen convertible hit the center divider curb on Highway 101 near the Spencer Avenue overpass at Sausalito at 8:45 p.m., overturning and throwing him onto the highway.

EIGHTH, NINTH DEATHS

The deaths were the eighth and ninth in Marin traffic this year. Seven died in traffic accidents in the county by April 25 last year.

Young Franklin had driven Patty Pierce of 161 Butterfield Road, San Anselmo, home from a date at 1:30 a.m. Where he went after that, she had no idea, she told investigating officers.

He was eastbound—back toward Fairfax—when the car went off the road, into a ditch and slammed into the clump of three trees nearly two hours later.

The auto virtually wrapped itself around the three trees. It took two and on-half hours for a tow truck crew to free the wreckage and extricate young Franklin's body.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

Besides his parents, young Franklin is survived by his grandparents, Mrs. Charles Bagley of Fairfax, David Freeland of Klamath Falls, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Franklin of Pleasanton, Alameda County.

Memorial serivce will be held for him at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Fairfax Community Church, directed by Chapel of the Hills. The family prefers that tributes be memorial gifts to the Drake High School scholarship fund.

Jets, Warship Lift Viet Nam Outpost Siege

SAIGON (UPI) —U. S. jets and naval artillery blasted a Viet Cong attacking a government command post along the central coast today hurling back the attackers and killed 50 Communists.

The fighting started when the Communists struck a government battalion in the Khanh Hoa sector, about 200 miles northeast of Saigon, just as it was moving out on a search and clear operation before dawn.

The government troops held them at bay and called for help. U. S. fighter planes screamed in on low level bombing and strafing runs and an American destroyer lying just off shore opened up with its big guns.

Two waves of the attackers were hurled back before the Viet Cong decided to break off the engagement and leave. Friendly casualties were light.

Government officials also disclosed during the weekend that 332 guerrillas were killed in bitter fighting against allied forces on several fronts.

In the air war, U. S. officials said the two Air Force F-105 Thunderchiefs were shot down for the second day in a row during raids about 25 miles north of the North Vietnamese capital of Hanoi.

Officials refused to say how they were shot down, but a separate communique announced that two pilots —Maj. Jimmy L. Jones, 34, of Luling, Texas, and Maj. Richard A. Dutton, 36, of Las Vegas, spotted four surface-to-air missiles during the raid and flashed an alert to other pilots.

Both planes went down about

DID RED CHINESE FIGHT U. S. JETS?

Peking Pilots Rumored Among Reds Manning MIGS Over Viet Nam

SAIGON (UPI) —At least two of the MIG jet fighters that challenged U. S. raiders over North Viet Nam last Saturday were Chinese Communist aircraft, reliable intelligence sources said tonight.

It was not known who was flying the Russian-built fighters but reliable sources told UPI there was a "strong possibilities" that some of the MIGS were manned by Chinese Communist Pilots.

About 14 to 16 of the Communist jets, including MIG-17s and the newer and faster MIG-21s, engaged attacking U. S. Air Force jets in three dogfights over North Viet Nam on Saturday. Two of the Communist planes were shot down by missile-firing F-4C Phantoms.

American officials have been reluctant to even admit the possibility that Peking had joined the war and is helping the Vietnamese Communists other than with supplies. Several times in the past, ground units had reported sighting Red Chinese bodies on a battlefield. But American officials have pointed out there was no definite proof, noting that there are those of Chinese origin in both North and South Viet Nam.

Although there have been encounters between American and Communist jets over North Viet Nam before, the others have been brief and almost accidental. The Saturday engagement represented the first time North Viet Nam's fledgling air force has risked its planes in an attempt to halt American bombing raids.

Air Force officials said the

Viet Catholic Youths March Against Lodge

SAIGON (UPI) — Militant Catholic youths, fearful of Buddhist domination in a civilian government, staged weekend demonstrations supporting the military regime and demanding punishment for leaders of Buddhist inspired civil disorders.

More than 8,000 students, shepherded through the streets by black-shirted students carrying beer bottles to keep them in line, carried banners attacking U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and demanding his ouster.

Pamphlets distributed by the demonstrators accused Lodge of "having betrayed the strong measures of President Johnson" and yielding to pressure from the Buddhists.

Similar demonstrations were held in Bien Hoa about 12 miles north of here. In Da Nang, a center of Buddhist strength in the northern provinces about 385 miles to the north, Catholics put up banners demanding a government crackdown on the student struggle force, the Buddhist organization which organized the massive strikes.

A leader of the Catholic Greater Union Force, composed of approximately a million refugees from the Communist North, said a fighting force had been formed to punish those responsible for recent rioting if the government fails to act.

The announcement sparked fears of bloody clashes between Catholics and Buddhists.

So far, the Catholics have not specifically named the Buddhists.

Belgian Truck Mows Down School Class

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — baker's truck plowed into a school road safety class in the village of Walfergem-Asse today killing at least nine children, the Belgian radio reported.

The accident occurred near the center of the tree-lined village. The street was strewn with children's bodies. About 20 were in the group hit by the struck.

In addition to the known dead many were injured, some gravely, the radio said.

The radio said a schoolmistress was also in hospital, seriously injured.

Witnesses said the truck appeared to skid off the road. It mounted the sidewalk and plowed into the children.

At the spot of the accident, a white line limits traffic to one lane on the three-lane highway.

The radio said the children were studying traffic rules. The school mistress had been explaining how to cross the street at a marked pedestrian crossing. All the children were still on the sidewalk when the truck skidded. The radio said the driver had been placed in custody.

Noises In Head Puzzle Doctors

MIAMI (UPI) — Doctors planned more tests today for a Puerto Rican born Miami man plagued by mysterious noises in his head so loud they sometimes can be heard 10 feet away.

The sounds, which vary widely in type and intensity, are the apparent result of a fall two years ago by 38-year-old Dorian Figueron. He suffered injuries to his head, back and shoulder and lost hearing in his left ear.

Figueron's wife, Margie, said she can hear the noises 10 feet away at night when they are loudest. They sometimes are a "low gush," she said, "like the wind makes through a crack in the window in a car."

M'Namara Defends Bombers Cutback

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara defended today his plan to cut the nation's long-range bomber force by more than one-third.

The Defense Department plan to replace older bombers with a smaller number of new planes was sharply criticized in a report of a House Armed Services Subcommittee. The report recommended amending the National Security Act to require the executive branch to have the advice of Congress before eliminating any major weapons system.

At a news conference, McNamara said the report gave a "shockingly distorted picture of the true situation.

"The suggestion that major decisions on the manned bomber program were made by the joint chiefs of staff is without foundation," the defense chief said.

The subcommittee criticized McNamara on the plan, saying he had ignored advice from Pentagon experts and eliminating the B-58 bombers.

". . . if we are wrong," the report said of the proposed bomber reduction, ". . . we may invite a nuclear exchange which will cost millions of lives."

McNamara said the joint chiefs unanimously supported the program to introduce the new FB-111 as a "follow-on decision to eliminate the 80 B58 bombers in 1971. They reviewed this matter," McNamara said, "and withheld any judgment on the grounds that this step is so far in the future that their judgment was not necessary this time."

"We must rely principally on the intercontinental ballistic missile as the major element in our strategic weapons system," he said when asked what would replace the bomber. Bombers, he said, will become complimentary weapons in the strategic force.

Head For Sea After The Broil

Orders were out to head for the cool sea breezes yesterday as temperatures around Marin County boiled into the upper 80s.

Roads leading to the mountains and beaches were jammed with cars. Stinson Beach had one of its busiest days, while cities—with the possible exception of Sausalito—had their quietest.

Highest temperature in San Rafael was 87, two degrees higher than the normally warmest spot in the county, Woodacre.

Temperatures dropped slightly today with the forecast calling for coast fog night and morning.

Morse Says Kennedy Had Viet Nam Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., said today President John F. Kennedy told him about 10 days before Kennedy was assassinated that he had ordered an intense review of U.S. policy in South Viet Nam.

"I happen to think that the policies would have been different had the President lived long enough to complete his review," said Morse, the Senate's ranking critic of the U.S. stand in Southeast Asia.

"I don't think we'd be sacrificing the lives of increasing numbers of American boys . . . today," Morse said.

Morse made his statement as the Senate Foreign Relations Committee discussed foreign aid—and Viet Nam—with John Kenneth Galbraith, former ambassador to India.

Galbraith said he cabled Kennedy a report about Nov. 15, 1961, when he was ambassador to India, counseling against U.S. efforts to strengthen the regime of then Premier Ngo Dinh Diem.

In retrospect, Galbraith said, he wishes his advice had been for U.S. withdrawal from the Asian nation.

Morse said Kennedy discussed Viet Nam with him when he went to the White House about 10 days before Kennedy's death to talk about an education bill.

Morse, who said he was then

PICKETS RETURN TO SPACE CENTER

California-Based Electrical Workers Charged Bad Faith In Negotiations

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Striking electrical workers, charging bad faith on the part of United Technology Center negotiators, posted pickets today at all five gates leading into the Kennedy Space Center.

It was not known immediately what effect the pickets would have. When the electrical workers picketed all five gates last Monday and Tuesday, only 400 construction men honored the lines while more than 12,000 other union workers passed through the lines.

Later the union reduced its picketing to a single gate.

Involved in the strike are about 275 members of the California-based Local 1201 of the International Union of Electrical Workers, with 52 of them at Cape Kennedy. The rest work at United Technology facilities at Sunnyvale, Coyote and Redwood City, Calif.

A main issue in the strike, which began last week against United Technology, a division of United Aircraft Corp., is wages. Electricians in California claim they are paid less than the $3.93 an hour paid elsewhere in the space industry.

Union representatives have said they are asking for an hourly increase of 16 cents plus a 30-cent differential for working at Cape Kennedy. The company reportedly offered 19 cents and no differential.

Heart Patient Shows New Improvement

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Marcel DeRudder's surgeons reported some improvement today in a kidney malfunction that has caused new concern for the patient with a partial artificial heart.

"Although the patient has not regained consciousness there are further signs of improvement in the central nervous system with additional return of certain reflexes," the day's first medical bulletin said.

"There is also some improvement of the decreased kidney function reported yesterday."

Methodist Hospital's final bulletin yesterday had reported "some decrease of kidney function" but said laboratory tests indicated the condition was "potentially reversible."

Guild Strike Blocks Publication Of Merged New York Newspapers

NEW YORK (AP)—A strike by the Newspaper Guild of New York has shut down the merged World Journal Tribune before the new corporation could start publication which had been scheduled for today.

A voluntary shutdown by four other daily newspapers was averted when their publishers decided to keep printing on a day-to-day basis.

Matt Meyer, president of the new corporation, said shortly before midnight that he could not predict when the merged papers would be published. This was in view of the fact that none of the 10 unions in the newspaper industry has a contract with the World Journal Tribune Inc.

The AFL-CIO Newspaper Guild set up picket lines yesterday at the plants of the Journal-American, the World-Telegram and Sun and the Herald Tribune —all of which published their last editions as separate entities during the weekend.

The pickets signaled the start of the third major newspaper strike here in less than four years.

Officials of the Guild, which has the support of the other unions, said the strike was called primarily because of a dispute with the publishers over who should be dismissed in the merger and over layoff provisions. The Guild and the other unions are seeking provisions to cushion the effects of the merger on the 2,000 of the 5,700 union employes of the three papers who will lose their jobs. The Guild is to lose 904 of its 1,800 jobs.

Meyer said the new publishing corporation did not ask the other newspapers that are members of the Publishers Assn. of New York City to shut down at this time in support of the struck World Journal Tribune.

Rocky Clues Sought To Continents' Drift

BERKELEY (UPI) — Brazilian and U.S. scientists are studying the age of rocks along the east coast of South America and the west coast of Africa to help determine whether the two continents were once a vast "supercontinent."

The scientists —from the Universities of California and Sao Paulo —believe the supercontinent, called Gondwanaland, may have split in prehistoric times.

Miners Slow In Responding To Coal Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some of the 49,000 striking coal miners were returning to work today after a tentative agreement was reached to end the two-week-old walkout — the largest soft coal strike in 15 years.

But many of the miners indicated they would remain off the job until the agreement was approved formally by the United Mine Workers and the Bituminous Coal Operators Assn.

The UMW Policy Committee meets in Washington Wednesday to consider the agreement. It was reached yesterday between UMW President W. A. Tony Boyle and Edward Fox, president of the operators association.

A spokesman for the Pennsylvania Coal Producers Assn. said the agreement provides for wage hikes to all workers, increases in vacation pay, eight paid holidays and an increase in shift differentials.

He said the new agreement contains "substantial differences" from the contract signed by the UMW on April 8 with three independent coal producers, including Peabody Coal Co. of St. Louis, Mo.

Just three days after that contract was signed, the miners struck, expressing dissatisfaction with the contract's increases for only top-rated miners, lack of paid sick leave and lack of vacations based on seniority.

Airport Property On Board Agenda

Marin County supervisors tomorrow will consider the purchase of 32.6 acres for county airport expansion at a total cost of $110,025.

The meeting will begin at 9 a.m. at the Civic Center.

The property, owned by W. Quimby Wright and his family, includes 27.46 acres to be purchased in fee at $68,650 and 5.06 acres on which an easement would be acquired at $6,280.

In addition, the county would pay $25,070 for severance damages to the Wrights.

Consumation of the purchase would depend on federal aviation agency approval of the county's application for federal funds to improving the airport.

Asst. Public Works Director Arthur T. Knutson has reported it is unlikely that approval can be expected in the current fiscal year.

Also on tomorrow's agenda is the request of Frouge Corp. for formation of a county service area, a special taxing district that could levy taxes ot support additional services above what is supplied by the county at Marincello.

Supervisors are expected to hear a presentation from the Marin City Home Owners and Improvement Assn. which asked a spot on the agenda prior to Thursday's firing of Walter Bremond, director of community relations services.

Mrs. Lizabeth Chu, assistant director of community relations, will ask supervisors to authorize hiring a temporary recreation supervisor for the temporary recreation building erected last week in Marin City.

At 2 p.m., supervisors are to consider the county parks and recreation commission's recommendation that an 18-acre site in Kentfield be added to the county's park priority list. County Administrator Alan Bruce has questioned the recommendation because of the proximity of the site to the proposed 50-acre Larkspur park.

Final item on the agenda is consideration of an appointment to the local agency formation commission. Supervisor Thomas T. Storer's term on the commission is to expire May 2.

Two Gangs Stage Pitched Battle On Lonely Beach

REDWOOD CITY (UPI)— Two gangs of youths battled with tire irons, chains and knives during the weekend on San Mateo County's Pomponio Beach, according to sheriff's deputies.

Deputies said two gangs, one of about seven youths and the other about 10, fought it out on the beach late Saturday night. Roadblocks were set up but the youths escaped capture.

A 20-year-old man said he was strolling along the beach when one of the battlers told him to get off the beach or "you'll get killed."

The man said he left the beach and returned to his parked car and found that all the windows of the vehicle had been smashed.

Pakistan Offers Talks To Peking

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — Pakistan's Foreign Minister Z. A. Bhutto says his government is in a position to serve as a bridge between Peking and Washington because it has developed closer relations with Red China.

"Because we have gone closer to others does not mean that we have gone further from the United States," Bhutto told a news conference.

"We are always ready to explain the views of the United States to China...and in the final analysis this can be a contribution we can make to our allies."

Birth Control Pill Inventor Belittles Fears Of Cancer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fears that long-term use of the controversial oral birth-control pills put out by several firms might cause cancer or other adverse side-effects appear groundless so far, the original developer of the pills said today.

Indeed, declared Dr. Gregory Pincus of Worcester, Mass., an evaluation of new and past studies of the use of the oral contraceptives — being taken by more than five million women in the United States alone — indicates:

1. Aside from apparently producing no major adverse effects on the reproductive and other endocrine-gland-regulated systems of the female body, the pills have achieved "apparent correction of certain abnormality states" in the womb, cervix (entrance to the womb) and breasts of some women.

2. There's justification to explore the possibility that long-term use of the pills may have the added beneficial effect of helping protect women from developing arteriosclerosis the form of hardening of the arteries under suspicion by many doctors as being a possible contributor to heart attacks.

POLITICAL BRIEFS

Storer Criticizes Clausen On Medicare, Other Votes

Marin County Supervisor Thomas T. Storer, who seeks the Democratic nomination for Congress, lashed out at incumbent Congressman Don H. Clausen at a candidates' night at Donaldson School in Napa County Saturday.

Storer criticized the incumbent for voting against the Medicare bill, the education bill and a bill to promote art and culture, and for "not taking a stand on the war in Vie Nam."

TO AID DRATH

Wyman Hicks, Marin Democrat and civil rights leader, has been appointed chairman of the Drath for Congress finance committee.

Phillip Drath, San Rafael contractor and long-time worker for peace, is seeking the Democratic nomination for Congress.

Hicks, who lives in Sausalito, has worked on every Democratic congressional campaign committee in the last 16 years. He is a member of the Marin County Human Rights Commission.

State Highways Building Entered

Juveniles broke into a State Division of Highways building at 460 Tiburon Boulevard, ransacked the building and took $1 in change during the weekend, the Tiburon sheriff's sub station reported today.

Deputies said that Harry M. Chapman of 4 Meadow Lane, Mill Valley, a Division of Highways official, discovered the break when he went to his office yesterday afternoon. The officers said they found bicycle tire tracks near French doors which were forced to gain entry.

formed in advance before Bremond was fired.

Bremond submitted his resignation Saturday, after announcing he would not fight his ouster as he had earlier said he would do.

In another development following the firing, Elizabeth Chu, who has been Bremond's assistant, today resigned her post. She said "too many pressures" made it impossible for her to continue.

Another community meeting was called for 8 p.m. today by Douglas Quiett, now senior member of the community relations service staff. It will be held either in St. Andrew Church or in the Marin City Community Lounge.

A telegram protesting Bremond's ouster was received today by Leydecker from Paul F. O'Rourke, special assistant to Gov. Edmund G. Brown in charge of anti-poverty programs.

"The dismissal without complete explanation of Mr. Bremond is of concern to this office," writes Dr. O'Rourke, a former Novato resident. "Our knowledge of Mr. Bremond's performance as community action director indicates he has done a commendable job. I urge reconsideration of his dismissal in view of the solid support which his work has generated in Marin City."

35 miles northeast of Hanoi. One pilot managed to bail out and was listed as missing in action. The other went down with his plane and was presumed dead.

In other action, Viet Cong raiders pulled a sneak attack on the city of Hue today killing two persons and wounding seven in a 15-minute barrage. Three buildings crumbled under the shell fire. All the casualties pound of the ancient imperial capital. The field is sometime used by military craft, but there was no damage reported to any airplanes.

Motorcycle Rider, Pedestrian Injured

A motorcyclist and a pedestrian were injured Saturday in Mill Valley traffic accidents.

James Richard Powell, 15, of 216 Marin Avenue, suffered scrapes on his face and foot when his motorcycle flipped, throwing him to the street at Miller Avenue and Reed Street at about 9:30 a.m., police reported. He was treated at Marin General Hospital, then transferred to Letterman General Hospital, San Francisco.

Annie Loughlin, 78, of 174 Miller Avenue was reported in fair condition at Marin General Hospital today with multiple bruises of the body. Police said she was reportedly hit by a truck driven by Peter Gardiner, 17, of 107 Oakdale Avenue when he was backing into a driveway at the rear of El Marin Florist-Gifts, 27 Miller Avenue, at about 5:50 p.m.

MORSE

speaking out in the Senate against U.S. involvement in Viet Nam, quoted the late President as having said the criticism might be correct.

"He said he was making an intense study and reexamination of those policies," Morse said.

Galbraith described U.S. foreign policy as suffering from "rigor mortis."

"We have been relying for 20 years on the same tired ideas and, I am sorry to say, the same tired people," Galbraith told the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

Galbraith told senators threatening to cut the 3.4-billion foreign aid program, "May I suggest that there are better ways of being unhappy about our policy in Viet Nam than by cutting the aid program."

The chairman of the committee, Sen. J. W. Fulbright-D-Ark., has introduced amendments that would force more of the program's development loans to be put under management of an international organization like the World Bank.

Cigarette Blamed For $6,000 Fire

A fire in the home of Charles Schnell, 750 Plaza Hermosa, Novato, today caused damage estimated at $6,000.

Schnell was at work at the Basalt Rock Co. in Novato. Mrs. Schnell had taken three children to school, then had gone into San Rafael with the couple's fourth child.

The fire broke out in the kitchen, firemen said, apparently from a lighted cigarette which had been dropped into a garbage bag. Damage to kitchen and living room was extensive, and smoke and heat caused damage throughout the house. Plastic light fixtures throughout the house were melted.

49er Dave Parks Is NFL Champ

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Dave Parks of the San Francisco 49ers was the National Football League pass-catching champion for 1965 with 80 receptions for 1,344 yards and 12 touchdowns.

No-Hitters In Both Leagues For Bunning

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Jim Bunning is the only pitcher in major league history to hurl a no-hitter in both leagues. He no-hit the Boston Red Sox while with the Detroit Tigers and the New York Mets while with the Philadelphia Phillies.

How Can They Miss?

ST. LOUIS (UPI) —The St. Louis Cardinals football team has what it takes to win the National Football League title next season. New coach is Charley WINNER and new assistant coach is Jim CHAMPION.

Goalie's Yardstick

MONTREAL (UPI) —A National Hockey League goalie's pads cannot be more than 10 inches wide and the blade of a goalie's stick cannot exceed three and one-half inches except at the heel, where it can be an extra inch wide.

Tools Are Taken

Murlin W. Lindgren of 44 Terrace Avenue, San Anselmo, complained to police yesterday that someone took $100 in tools from his garage the previous night.

Second Stage Corte Madera Flood Money In Budget

Funds for the second stage of the Corte Madera Creek Flood Control project were included today in a record $163,670,000 request by Gov. Edmund G. Brown for federal reclamation and flood control projects in the state during the year starting July 1.

Marin's share of the federal money would be $850,000 for the second section of flood control construction, from Bon Air Bridge to the Ross town limits.

The project, which will uproot ark dwellers in the Larkspur area, and take a concrete channel through, or around, Ross, has met with controversy since its inception.

The first stage, downstream from the Bon Air Bridge to San Francisco Bay, was allocated $800,000 this fiscal year.

Asking Congress to appropriate the funds—up $1.5 million over the current fiscal year—Governor Brown said the need for the work was urgent.

"Damages caused by the California 1964 floods alone cost more than the appropriation we are asking for flood control this year."

The governor's request was more than is included in President Johnson's budget, and it was not expected that California would get the full $163,670,000.

Home Fire Damage Set At $20,000

A fire of undetermined origin caused an estimated $20,000 damage to the two-story home of R. Nicholes at 91 Rosemont Avenue, San Anselmo, at 12:55 p.m. yesterday.

The flames swept through every room but an upstairs bedroom, and that room suffered heat and smoke damage, firemen reported.

There was no one home when the fire started, apparently in the lower part of the house, firemen said.

Two engines and 13 men responded to the call and the fire was quickly under control.

Firemen estimated the damage at $15,000 to the building and $5,000 to the contents.

AIR

Communists had received much better training and equipment since the last dogfight last July which also cost the Communists two planes. The officials said the Communist pilots "showed very good skill."

Neither Plane Marked

Both of the downed jets were MIG 17s. Although neither had markings they were presumed to have been flown by North Vietnamese pilots.

One was downed by a radar-guided Sparrow missile fired by Capt. Robert F. Blake, 28, of Presque Isle, Maine, and 1st Lt. S. W. George, 25, of Canadian, Okla.

The other was downed by a Sidewinder—which homes in on heat from the target craft — fired by Capt. Max F. Cameron, 30, of Sanford, N.C., and 1st Lt. Robert E. Evans, 27, of Haina, Hawaii.

The MIGS appeared three times, from 25 miles northeast to 60 miles north-northwest of Hanoi, during a 15-minute period.

They engaged U. S. planes on all three occasions.

In another clash, six MIG 17s fired their cannons at home-bound F105s and the American jets, untouched, streaked home without engaging them.

The third attack saw two MIG 21s engage four Phantoms and an RB66 reconnaissance bomber, but everybody missed and broke off the engagement.

Woman Motorist Injured In Collision

Mrs. Bernice Davis, 54, of 172 Reservoir Drive, San Rafael, was seriously injured in a two-car rear-end collision at 2:10 p.m. yesterday on Highway 101 near the Richardson Bay Bridge.

She was reported in fair condition today in Marin General Hospital with head injuries and and neck sprain.

Officer W. L. Kice of the California Highway Patrol reported the car in which Mrs. Davis was riding, driven by her husband, Mansfield Davis, was hit from behind by one driven by John Yee, 28, of Daly City. Yee was cited for speeding and for having no valid driver license in his possession.

FATALS

ficers said two causes might have contributed to the crash, high speed, and Franklin's unfamiliarity with the car, which he had borrowed from Gerald Meier of 27 Claus Drive, Fairfax.

The wreckage was discovered at 3:25 a.m. by Joseph White of 33 Vista Way, Fairfax, as he drove by. He notified the highway patrol.

Young Franklin was born in San Francisco but had lived most of his life in Marin. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Beryle J. Franklin. His father is a merchant seaman.

Vigil, a San Francsico advertising man, was southbound when his little convertible hit the divider curb, the highway patrol reported. The car slid into the curb as it skidded on a curve, the patrol said. It climbed the divider, overturned several times, and threw the driver onto the highway. His body was found 33 feet from the car wreckage.

There was no witness to the accident, the patrol reported. It was reconstructed from the skid marks and other evidence.

Vigil had been assistant to the president of Walter W. Cribbins Co., San Francsico specialty advertising firm, for three years. He was a native of New Mexico and had no known relative in California.

Waiter Breaks Leg In Baseball Game

George Wanninger, 33, of 56 Staghound Passage, Corte Madera, broke his leg Friday afternoon in the Corte Madera Town Park while playing on the Marin Joe's Restaurant baseball team.

Wanninger, who is a waiter at the restaurant, was in good condition today in Marin General Hospital.

Assessment Hearing

Sausalito-Marin City sanitary district directors will hold a public hearing at 3 p.m. today in the Sausalito City Hall on a proposed assessment district which would provide sewer service for the bulk of arks and houseboats at Waldo Point, plus the commercial facility at the heliport to the north on Richardson Bay.

OBITUARIES

Ex-Pentagon Boss Louis Johnson

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Former Defense Secretary Louis A. Johnson, who was fired from the cabinet by President Harry S. Truman shortly after the Korean War started, died here yesterday after a long illness. He was 75.

Johnson was hospitalized April 13 at Washington Hospital Center for treatment of a stroke, and his condition gradually deteriorated over the last few days. The cause of death was not immediately known.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. EDT in Clarksburg, W. Va.

Johnson became the most controversial member of Truman's cabinet and the most embattled of the eight secretaries of defense.

He served in the post for only 18 months —from March 28, 1949 to Sept. 19, 1950 —in the turbulent, infant days of armed forces unification following World War II.

In Johnson's time, the Army, Navy and Air Force had only lately been put under a single department and they were not ready as they are today to be bossed by a single powerful defense secretary. Nor was Congress ready to insist on it either.

When Johnson left office he told Truman he "ruefully" had to admit he had made "more enemies than friends" in his pursuit of unification and defense economies.

Disputes still rage today over the "head cracking" techniques and "fat trimming" defense policies of the big, bald, brusque West Virginia lawyer and politician who followed the nation's first defense secretary, James V. Forrestal, to the Pentagon.

MATTHEW TOOMEY

Requien Mass for Matthew W. Toomey, a resident of Marin County for 41 years, was offered today at St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael.

Toomey died Saturday of a heart attack at his home at 4 Newhall Street, San Rafael, where he had lived for 17 years. He was 78.

His lengthy career in credit management included executive positions with Union Oil Co. in San Francisco and, in San Rafael, with P.S. Harless, paving contractors; McPhail's Inc. and, until his retirement in 1955, the Marin County General Contractors Assn.

A native of San Francisco, Toomey was educated in the schools there. He moved to Marin in 1925. His wife, Rose C. Toomey died in 1960.

Toomey is survived by a son, Matthew L. Toomey of Vallejo; a daughter, Catherine Liati of Los Angeles, and two grandchildren.

MRS. ALEXANDER

Doris Alexander, 67, a former resident of 304 First Street, San Rafael, died at a local hospital yesterday after a long illness.

Asst. Coroner William C. Bradley reported an autopsy would be performed at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley.

Mrs. Alexander had no known survivor.

REX GREEN

Rex H. Green, 46, of 1565 Fourth Street, San Rafael, died unexpectedly yesterday after suffering chest pains at his home.

Asst. Coroner William C. Bradley said Green, who had been ill, worsened at 6:25 a.m. and was taken to Marin General Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival at 7:27 a.m.

An autopsy was scheduled at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael.

Green, who had been under doctor's care, went to bed at 8:30 p.m. Saturday and then took a pill for chest pains at 3:30 a.m., Bradley said.

Green was a heavy equipment operator for Ayers Pool Co. of San Rafael. He had been a resident of Marin for three weeks and of California for one year.

Surviving are his wife, Adaline D. Green of Manteca, San Joaquin County; a son, Rex Green of Novato; two daughters, Ruth Ann Green of San Rafael and Peggy Lou Green of Manteca; his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Carl of Indianola, Iowa, and Andy and Earl Green of Indianola, Iowa.

JEANNIE HANNA

Requiem Mass will be celebrated for Mrs. Jennie Hanna, 68, of Mill Valley at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Mill Valley.

Mrs. Hanna, a life-long resident of California, died Saturday at home following a short illness.

Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at Russell and Gooch mortuary, Mill Valley.

Mrs. Hanna was born in San Francisco and moved to Mill Valley 16 years ago, residing at 311 Molino Avenue.

Her late father, Capt. George Scott, was a bar pilot for the United States government, operating a sailing ship going in and out of the Golden Gate to escort ocean vessels.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Manuel D. Gomez of Mill Valley, and a son, G. Bruce Hanna of San Francisco. Also surviving her are six grandchildren.

Northeast Texas Flood Kills 10

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP — Two days of torrential rains measuring up to 18 inches sent northeast Texas streams on a rampage, killing at least 10 persons and disrupting rail and highway traffic.

Numerous highway bridges were swept away or weakened. Rail traffic on at least one main line was halted when a bridge collapsed, sending a diesel engine into the swirling water.

Lowland areas near Longview, Gladewater, Kilgore and Marshall have been evacuated and a major flood warning has been issued for the Sabine and Cypress rivers in northeast Texas.

Forecasts called for more heavy rainfall and thundershowers today.

The Sabine River was expected to rise 10 feet above flood stage today at Gladewater, where 18.19 inches of rainfall fell in a 48-hour period.

A railroad bridge on the main Texas & Pacific line west of Longview was knocked out Saturday and a diesel engine plunged into the creek.

A dam at Devernia Lake, between Gladewater and Longview, washed away yesterday and rails from tracks atop the dam knocked off the control valves of an oil well.

Highwater forced the closing of four major highways and numerous farm-to-market roads in Gregg, Upshur, Harrison, Wood, Rusk and Marion counties.

Many streets in Longview were impassable and water stood three feet deep in some areas. Over 7 inches of rainfall was recorded between midnight Saturday and noon Sunday.

An estimated $25,000 damage was caused Saturday night when a tornado whipped through the edge of Winnsboro, northwest of Longview.

A wide area of San Antonio was blacked out last night when heavy rains and a thunderstorm swept across the city.

Marin City Work Plans To Be Told

Jack D. Holsclaw, housing manager for the Marin County Housing Authority, will present a proposal for a Neighborhood Youth Corps program for the summer at Marin City to provide jobs for 15 youths at tonight's meeting of the authority.

Oral approval has been given by the Department of Labor, but formal application must yet be made, reported Donald O. Stutsman, authority executive director.

The meeting is at 8 p.m. in the Community Lounge.

Commissioners will also discuss a policy relating to sale of ridgeland property to California Development Co., a policy relating to programs for seeking racial balance in the low-rent project, and assistance given Marin City Community Services District regarding the Boys' Club of Southern Marin.

The authority also plans to discuss public programs to provide employment opportunities and a proposed site in Novato for housing for elderly.

The board will meet in closed session at 7:30 p.m. "to discuss matters involving litigation," reported Stutsman.

U.S. Ammunition Ship In Collision

TOKYO (AP) — An American freighter loaded with munitions for the U.S. Navy in South Viet Nam and a Liberian freighter collided last night in poor visibility off the narrow mouth of Tokyo Bay but no one was hurt.

A fire broke out aboard the munition ship, the 11,562-ton Transpacific, but a U.S. Navy fire squad from the nearby Yokosuka base put it out quickly.

The Transpacific was towed to the Yokosuka base with a V-shaped gash in its side 33 feet wide at the top and 22 feet deep. The Maritime Safety Agency said the Liberian ship, the 12,783-ton Union Venue, entered Yokohama with its bow pushed in.

Knight Will Manage Jordan's Campaign

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Former Republican Gov. Goodwin J. Knight has been appointed to direct Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan's campaign for re-election.

Jordan, 77, who says he is making his last race, is the only Republican, other than the two U.S. senators, holding a statewide elected office.

Sukarno Criticized Publicly For First Time In Jakarta

JAKARTA (UPI) —The official news agency Antara today published an unprecedented burst of criticism against President Sukarno by several "action groups" charging him with assuming unconstitutional powers and squandering public funds.

The agency carried statements by leaders of students, teachers, religiuos and peasant organizations questioning Sukarno's power to rule by decree, his lifetime appointment as president and his objections to Indonesia... membership in the United Nations.

It marked the first time that such criticism against Sukarno, a revolutionary hero who has ruled Indonesia virtually unfettered since it achieved independence from the Dutch, has been made so openly. Observers saw it as an indication of the rising sentiment against him and the power of Lt. Gen. Suharto, the defense minister who is emerging as the nation's new strongman.

Meantime, popular sentiment against Communist China, formerly Sukarno's strongest ally, increased. Reports said armed youths pushed their way past guards at the mess of the Red Chinese Embassy during the weekend and looted it. Several were arrested.

The reports said enraged Chinese officials ran from the building and shouted "you are useless. You can't even preserve order" at special guards which had been set up after earlier attacks on the embassy.

San Rafael Span Toll Cuts Seen

SACRAMENTO (AP — The auto toll on the 10-year-old Richmond-San Rafael Bridge can probably be cut to 50 cents by 1971 or 1972, and to a quarter by 1974 or 1975.

That was the report today from Gov. Edmund G. Brown, chairman of the State Toll Bridge Authority.

The current toll is 75 cents. The report said that an alternative might be to cut the toll by five cents in a series of steps beginning perhaps in 1967, but no fare reduction can be made before then.

Any cut in the tolls, Brown said, is conditioned upon expected growth in the number of vehicles using the span.

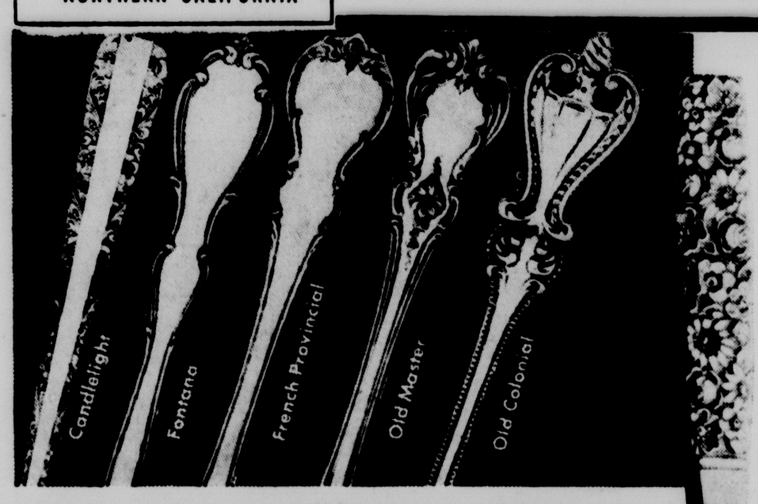
TOWLE STERLING



Here's how you save by the set

It's really very simple and sensible. It costs considerably less per place setting if you buy 4, 8, or 12 at a time. 4-pc. place settings include knife, fork, teaspoon, salad fork; 5-pc., all these, plus place spoon; 6-pc., the same as 5-pc. plus butter spreader. So have a set of Towle Sterling now (1 place setting is nice but not very useful) and pay for it the easy Silver Club way.

BRUCE K. SMITH
Color him lucky and happy

They Colored The Bunny For A Trip To Disneyland

Bruce K. Smith, 5, of 7 Glenside Way, San Rafael, has been awarded a weekend trip to Disneyland for four by the Corte Madera Center Merchants Council for his winning entry in the center's Easter week "color the bunny" contest.

Bruce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Smith, was one of 14,000 children who clipped a center advertisement from the Independent-Journal and entered the contest by coloring in the Easter bunny on the page, said Hollie L. Smith, secretary-manager of the merchant's association.

The contest originally offered only the weekend trip to Disneyland for four as a prize, said Smith, but merchants were "so impressed" by the response to the advertisement that 25 honorable mention awards of a one day trip to Disneyland were added.

The Disneyland tour for 25 children, sponsored jointly by the merchants association and the Independent-Journal, will leave the shopping center at 7:30 a.m. May 7 and arrive back at 8:45 p.m. the same day, Smith said.

The youngsters, chaperones and parents who wish to make the trip on a charter fare, will travel by bus from the center to Oakland Airport, where they will enplane to Los Angeles.

The group will arrive at Disneyland at 11:15 a.m. and tour that amusement center until 5 p.m., when they will get back on the bus to Los Angeles airport for the trip home.

The 25 honorable mention winners selected to make the trip are Woody Dines, 7, and Lisa Dines, 10, of Fairfax; Steven Pearson, 9, of Sausalito; Eric Borcherding, 11, of San Rafael; Pat Trimble, 11, and Margaret Trimble, 5, of San Rafael; Katherine Hale, 9, of Stinson Beach.

Debbie Daunt, 11, of San Rafael; Linda Gilbert, 11, of San Rafael; Gary Powell, 6, of San Rafael; Nancy McPherson, 9, of San Rafael; Eric Rosen, 10, of San Rafael; Lisa Moreno, 10, of Novato; Ingrid Gerstmann, 9, of San Anselmo; Danny Tiedmann, 6, of San Rafael; Tina Valerio, 6, of San Rafael.

John Winn, 5, of Larkspur; Kathy Connell, 10, of San Rafael; Shirley Ann Phillips, 6, of Novato; Connie Jones, 9, of Novato; John Flynn, 7, of San Rafael; Lorna Tinies, 10, of San Anselmo; John Del Prete, 7, of San Rafael; Steve Coburn, 8, of San Rafael; and Deana Dudley, 9, of Mill Valley.

Judge Says Youngsters Need More Chores Today

The unessential nature of today's chores for young people is a cause of juvenile delinquency, Superior Court Judge Samuel W. Gardiner said yesterday.

Judge Gardiner indicated the affluence of modern society in an address to some 150 persons attending a meeting of the Marin County Historical at Henry C. Hall School in Corte Madera.

The judge, who was born in Larkspur in 1902, recalled his childhood there at a time when "there were no telephones, no electricity, no central heating and no plumbing."

The Gardiner ranch was in what is now Baltimore Park and the rugged life of those days required that children pitch in to insure a family's comfort and survival. "We milked the cows, tended the horses, and cut firewood for the stove," Gardiner said. "If we didn't cut the wood there was no heat and no way to cook."

The judge took a swipe at the automobile, which has vastly increased the individual's range for doing ill as well as good.

He said, "Juveniles who appear in court today don't have enough to do. Their chores don't mean anything."

The other speaker was Mrs. Raymond Robson, a direct descendant of Capt. John L. Van Reynegon, who sailed his ship into San Francisco Bay in 1848 and then settled in the Larkspur area. She spoke of the early history of Larkspur and Corte Madera.

Former Mayor Daniel Allen of Larkspur spoke briefly of unsuccessful attempts to merge his city and Corte Madera.

The meeting was sponsored by the recently formed Larkspur Historical Society.

Men Spend Little On Own Clothing

DALLAS (UPI) —The American male spends around one 50th of his income on clothing, a menswear retail leader says. Louis Rothschild, executive director of Menswear Retailers of America, said on a Dallas trip to plan the MRA convention, "The percentage of income that men spend on clothing declined steadily from 1933 to 1963. Only in the last two years has it remained at 2½ per cent of the men's income."

Rothschild said companies who sell men's clothing have to compete not so much among each other as with other things vying for the man's dollar.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Meningitis Attacks Most Often Occur In Winter, Then Subside

VAN DELLEN

Outbreaks of meningitis are most common during the witner and subside with the onset of spring and better weather. Most of the publicity about the disease stems from military installations where men live in close contact and the condition is easily spread. In addition, meningitis is recognized earlier in camps and for this reason the outcome is better than among civilians.

Many bacteria are capable of infecting the meninges, a thin, membrane covering the brain. Meningococci are the most common offenders and the story of the disease involves three stages.

THE FIRST takes place when the organism enters the body through the nose and throat leading to a mild infection resembling a cold. The bacteria multiply and in time invade the bloodstream from where they travel all over the body.

THIS LEADS to the second stage which is associated with fever, chills, malaise, and a generalized blotchy or spotted rash all over the body. Tiny hemorrhages, teeming with meningococci, also develop in the skin.

Some victims are critically ill at this time but the majority pass into the third stage when the microbes localize in the tissues of their choice—the meninges.

This triggers an intense headache along with signs of meningeal irritation. There is stiffness of the neck and a spinal tap produces fluid that is turbid, bloody, and under considerable pressure. One in 10 succumb but the remainder usually recover.

SULFADIAZINE is the best remedy. Penicillin is used when the attacking strain is resistant to the sulfa drugs. Drug resistance is occurring more often than we like to admit.

Five per cent of the population harbor meningococci in the nose and throat. The number of carriers increases in military bases and may reach 90 per cent. When the organisms are rife, a certain percentage of the people are bound to develop meningitis.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

BONE BURNS

Mrs. G. E. writes: What causes burning bones? The bones all over my body, particularly in the skull, around the nose, and in the legs, burn and pain.

REPLY

This is too hot for me to handle. Distress of this type may result from parasthesia, which is of nervous origin. Paget's disease produces discomfort of this kind occasionally.

IMPAIRED HEARING

D. F. writes: Can a person have otosclerosis without deafness?

REPLY

There always is some impairment of hearing in hardening of the ear bones. But in the early stages it may not be great enough to interfere with practical hearing. Now and then head noises co-exist and mask the deafness.

GOUT AND THE BLOOD

F. T. writes: Does gout show up in the blood?

REPLY

The amount of uric acid in the blood is a good test for gout.

DANDRUFF REMEDY

Mrs. J. writes: Is there any better treatment for seborrheic dermatitis than sulphur?

REPLY

Selenium sulfide is said to be equally, if not more, effective.

Headaches Plague Moon Rocket Race

By WILLIAM E. HOWARD
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — Failing welds on the huge second stage of the Saturn V moonrocket are snarling production schedules in Project Apollo.

Titanium fuel tanks are mysteriously corroding and bursting under pressure.

There's a shortage of skilled crane operators to stack the Saturn V's three stages when they get to Cape Kennedy.

Computer men are racing the clock to write a 150,000 "word" program — the largest of its kind — that will tell if the Saturn V and Apollo spacecraft are ready to fly, once they are on the launch pad.

These are a few of a host of engineering problems now troubling the $21 billion program. They were disclosed in prepared testimony by Dr. George E. Mueller, chief of manned spaceflight for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, before the House Space Committee.

Mueller said that despite difficulties the project currently was moving along on schedule. But he indicated that inability to solve the welding problem on the second stage could cause serious delays in the flight timetable, which calls for a landing on the Moon in 1969.

Use of a new aluminum alloy in the second stage has required development of new welding techniques "as we go," Mueller said, and these apparently haven't been perfected.

Moreover, craftsmen are having trouble sticking insulation to the aluminum walls of the rocket stage, which measures 60 feet long and 33 feet in diameter. The insulation has to hold through temperatures ranging from minus 400 degrees Fahrenheit to 400 degrees above zero, because the rocket engines burn supercold liquid hydrogen — a fuel that will easily "boil off" as gas unless protected.

Work on the second stage also has been hindered by the destruction of a test model and delays in building a big concrete stand at the Missippi test facility for trial firings of the engines.

Cranes being installed at Cape Kennedy will have a lift capacity of up to 250 tons and will be among the largest in the world. There are so few this size, Mueller said, "There is no reservoir of trained personnel available."

Still another problem exists with 380-foot-tall mobile launcher and umbilical tower on which the fully assembled Saturn V-Apollos will sit at the pad. Engineers have discovered that the rocket and spaceship, which will be 362 feet tall, will sway as much as 30 inches every two seconds. Eight walkways are supposed to connect from the tower to the rocket. But engineers are still trying to find a way of making these walkways or "swing arms" collapsible so they won't damage the rocket when it sways.

They are running out of time. The first Saturn V is scheduled for launch just a year from now.

Telephone Must Like Color TV

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Ray Morrison finally discovered who was using his new color TV set when the family was out.

Four evenings in a row the set, equipped with an electronic device that turned it off and on by remote control, was going full blast when the Morrisons came home.

The next night Morrison was in the living room with the TV off when the telephone rang. The set immediately came to life. Research showed that, at certain times, the ringing of the phone triggered the control gadget.

Long-Lost Wallet Discovered In Sewer

TURON, Kan. (AP) — Roy Webber was installing a sewer line in 1955 when he lost his billfold.

In early 1966, Joe Pennel was cleaning the sewer and found the billfold. Webber's identification cards were still intact so Pennel looked him up and returned the wallet.

Convicts Join Up With Digging Club

LEAVENWORTH, Kan. (AP) —Twenty-eight inmates of the U.S. Penitentiary here have formed a chapter of the Kansas Anthropological Assn. — a group concerned with digging for relics of the past.

None of the new group has disclosed any plans for digging.

Boston Youngsters Going To Athens

BOSTON (AP) — Fifteen Boston youngsters will be the guests of the mayor of Athens in Greece this summer.

Mayor George Plytas, in Boston for Greece independence day celebrations, made the invitation "to establish a brotherhood between the two cities."

Coast Guard Vessel Praised For Helping

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Cmdr. James H.B. Morton, captain of the Coast Guard cutter Diligence, has been cited for his work during the exodus of Cubans in small boats last fall.

The Diligence made 54 "assists" between Oct. 9 and Nov. 15.

Greek Rockets Due

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Greece will enter the rocket field on May 10, firing nine arkas and centaur type rockets to photograph an eclipse of the sun. The rockets, expected to reach a height of 140 kilometers will be fired either from the island of Karystos or from a ship lying off the island.

Pipe Smokers Face Cancer Risk, Too?

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Cigarette smokers who switch to cigars or pipes to avoid lung cancer may be courting oral cancer, says the president of the American Dental Assn.

In fact, said Dr. Maynard K. Hine, "scientists have found that there is a casual relationship between lip cancer and pipe smoking."

'AW, SHUCKS, IT WASN'T ANYTHING'

Ten-year-old Richard Dixon appeared very unconcerned as he was presented with a certificate by Marinwood Fire Chief James Cameron Saturday for being a good citizen. He even squizzled up his nose when being kissed by Judi Woodmansee, Miss Marin (but then, he's only 10 years old). Richard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence L. Dixon of 460 Quietwood Drive, was awarded the certificate for reporting a gas leak. Miss Woodmansee will give demonstrations of how to control kitchen fire flareups during a Fire Service Day open house May 7, which will also feature demonstrations of equipment and refreshments including popsicles for children. That's Chief Cameron holding the certificate. (Independent-Journal photo)

Supreme Court Gives Reluctant Nod To Vote

COMBINED AP & UPI

WASHINGTON—The Supreme Court today directed that Hawaii's elections this year be based on a temporary legislative reapportionment plan providing for a Senate of 25 members from eight districts.

The districts are apportioned on the basis of registered voters rather than on total population figures.

Speaking for the court, Justice William J. Brennan Jr. said use of registered voters as a measure, by virtue of today's opinion, has not been established "for all time or circumstances, in Hawaii or elsewhere."

The court also was asked today to rule unconstitutional the taking of a blood sample over the objection of a person suspected of drunken driving.

Its ruling could have a wide effect on one of the most common modern police weapons in the battle against highway slaughter.

Arguing for Armando Schmerber, convicted of drunken drivin in Los Angeles in 1964, attorney Thomas M. McGurrin told the court:

"Invasion of the body and the taking of its fluids over the objection of the person violates due process, unreasonable search and seizure and self-incrimination provisions of the constitution."

Eight of the nine justices sharply questioned Edwin Davenport, attorney for Los Angeles County, as he defended the taking of the blood sample from Schmerber after he had announced his objection.

The court today also agreed to hear two more obscenity cases solely on issues dealing with knowledge on the part of the seller that his wares were obscene.

The cases —from New York City and Paducah, Ky. —will not be heard until next fall or winter. The 1966-67 term begins in October. Arguments on this term's cases end this week.

The New York case was appealed by Robert Redrup, convicted in 1964 of selling books entitled "Lust Pool" and "Shame Agent."

In the Paducah case a bookstore owner named William L. Austin was convicted under Kentucky's obscenity law for selling magazines entitled "Spree" and "High Heels."

Young Battlers Also Get Blame For Store Theft

Three youths who reportedly assaulted a West Marin ranch employee were sought by sheriff's officers today as suspects also in burglary of Joe's Market in Point Reyes Station.

The burglary was discovered by owner Joseph P. Rilla, who reported bars had been pried off a restroom window. Taken, he said, were about four gallons of beer, a shotguun, a gallon of wine, and several cartons of cigarettes.

Three youths were seen earlier hanging about the vicinity, he said.

Robert Edward Mawyer, employee at the Ralph L. Giacomini ranch, reported that early the following morning he parked his car beside Shoreline Highway, another car stopped, and two of three youths from it grabbed him. One struck him in the face, then all three fled in their car, he said.

Thirsty Thief

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Burglars broke into the Le Trianon restaurant over the weekend, took $5,000 from a safe, drank a bottle of vintage champagne and left the bottle empty on the manager's desk.

Corte Madera Pay On Agenda

Corte Madera Town Council will hold a special meeting in the Public Safety Building at 7:30 p.m. today to consider a $10,000 town salary schedule increase recommended by Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher.

Usher will recommend raises of two and one-half, five, and seven and one-half per cent. In addition to salary increases, he will recommend four general changes:

Straight time pay in lieu of compensatory time off for holidays worked by police; premium pay of two and one-half per cent for police officers with a two-year degree in police science, criminology or equivalent; increase maximum sick leave from 60 to 90 days and eliminate restriction that vacations must be taken between April 1 and Oct. 1.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

Young Host Held For Noisy Party

Karl Dudley Hoppe, 20, of 101 Belvedere Avenue, Belvedere, was charged with contributing to the delinquency of minors after Belvedere police broke up a noisy party at his home early yesterday.

Hoppe, son of Carl Hoppe of 20 Sea Firth Place, Tiburon, was released on $550 bail pending municipal court appearance today.

Belvedere Police Chief William Woodington said police broke up the party about 1:45 a.m. after neighbors complained of noise. He said it was "a drinking party involving quite a few juveniles."

Burglar Hits House

Mrs. David B. Allison reported to Mill Valley police Saturday that, while she was away from her home at 44 Ralston Avenue, someone forced open some locked French doors and stole a television set, a radio and 15 Kennedy half dollars, total value of $92.

Novato House Looted During Sunday Outing

An estimated $395 worth of clothes, jewelry and a rifle were stolen from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Marinski, 1013 Greenwood Street, Novato, yesterday, according to Novato police.

The Marinskis said they left their home at 11 a.m. yesterday, and returned at 10 p.m. to find the house in complete disorder." Reported missing were three suits, a watch, pearl earrings, and a 22. caliber rifle.

East Bay Woman Leaps Off Span

A 53-year-old East Oakland woman jumped to her death from the Golden Gate Bridge yesterday afternoon.

Four witnesses saw the woman, later identified as Faye Gwendolyn Hoffman, climb the east rail at midspan and jump over the side about 1:45 p.m. Her body was found by the Coast Guard at 2:22 p.m.

The highway patrol said her black purse containing some identification, $24.70 in cash, some calling calls and a handerchief was found at the railing. No note was left, the patrol said.

Stanford Ends Drinking Ban On Its Campus

STANFORD (AP)—If they are 21 or more, Stanford University students will be allowed to drink alcoholic beverages in campus residences starting May 10.

President Wallace Sterling, announcing that policy yesterday, said that no alcoholic beverages will be sold on the campus.

Sterling, acting on authority granted by the Board of Trustees, declared "the university does not condone violation of the state law concerning the use of alcoholic beverages; nor does it condone the use of alcoholic beverages under any circumstances when such use impairs academic achievement, personal health, or the best interests of the Stanford community."

SELF-DISCIPLINE

"The university believes that the development of self-discipline, individual responsibility and respect for law will be enhanced by entrusting to the students a greater responsibility for compliance with state law and by the removal of complete prohibitions which are not enforceable in practice," he said.

Each residence, he continued, will make and enforce its own rules. Drinks will not be served at social functions held in residences occupied predominantly by freshmen.

EARLIER RULES

Until now campus drinking has been permitted only in the Faculty Club and in residences of married students.

A study, by the President's Committee on Student Affairs and services, showed that for three of four students, "drinking is well established even at the time they enter Stanford and is apparently sanctioned by their peers, their parents and society."

Humphrey Declares Foreign Aid As Vital As U.S. Armed Might

NEW YORK (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said today peace in Asia depends on victory against "poverty, disease and despair" as well as against "the classic power tactics of communism" in Viet Nam.

"We must not lose the peace in either struggle," the vice president said in a speech prepared for the annual meeting of The Associated Press.

"That is why we have committed once more—as we have had to do before—men, money, and resources to help the nations of Asia help themselves toward security and independence," Humphrey added.

"We must stay and see it through. And the free nations of the world need to know that we have the vision and the endurance to do so.

"Those who threaten their neighbors in Asia should know it too. They should know that we will resist their aggression."

Humphrey, who returned two months ago from a nine-nation Asian tour, added, "They should also know that we bear no consumptive hate against their people, that we have no design on their sovereignty."

Humphrey said that it is not possible to preserve lasting peace if glaring economic and social inequality among the peoples of the world exist.

"Today there are families spending their last day on earth because they haven't the strength or health to keep going.

"But those who remain—and you can be sure of this—those who remain will take to the streets...they will turn to any master...they will tear the fabric of peace to shreds, unless they have some reason to believe there is hope for life and hope for justice."

Humphrey then tied this idea to President Johnson's foreign aid request now before Congress and said, "We hear the same doubts and complaints today that we heard 20 years ago."

"If someone has a substitute for foreign aid, I'd like to hear about it," he said.

Anti-U.S. Rally On Dominican Anniversary

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Lots of noise but no violence opened a week of celebrations yesterday of the anniversary of the Dominican revolution last April.

An estimated 10,000 demonstrators, most of them youths, massed at Independence Park, repeatedly shouted, "Go home, Yankees,' and cheered loudly at the end of the three-hour rally when a big U.S. flag was burned.

Police armed with carbines and tear gas bombs kept a careful watch. The army was on the alert. The Inter-American Peace Force, consisting mostly of U.S. troops, stayed in the background.

In evidence at the rally, organized by leftist groups, were the green and black banner of the pro-Castro 14th of June Movement and the red and black flags of the country's two Communist parties.

The newspaper El Caribe praised the demonstrators for being peaceful but expressed concern over "Communist infiltration into Dominican life."

Israeli Writer Declares Pope Rescued Jews

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP) — A former Israeli consul in Milan says Pope Pius XII was responsible for rescuing at least 700,000 Jews from death under Nazi rule.

Pinhas Lapide makes the claim in a book "The Last Three Popes and the Jews" to be published this year. It also cites anti-Nazi efforts by Pope Pius XI and Pope John XXIII, who was papal envoy to Turkey during World War II.

Lapide said he was prompted to write the book because of the "sudden silence" on Pius XII after the appearance of Rolf Hochhuth's play "The Deputy."

The play claimed that Pius saved a few Jews but failed to come out openly against their mass murder by the Nazis.

MUSHROOMS SHRINK

Atomic Weapon Unit Changes Its Insignia

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon atomic arms agency wants to soften its "big bomb" image.

So it is about to adopt a new insignia.

Gone will be the mushroom cloud — dread symbol of atomic destruction — that now dominates the insignia of the Defense Atomic Support Agency.

Some 4,000 military men assigned to the agency now wear a shoulder patch which also shows a white cloud mushrooming up from a patch of green which represents the earth.

This patch, too, will be replaced by a tamer new design.

But the agency's mission won't change.

The agency still will be responsible for conducting underground nuclear weapons tests, preparing for atmospheric tests in event of a breach of the limited test-ban treaty, studying atomic weapons effects, and advising the Defense Department and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Instead of the dominant mushroom cloud, the new emblem and patch will feature three golden arrows pointing upward, set in a shield of blue.

What does this mean?

"It represents the three armed services united in a common purpose," an official explained.

The military heraldry artists who designed the new emblem decided to surround the shield with a circle of chain links.

This, it developed upon investigation, is meant to represent the chain reaction in the atomic process.

On close inspection, an observer noted tiny white shapes clustered around the shield and arrows. The shapes looked like toadstools.

"Yes, those are mushroom clouds," acknowledged the official.

But, he pointed out, "they're so small you can hardly tell that's what they are."

Investigators Seek Cause Of Oklahoma Air Tragedy

GENE AUTRY, Okla. (UPI) —Investigators today began the tedious task of putting the scattered pieces of a four-engine turbo-prop Electra back together again, hoping to find out why the plane crashed Friday night killing 82 persons.

A spokesman for the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) said investigators would concentrate on the four propellers to determine how much power they were pulling when the plane slammed into a Rocky hillside near this community in south central Oklahoma's cattle country.

The plane's flight recorder was recovered Saturday and was flown to Washington where technicians hoped to find out the plane's speed, altitude, compass heading, rate of descent or ascent and the plane's flight time since takeoff.

The victims included 76 Army recruits going from Ft. Ord., Calif., to Ft. Benning, Ga. Six crew members of American Flyers Airlines also were killed. Sixteen soldiers survived.

Quarry Fall Kills Cotati Airman

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — A serviceman from Warren Air Force Base fell to his death in a limestone quarry 35 miles north of Cheyenne yesterday.

Air Force officials identified him as Airman 2.C. Samuel Albert Hunter, 20 of Cotati, (Sonoma County.) A spokesman said Hunter's parents were en route to Cheyenne to visit their son when the accident occurred.

He and two other airmen had hiked to the quarry and were climbing when the victim tried to jump across an abandoned mine shaft known as the "glory hole."

The airman fell 250 feet to his death.

Huge Plane Too Weak For Safety

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board said today the huge, whale-shaped airplane known as the Super Guppy was the victim of "unsufficient strength" when it was damaged last Sept. 25 in a flight over the Mohave Desert in California.

The fuselage of thep lane, a Boeing 377sg, had been enlarged extensively to make it a missile transport vehicle. It was on a flight test when the front of the enlarged part collapsed into the cargo area. The plane landed safely, and the six persons aboard escaped injury.

"The failure was the result of forces exceeding the strength of the structure," the CAB said. "It was further concluded that redesign of the area would be necessary to afford greater structural strength to the area."

Young Warren To Boost Brown

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Earl Warren Jr., son of the only man ever elected governor of California three times, has been named statewide vice chairman of the campaign committee for Gov. Edmund G. Brown who is seeking to become the second three-term governor.

Warren's father, a Republican, was governor from 1943 until he was appointed chief justice of the United States in 1953.

The younger Warren changed his party from Republican to Democratic in 1962.

Brown, a Democrat, announced the appointment Saturday.

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — If you don't suffer from male pattern baldness, you can now stop your hair loss . . . and grow more hair.

For years "they said it could not be done." But now a firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment that is not only stopping hair loss . . . but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. If they believe that the treatment will help you, they invite you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself!

Naturally, they would not offer this no-risk trial unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone.

The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped.

But, if you are not already slick bald, how can you be sure what is actually causing your hair loss? Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Many conditions can cause hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair . . . now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days at their risk, if they believe the treatment will help you. Just send them the information listed below. All inquiries are answered confidentially, by mail and without obligation.

Marin Hosts A Hunt

HOOFBEATS SOUNDED in Marin this weekend when members of the Los Altos Hunt staged a hunt on the LaFranchi and Dolcini ranches in Nicasio on Saturday and on the slopes behind the Meadow Club on Sunday. Setting forth on Saturday morning with the hounds were some 20 riders.

(Independent-Journal photos by Jim Kean)

DISCUSSING the horses and the hunt on Saturday were William Weir of Novato, left, and Niels Schultz Jr. On Saturday evening the hunters gathered at the Ark in Sausalito for dinner and dancing.

TAKING A jump are the father and son team of William McDevitt and William McDevitt Jr. of San Rafael. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. McDevitt hosted a hunt breakfast at the Meadow Club. The hunters followed a scent that had been dragged over the course for the fox-less chase.

GROOMING HER horse after the hunt is Mrs. Peter Lambert of Woodside. Also riding in the hunt were children from the Meadow Club's Hunt and Trail Club.

WATERING DOWN his horse following Saturday morning's hunt is William McDevitt Jr. Marin riders participating also included the Harry Lehmans.

EARLY MARRIAGE TRENDS

Counseling Before The Crash

One of a series on the recent symposium on teen-age marriage and divorce given by the Continuing Education in Medicine and Health Sciences, University of California Medical Center.

By BARBARA HOSMER

"Anyone marrying because of any pressure—from mate, family, guilt or pregnacy—is in need of marriage counseling."

In fact, most young people could use counseling assistance before they marry, says Aaron L. Rutledge, who heads the counseling and psychotherapy program at the Merrill-Palmer Institute in Detroit.

"The average couple expects everything from marriage. Early counseling would get their sites out of the clouds before they crash in the mud. But most won't get this help," he said.

The time for counseling is before the young couple gets into trouble, says the psychologist. The counselor can help a couple undo basic blocks and to understand each other in terms of reality.

Dr. Rutledge sums up a counselor's aims with a young couple: To test the growth potential of each personality, to develop communication between them, to expose areas of stress and to develop their ability to solve problems that will face them in various stages of their life.

AS FOR THE TEEN-AGERS, they have ideas about marriage and believe they are different and "can work it out," but it would be better if there were counseling, he said. "Even if there is no pregnacy at marriage there will soon be; studies show in five years these couples average three and a half kids.

"I would be much more willing to accept teen-age marriages if they were instructed in family planning and we had their guarantee that there would be no children, but teenagers are the least responsible when it comes to contraception," he said.

And Jean Bolton, Florence Crittenton Home director in San Francisco, quoted the current attitudes of girls as "if it is a love partnership they don't use birth control—we must get girls to face the problem. The question is, where do we change the attitudes?" she said.

Dr. Rutledge said the ideal place to begin to teach family planning attitudes is "at the family breakfast table and the lunch table where it can emerge as part of responsible family expectation."

Those taught in the early teens become more responsible not less, he remarked. Now the same irresponsibility teenagers show before marriage carries on into the marriage, Dr. Rutledge commented.

IN COUNSELING young couples he said types and patterns emerge—

Marriages built on sexual attraction only begin to fall apart as soon as the marriage ceremony is said.

Pointing out that marriages are usually the result of a search for closeness and hope of meeting certain complementary needs, Dr. Rutledge said that often people marry a partner with underlying oppositional traits.

He described caricatures of a few family types to illustrate the endless "variations of dynamic and patterns to be found among engaged and married couples reflecting elements of culture, family patterns, personality and even modern psychotherapy—"

INCREASINGLY, HE SAID, democracy in the home is becoming the model for young couples, with equality a basic principle of this marriage and family life. "This marriage is a giving, receiving, sharing and fellowship. Noble as it sounds, the path of democracy in the family may be rocky," he warned. "Often one or both of the couple is incapable of democratic functioning since it demands the highest level of individual maturity . . . the pathway of any democratic effort is strewn with either wreckage of conflict or with monuments of successful interaction, perhaps a mixture of both. People are experimenting with democray in the home just as it is being subjected to trial and error in many countries of the world."

The master-serf marriage is another type often seen by the marriage counselor. The husband, wife or both may act as the master, with the others of the family filling the place of serfs. Dr. Rutledge explained, "family balance then depends upon family members following preconceived roles; someone does the perceiving and others are second class citizens to be kept in line.

"When such a marriage disintegrates it may turn into a warring camp. It is based on the idea that members of one sex are superior creatures, that they should demand their rights and punish when challenged."

THE "PARENTIFIED" marriage is another common type—

"In absence of a warm relationship between two adults which manifests itself in very facet of life including the sexual, the child may be aware of an identity with only the parental aspect of being an adult. Later this can lead to the kind of marriage in which the roles are those of a pseudo child-parent relationship." One of the couples who needs to act as a parent to feel adult chooses a mate who needs to preserve the only role he knows, that of the child.

"These marriages make possible a socially acceptable survival but such child's play is a poor substitute for the more spontaneous interaction of two 'whole' adults," Dr. Rutledge says.

THE MOTHER-SON MARRIAGE is a common example. "This is the girl who saw only the mothering aspect of feminity—mother's affectional life and her relating as a total adult were absent, hidden or danger-fraught — and the girl could express her own adulthood only through being a mother.

"She chooses a man who has to be a boy or needs to be mothered. These marriages may seem to work well for months or even years, but a shift in pattern brings acute conflicts."

Often, because she has been such a good mother to him, the husband begins to grow emotionally and the next step is adolescent rebellion — he tears around at night, drinks, gambles . . . She tightens the reins on her little boy and he kicks over the traces even more, Dr. Rutledge said.

Or the wife grows into a more complete adult woman and finds herself frustrated because he cannot become an adequate adult lover and companion.

Other examples are the sibling rivalry situation, where the two immature adults put on costumes and enter into a contest drawn along battle of the sexes lines to see who can get the most out of it, making a vicious competition of the marriage; and the self-sacrificing family which is characterized by "I have but one life, but one circulatory system of blood to put on the altar of sacrifice," enslaving the cared for mate or child into serving the "perfect one" until death or he is compelled to rebel and feel guilty.

SPEAKING ON the most often asked question by teenagers, "How do we know it is really love—the kind that will last?" Dr. Rutledge said that here is no final answer.

"One cannot know love in the future sense. The most meaningful married love cannot be experienced during the engagement except in its embryonic state. It is something that begins and then continues to grow, or does not grow. There are many couples who in any objective testing method known are 'in love' but who by all means should not get married," Dr. Rutledge said.

"Their love is capable of growing only to a certain point . . . but then the marriage would disintegrate. Love must continue to grow or it dies, after being buried under frustration, resentment and possibly hatred."

The role of the marriage counselor is to help a couple face up to existing problems and additional ones to be anticipated to create a relationship that can, as a new family circle, become the nursery of a new generation of more competent marital partners, the psychologist said.

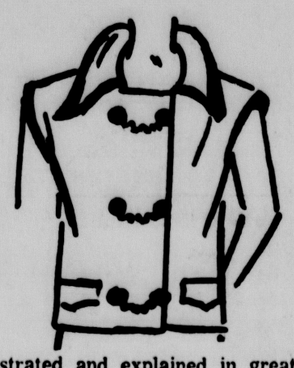
Failing To Measure Darts A Costly Mistake For Her

By EUNICE FARMER



You speak so often about the importance of placing darts in the right position. Perhaps if you publish my letter in the paper, it will save someine else from making the same mistake I made. I stitched my darts without measuring them, then I cut the dart open and pressed it as the pattern suggested. When I tried my dress on, the darts were too high and there was nothing I could do about it. If I had only measured my pattern first, I would have corrected this in time.

MRS. S.E.E.

DEAR MRS. S.E.E.:

We can all profit by the mistakes of others. I'm sorry about your dress, but don't say I didn't warn you. This is just one of the wonderful detailed pattern alterations that I have illustrated and explained in great detail in my newest leaflet called "Your Pattern and You." You may obtain your copy by sending a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents to Eunice Farmer, in care of the Independent - Journal with your request. You will find almost every possible type of alteration explained in simple, easy-to-follow instructions. You can also use these instructions when altering ready-made garments.

Just a few weeks ago I told you about the marvelous new iron-on type of hem tape. Now I can see more and more uses for it. First, it couldn't have come on the market at a better time, just when every one of us has many skirts to shorten.

You may not want to wear your clothes three inches above the knees as the fashion magazines suggest, but nothing looks more dowdy than a skirt that is out of style because of the current length being worn. (My daughter changed the length of six skirts in less than one hour. Without this new hem tape, I would have had to do the job for her.)

Just this week we discovered how great it was to use on the edges of fabrics that ravel. As soon as you cut the garment out, cut the hem tape in half and press a strip on the right side at the outer edge of any part of your garment. This will almost eliminate any further raveling and because it is narrow, it will not make the seam bulky.

Mrs. Ruth Bindbeutel, St. Louis, Mo., is this week's winner of a Tailor Trix pressing board for this wonderful suggestion.

"On a new double-breasted spring suit I am making I planned to use the new type closing, using two buttons (with shanks), connected by a chain three inches long. Not being able to find a chain of this type in the stores, I used an old antique-looking chain-type bracelet I found in my costume jewelry box. If you don't have an old bracelet, a new one doesn't cost very much and the suit I am trying to copy cost more than $400."

Please send your questions and sewing tips in care of the Independent-Journal. I'll answer letters in the column that have general interest.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Aging Females Who Wear Skirts Above Knees Should See Selves

DEAR HELEN:

These aging dames who wear their skirts above their knobby knees should be forced to watch head-on movies of themselves walking. I don't believe you gals know it, but, when you walk, your tight skirts hike a couple of inches higher in front. Now I'm all for southern exposure on young and shapely gams, but older women do better at dignity than cheesecake.

How about starting a movement for women to lower their skirts one-half inch for every 10 years, after age-25?

GIRL-WATCHER

DEAR HELEN:

Sounds like a winner. Down, girls!

A fashion editor I met recently maintains you can tell a woman's age by the back of her knees. Not always, says I, but I'll bet this makes a lot of gals back up to full-length mirrors tonight.

DEAR HELEN:

How can I keep from hearing all my friends' tales of woe? I'm a quiet person and I'd rather listen than talk, but not this way! I've lost several friends, too, because I guess I remind them of the bad times. They'd on popular psychology. Are you? problems are over. This hurts, because I listened while others coundn't be bothered. Sometimes I feel like a vase that people pour their troubles in and then toss in the ash can when no longer needed. Am I too sympathetic, or just a —

PATHETIC SIMP?

DEAR SIMP:

Sympathetic listeners make good "bad-weather friends" because they attract people who are "me-deep" in troubles. This especially if they listen with zealous curiosity and are hooked on popular psychology. Are you? Naturally those BWF's will drop you when the sun shines again: that's human nature. You remind them of times they'd rather forget; you know too much; you make them uncomfortable.

Throw away your umbrella (and crying towel) and develop a knack for changing subjects or easing people toward professional help. Friendly amateur counselors usually end up holding the sack — and getting it!

— H.

DEAR HELEN:

No matter what I say this fellow always says, "That reminds me . . . " and tops it with a story of his own. If I've done anything, he or his friends have done it better.

The other day a friend of mine from a well-known band, gave a piano performance for a party. This other guy walks up and says, "Say, I've got this friend who can make a piano talk, you got to hear him!" Which is like telling Andy Williams he should take lessons from Ed Sullivan. He can't wait to hear something out before he's up there with his boring spiel. How would you think he rates with people — he and guys like him, of which there are quite a few. — BUD

DEAR BUD:

He should be about as popular as a surfboard on the Sahara. People who can always go you one better should be invited to go one step farther — out of your life — H

Tree Planting Will Honor Memory Of Marin Resident

Homestead School Parent-Teacher Assn. and her friends have planned two unusual memorials to Mrs. Roscoe McIntosh, who died on April 3.

On May Day a tree will be planted in an area between the school and private property on Montford Avenue as a living symbol of brotherhood, beauty, peace and understanding for all people.

Canzady McIntosh, better known to friends as Zada, and her husband and children, Arthur and Jeanette, were one of the first Negro families to live in Marin County outside of Marin City. A carpenter, Mr. McIntosh built their home in Homestead Valley.

Very active in the community, Zada had many friends who were eager to do something for her husband and children. The decision was to establish a McIntosh memorial fund to help the family.

Those interested in contributing have been asked to contact Mrs. Christopher Bratt, who has opened the memorial account at a Mill Valley bank.

Candace McKown Engaged To Wed Larry Oren Ritter

Announcement of the engagement of Candace Lee McKown and Larry Oren Ritter of San Mateo has been made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McKown of San Rafael.

The bride-elect is the sister of Melinda McKown of San Rafael and Mrs. William Yeo of Lucus Valley. She attended San Rafael High School and San Jose State College and is employed with Citizens Federal Savings in San Francisco.

Larry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ritter of San Mateo, is the brother of Mrs. Leroy Stone, Lonnie and Gregory Ritter, all of San Mateo. Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Nielsen of San Mateo are his grandparents.

The future bridegroom will graduate from San Jose State College in June. The wedding is planned for June 18 at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church in Carmel Valley.

Rancho Roundup Planned Saturday At Novato School

The annual rancho roundup will be sponsored by the Rancho School Parent - Teacher Assn. from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., on Saturday at the school in Novato.

A western theme will be featured with an assortment of games, including a dunk tank, train ride for the youngsters, cake walk and a county store.

Pie, donuts and coffee will be served beginning at 9 a.m. for the early arrivals and the chuck wagon will open its doors at 10 a.m.

Chairman for the event is Mrs. Robert Bonner. She will be assisted by Mesdames Richard Hall, concessions; W. E. Low, Country store, Gerald King, food; Frank Perachiotti, and Edward Sheean, publicity; and Mr. Vince Feeney and William Porter, men's participation, and Ronald De Recat, awards.

Dip The Cup

Heavy molasses is less apt to stick to a measuring cup if you dip the cup in hot water before measuring.

Janny Tang Is Bride Of Dennis Chan

In a double ring ceremony on April 9 in the Highlands Inn Chapel in Carmel, Janny Diana Tang of Sacramento became the bride of Dennis Lee Chan of San Rafael.

Judge Eugene Harrah officiated for the 2 p.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Tang of Sacramento.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length sheath of white lace.

Mrs. June Knipfel of San Francisco as matron of honor, wore a sheath of lime green organdy.

David A. Fukuyama of Stockton was best man.

A reception followed the ceremony at Highlands Inn.

The bride was graduated from Sacramento High School, Sacramento City College and attended San Francisco State College. She is the sister of Bonnie and Barry Tang of Sacramento and Ted Tang of Oregon.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Chan of San Rafael, was graduated from San Rafael High School, College of Marin and San Francisco State College. Jeffrey Chan of San Rafael is his brother and he is the grandson of Mrs. Mabel Lee Chan of San Rafael.

The couple will reside in San Francisco.

Miss Ritchie Is Bride Of J. O. Pearson

MR AND MRS. JAMES O. PEARSON
(Milton Mann photo)

In a candlelight ceremony at St. Rita's Church in Fairfax on Saturday, Patricia Ritchie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Ritchie of Fairfax, became the bride of James O. Pearson.

The Rev. Robert Bond of Laguna Beach, a family friend, performed the ceremony.

Patte wore a gown of white silk organza over taffeta with Peau 'd ange lace and beading with a train appliqued with panels of lace.

Sally O'Hara of San Francisco was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were La Verne Flynn, Janet May and Jacaquline Colturi, all of San Rafael, and Mrs. J. Scott Waterman of Terra Linda and Donna Boeckhardt of Hayward. They wore gowns, empire style, of green chiffon over taffeta.

Sharon Ann Ritchie, niece of the bride, wore a similar gown as flower girl. John De Carlo Jr. of San Anselmo was the ringbearer.

Serving as best man for his brother was O. Fort Pearson Jr. of San Francisco, and ushering were Edward Ritchie, brother of the bride, Rick Murray of San Luis Obispo, Bob Keller of Greenbrae, J. Scott Waterman of Terra Linda and Daniel Snead of San Anselmo.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Racquet Club in San Rafael.

The bride was graduated from Marin Catholic High School, attended College of Marin and is secretary to the manager of the Fair Anselm Branch of Crocker Citizen's Bank in Fairfax.

Jim is the son of O. Fort Pearson, and the late Mrs. Cora Pearson. He was graduated from Redwood High School, attended College of Marin and served in the United States Navy. He is employed by Clearview Cables of Fairfax.

The couple left on their honeymoon to southern California and will reside in Fairfax on their return.

THIS TIME, AN ARTIST — Veat Neal, released from San Quentin after serving seven years for armed robbery, hopes to make his living as an artist. Neal has spent almost half his life inside prisons, but hopes his now-developed talent as an artist will keep him outside this time.
(Independent-Journal photo)

Ex-Convict Determined To Make Career For Himself As An Artist

By CAROL MARSH

Veat Neal went to prison seven years ago as a convicted armed robber — and came out of San Quentin four weeks ago as a noted artist.

Fifteen of his 33 years have been spent in prisons, and before being sent to Vacaville in 1959, he worked at manual labor. But last year in San Quentin, to which he was transfered in 1962, he earned $2,000 with paintings sold outside the prison, he said.

He started painting 18 years ago, and once tried to earn his living as an artist in San Diego.

"I almost starved to death," he recalls. But he plans to try it again, although he is working as an orderly at a local hospital. He has painted three pictures and sold one of them since being released, he says.

In prison, he served twice as art director for the San Quentin Drama Workshop, and did art work for the prison administration, illustrating building plans for budget conferences, drawing teaching aids, posters, and so on.

Also in prison, last year, he won the Robert Lindner Foundation award, and sold the winning painting to the chairman of the foundation.

Seven years in prison gave him a good deal of time with nothing to do but paint, but it was only during the past year that he began seriously to think of himself as an artist, or to "get interested in what other people thought of my painting," he said.

In a way, he feels the imprisonment contributed to his painting.

"There's no change in your outside existence, and you can't see out, so you have to experiment more with your medium, and go deeper into yourself to find new experiences," he explains.

The painting certainly made the imprisonment more bearable. "If I weren't a painter, I don't think I would have made it. They would probably have me locked up tighter than I was," he said.

Some of his paintings are now on display at the Art Center store in San Rafael.

Although he has not, in the past, shown any particular talent at staying out of prison, he maintains he had never "tried to stay out" before, and feels certain he will make it this time.

Asked why he is so certain, he said, "People don't frighten me any more."

DRAMA REVIEW

Some Of Satire Is Lost In 'Arms And The Man'

By KARL BARRON

"Arms and the Man" was a double-edged satire when George Bernard Shaw write it in 1894. It poked fun at romantic melodrama as well as foolishly romantic viewpoints on love, war and humanity in general.

Today, the satire on melodrama is lost, since that ancient form of theatrics has become sophisticated through overuse in soap operas and class B films. However, much of Sham's comment on humanity is as valid 72 years later as it was then, and the production by the San Geronimo Valley Players which opened Friday night at the Woodacre Improvement Club strives to put it across.

It will be presented again this Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

San Geronimo's director, Stuart Rasmussen, is an old pro, and it shows in the way his inexperienced actors use their natural talents to advantage. Rasmussen does not try to turn them into stereotyped puppets, but allows each to go his own way within a broad framework.

The result is pleasing in general, although slightly outlandish at times; witness Patricia Fitzgerald's characterization of Louka, the servant girl and a key part, as a petulant teenager. She slips totally out of context with the rest of the cast.

Shaw's story is a series of mild and gentle complications involving a charming girl who is practically a congenital liar, her parents, their servants, an idiotic major to whom she is engoger, and a fleeing soldier who bursts into her bedroom.

If you're not familiar with the play, you may remember "The Chocolate Soldier," a musical adapted from it. It's a charming play, and in the third act of this production a very funny one, although the comedy inherent in the first two acts seems beyond the abilities of most of the San Geronimo cast.

A standout in the comedy department is Ken Raymond, who blusters his way through the role of the incompetent Petkoff with bumbling naivete.

As Bluntchli, the Swiss officer who is the only really level-headed person in the play, Bill Eral (first time on stage) manages to create a likable and believable person with complete underplaying. If he gets all his lines down by the coming weekend, he should be very good indeed.

Sergius, the fatuous cavalry major, is a part which can be easily overdone (in fact we saw him butchered in a production just a month ago). John Keilty avoids the trap and emerges with a stuffy, funny and at times pitiful character.

As Nicola, the male servant, Barry Murray works hard a aging himself. Oddly enough, his role suffers from the fact that he is one of the few who obviously has been on the stage before and it places him in a little world of his own.

The women in the cast leave much to be desired. Judith Parle struggles with Raina, the heroine, and once in a while and achieves the impish quality Shaw intended. Jody Lea as her mother never quite gets off the ground.

To this reviewer, "Arms and the Man" does not have the impact that this group's "Of Mice and Men" packed last fall. The realism of Shaw and the realism of Steinbeck are two different cats.

Fairfax Citizens Plan Tax Drive

The newly formed Committee for the Fairfax School, headed by Leonard A. Weiss, will meet Friday at 8 p.m. to plan a telephone campaign supporting the school district in the June 7 operating tax increase election.

Voters will decide whether the school district is to raise its general operating tax rate from $2.05 to $2.70.

Weiss said the committee is planning an extensive information campaign "to put over the tax increase."

Father Appointed

Leonard V. Martin of Upper Ames, Ross, whose son, Stephen L. Martin, is a senior at Dartmouth College, Hanover, N.H., has been appointed to the college's parents committee. A campaign for $70,000 for faculty compensation and the college library ends June 30.

Opera's Composer To Preview Work

Virgil Thomson, composer of the opera, "The Mother of Us All," will present a concert preview May 2 at 8 p.m. at the Temple Rodef Sholom, Santa Venetia, a week before the opera will be performed.

The Marin Symphony Guild will perform the opera on May 8 at 8 p.m. in Angelico Hall at Dominican College. The opera, conducted by Sandor Salgo, will be the last performance of the season for the Marin Symphony Orchestra.

Thomson, 70, has conducted most of the major symphony orchestras in the United States and Europe, written four books, and has served as music critic for the New York Herald Tribune for 14 years. He lives in New York.

Novato Schools Show District Art Works

About 700 samples of art work by students of the Novato Unified School District will go on public display tomorrow in the Novato High School gymnasium.

Three samples from each elementary school classroom, and more samples from intermediate and high school art clasess will be put up according to grades, so that parents may judge progress in art work as students grow older.

There will also be some of the work of students in the district's adult education classes, and a special section for teachers' own art work.

Throughout the week and part of the next week, students in the district will be taken to the high school by bus to see the show.

Public viewing will be permitted from 3 to 5 p.m. tomorrow through Friday, 7 to 10 p.m. Wednesday, and 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday.

Marin Youth Orchestra In Last Concert

Marin Youth Orchestra, sponsored by the Symphony Guild of Marin, will present its final concert of the season Sunday in the College of Marin gymnasium at 7:30 p.m.

The concert, conducted by Hugo Rinaldi, will feature solos by pianist Joan Franzini and violinist Eden Vaning.

Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leno Franzini of Santa Venetia an eighth grader at the Blessed Sacrament Parochial School. Eden is a senior at San Rafael High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walker B. Vaning of San Rafael.

The program will include works by Gabrieli, Bach, Mozart, Dvorak and Smetana.

Former Mayor Recuperating

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Former Mayor Elmer E. Robinson was reported "well on his way to recovery" today at Presbyterian Medical Center after an emergency appendectomy.

Stricken last Monday in Nevada City, the city's mayor from 1948 to 1956 was brought to the hospital and operated on last Thursday.

The hospital said the 71-year-old patient was out of danger.

County Planners Again Ask Kirk Law

The Marin County Planning Commission today, for the second time, recommended county adoption of an ordinance requiring large subdividers to provide school sites at cost.

The ordinance would implement the "Kirk Law" which gives counties and cities authority to require such school site dedication by subdividers of 400 or more dwelling units. Today's approval was of an amended ordinance providing that if the dedicated property were not used for a school within 10 years, the subdivider would have first option to buy it back.

House Is Looted

John R. Polach of 53 Hickory Avenue, Corte Madera, complained to police yesterday that someone removed a screen and crawled in through an open window of his home Saturday night, stealing seven bottles of liquor and wine, $1.50 in change, and several packages of chewing gum.

Tomales High Tours Tomorrow

English, business education and arts and crafts will be programs emphasized at a Public Schools Night in Tomales High School auditorium at 7 p.m. tomorrow.

New courses, equipment and methods will also be featured.

Robert Walker, co-ordinator of occupational and technical education in Marin County, will take parents on a tour of departmental displays explaining trends, funds and courses.

In Campus Drama

Thomas B. Farley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin C. Farley, 50 Bella Vista Avenue, Belvedere, has a part in Euripides' play "The Trojan Woman" currently being performed by students of the University of the Pacific at Stockton.

Candlelight Trio Treat To Audience

By ELEANOR WEIL

Candlelight concert regulars were treated last night to a first-visit-to Marin performance at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley by the Francesco Trio.

All Bay Area musicians, they are David Abel, violin; Bonnie Hampton, cello; and Nathan Schwartz, piano. The piano was borrowed; the violin was a Guarnerius Del Gesu dated 1719; the cello was an Amati of 1616 date.

TWO TRIOS

Beethoven was represented twice in the Trio in D Major (the "Ghost) and Trio in E Flat Major. The program opened with Hayden's E Minor Trio, and midway was played a trio by Leon Kirchner, a Bay Area contemporary.

The Haydn Trio, was warm and sprightly with a super-slow andante and a super-presto presto. The andante was exceptionally romantic and pleasing. The whole was fresh and entirely unmetronomic, which portrayals of Haydn often are not.

Both Beethoven trios were fine examples of the composer's best work. The rich texture of contrasted but interdependent themes and the passing around of the themes from one to another were typical and of great interest. Especially notable were one nice unison between violin and cello in the D Minor Largo of the "Ghost"; the delicate, exquisite presto in the "Ghost"; and the intricate finale of the E Flat Major.

The Kirchner was full of unaccustomed sounds to ears used to 18th and 19th Century chamber works. But it was cohesive, and the essential interdependence was definitely there. It was percussive somewhat but did not have the disjointed poops and bangs sometimes present in contemporary music. There were quiet lyrical passages as well.

These three musicians are experts individually and their rapport is perfect, though they have been working together for only two years. Each plays fervently, dramatically, sensitively, and together they are as one instrument.

This was the final concert in the current chamber music series sponsored by the homestead valley improvement club.

McInnis Outlines Bay Government

"What was once a simple problem for a single group has become a multiple problem spilling over a wide swath of geography," John F. McInnis of San Rafael declared today in Sacramento during a seminar on government.

The seminar was conducted by the Effective Citizens Organization, headquartered in Washington, D.C., and the University of California Graduate School of Business.

McInnis, founder and former president of the Assn. of Bay Area Governments, stressed the importance of regional cooperation in meeting such problems as air and water pollution, water supply, transportation and conservation.

Bomb Threat Empties Theater

The Fairfax Fine Arts Theater was emptied shortly after 8 p.m. yesterday following a bomb threat by an unidentified male.

After the bomb threat telephone call to the theater, Fairfax police and firemen cleared about 100 patrons out of the building.

They searched the theater but found no bomb.

Old County Building Criticized As Peril

San Rafael City Councilman Harry A. Barbier has described the old county office building at Grant Avenue and Linden Lane, San Rafael, a "hazard to public safety" and has asked police to check into boarding up the windows and doors.

Barbier told police Saturday the rear door had been broken off the building. Numerous windows had been broken, he said, and the floors were covered with broken glass.

CONCERT REVIEW

Woman Organist Has Awesome Virtuosity

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Dr. Marilyn Mason's awesome virtuosity in her recital last night at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo made it the most exciting organ performance we have ever heard.

Playing with power and brilliance at times and utmost sensitivity and delicacy at others, she made one realize the full potentials of the Leonard William Buck Memorial Organ—in her own words, "a great instrument."

Only by sitting near her and watching, as we were able to do in the second half of the concert, could one appreciate the full extent of her technical mastery. For example, few other than organists might have known that many of the enormously complicated chromatic flights in her final number, "Pageant," by the contemporary composer Lee Sowerby were played with her feet.

Highlights of the concert for us were the two great Bach works, Fantasia and Fugue in G Minor 543 and Toccata and Fugue in D Minor, the last an encore; Chorale in A Minor by Cesar Franck, which required great skill in the use of pipes in the expression chambers, and "Pageant."

Amazing to hear in the Baroque works were her marvelous flowing rhythm and facile execution of embellishments.

She also had a superb command of the art of registration—another facet of her playing made more evident by watching her set up of the organ before each number, as well as during performance. In this connection the variation form was a good one for noting various mixtures possible. The two selections illustrating this were "Air con Variazione" by Giovanni Battista Martini and the variations and fugue on the English National Anthem by Max Reger.

Other numbers performed were "Concerto del Signor Torelli," transcribed by Johann Walther from a violin concerto, Carol Prelude on "Greensleeves" by Searle Wright and, as her first encore, "Prince of Denmark March" by Jeremiah Clarke.

It was easy to see why Dr. Mason, the first woman organist to perform in Westminster Abbey in London, has been invited to play there again on Oct. 4 in connection with its 900th anniversary celebration.

Her performance last night received a well-deserved standing ovation.

Today is Monday, April 25, the 115th day of 1966 with 250 to follow.

The moon is between its new phase and first quarter; the morning star is Venus; the evening star is Jupiter.

The Italian inventor of wireless telegraphy, Guglielmo Marconi, was born on this day in 1874.

On this day in history:

In 1846, the first shots in the Mexican War were fired.

In 1854, the Senate approved the so-called "Gadsen Purchase," enabling the United States to acquire disputed border lands from Mexico.

In 1901, New York became the first state in this country to require automobile owners to equip their vehicles with license plates.

In 1945, allied soldiers converged on Milan in World War II. Also on this day in 1945, delegates of 46 nations met in San Francisco to organize a permanent United Nations.

A thought for the day—Scottish novelist and poet Robert Louis Stevenson said: "Books areg ood enough in their own way, but they are a mighty bloodless substitute for life."

Contract Announced

The State Department of Public Works today announced the award of a $7,052.32 contract to A and J Shooter, Inc. of Marin, San Rafael, for preparing and planting roadside areas, for an area nine-tenths of a mile long just west of Point San Quentin.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Even Very Clever Dogs Likely To Goof Certain Type Of Hand

Some of my writer friends are terrified by the news that a woman in Italy is teaching her dog to type.

Bridge writers are keeping their cool, however, because experience has taught them that even a very clever dog will usually misplay a certain kind of bridge hand.

Opening lead — ♠ J

West opens the jack of spades, covered by the queen, king and ace.

Declarer's next move shows what he is made of.

USUAL HAPPENING

The average player leads the queen of hearts and lets it ride for a finesse.

This loses to the king of hearts, and back comes a spade.

Down one.

If you reproach South for taking the wrong finesse, he has his answer ready:

"It's easy to pick the right finesse when you can see all four hands. Try making the right play when you're actually playing the game—and when you can see only your own hand and the dummy."

EXTRA CHANCE

It's true that South must decide which red king is in favorable position.

It's also true that one chance is as good as the other.

It is not true that South must choose one red suit and ignore the other.

South's extra chance is that one of the red kings may be singleton.

He should play one of the red aces in this hope. If there is no luck, he can then try the finesse in the other red suit.

This gives him two chances instead of one.

Since there is a fair chance that the king of hearts will drop, South should lead the queen of hearts to dummy's ace. Then he falls back on diamonds.

The finesse works, and South discards dummy's spade on the third diamond.

If you have a clever dog, teach him to make the right play on hands like this.

Anybody can learn to type.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid two clubs, planning to raise hearts at your next turn.

The hand is worth a jump to three hearts if you have already passed, but not when your partner opens the bidding before you have had a chance to speak.

Bloom Labels Old Building Fire Arson

Twelve old, wooden buildings on the former Palomarin Ranch, north of Bolinas, now part of Point Reyes National Seashore, were destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon.

"It was definitely a case of arson," said County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom, who has asked the Federal Bureau of Investigation to investigate because the buildings were on federal property.

The buildings were vacated last October when Christ's Church of the Golden Rule, which operated a self-contained community on the 3,100-acre ranch, sold the land to the federal government.

Fires "definitely were set" in one or more of the buildings before spreading to other buildings, Chief Bloom said. The electricity was disconnected "so we ruled out an accidental cause," he reported.

Destroyed were the main two-story ranch house, a large assembly hall, a laundry building and nine smaller homes.

There were 39 building in the complex where the fires raged. "We saved 27 buildings in the surrounding area," Chief Bloom said.

All were among 74 buildings on the ranch which the U.S. General Services Administration has offered for sale and removal.

The ranch is in rugged territory about five and one-half miles north of Bolinas. The fire apparently was well under way before firemen got the call at 4:49 p.m.

County firemen with three trucks from Bolinas and Point Reyes Station responded. Firemen patroled the area until yesterday morning.

Mott Death Refusal Is Ripped

MOSCOW (AP)—The United States angrily protested today a Soviet refusal to provide complete information on the death of American tourist Newcomb Mott and suggested this left a suspicion that he was not a suicide."

Mott died Jan. 20 on a Soviet prison train. He was serving an 18-month sentence for illegally entering the Soviet Union. The Russians said he cut his throat with a razor blade.

A U.S. protest said the Russians refused "to provide those vital elements of information which must be available to Soviet authorities and which are essential an objective judgment as to the cause of Mr. Mott's death."

The note appeared to end a long and futile American effort to learn more about the Mott case.

Mott, 27, a book publisher's representative from Sheffield, Mass., was on a vacation when he was arrested as he crossed the Norwegian border into the Soviet Union last Sept. 4.

The note said that four times after March 10 the Russians were asked for more information. But the Soviet government said April 19 that "it does not intend to comply, disclaiming any obligation to provide such information," the note said.

Tiburon Doctor Jailed In Fight With Deputies

A 64-year-old Tiburon doctor was booked in Marin County jail yesterday after he allegedly hit a sheriff's deputy during a struggle in a Tiburon bar.

Dr. Gordon Havstad of 2131 Paradise Drive was charged with distrubing the peace, resisting arrest, and assaulting a police officer.

According to Deputy John Goff, three deputies were called to the bar at 39 Main Street, Tiburon, at 1:09 a.m. by bartender Robert Cunrad, who said Havstad was creating a disturbance.

Havstad struggled, Goff reported, and hit him in the eye. Deputy William Keaton and reserve deputy Sanford Annixter handcuffed the doctor and took him to county jail.

YOUNGSTERS RESCUED FROM FERRIS WHEEL

A Novato fireman raises a ladder to rescue children from ferris wheel at the Roger Wilco Market parking lot in Igancio. The operator stopped the wheel Saturday because a seven-foot bar holding electric lights fell to one of the seats, and he feared other breakdowns. Owner Donald Jay Moyer of Viking Shows, Santa Rosa, told sheriff's investigators several of the bars were loose and seven safety pins had been removed from roller coaster rides at the carnival. Also, he said, water had been poured into the gasoline drum of the coaster. He blamed sabotage. (Independent-Journal photo by Dave Mayhew)

Bolinas-Stinson Principal Issue Nears Showdown

Citizens To Present Petition Urging Reversal On Resignation

By ROBERT STREBEIGH

Trustees and voters of Bolinas-Stinson School District are set for a head-on collision at tomorrow night's board meeting as a result of the resignation of its superintendent-principal, Peter M. Auer.

Auer resigned April 13 (effective as of June 30) after two closed meetings were held by the trustees to discuss renewal of his contract for the next school year.

More than 100 parents have since signed a petition — which they will present to the board at Bolinas School tomorrow at 8 p.m.—requesting that it ask Auer to reconsider his resignation.

The unusual situation finds a popular teacher being supported by a great many parents, in what they regard as a concealed conflict between him and his school board, while he himself refuses to take part, to say whether he would be willing to withdraw his resignation.

The situation is clouded by uncertainty as to who is responsible for what. Some parents claim the school board — two longtime members elected, three recently appointed—does not represent the people.

Speaking for the trustees, Arthur Carpenter, board clerk and a member of eight years, blames community apathy for the furor and for any lack of communication between board and voters.

Carpenter said: "The board has to act in a vacuum. We very seldom have anybody at board meetings." If things have gone wrong on this occasion and others, Carpenter insisted, "it's because the community makes its will known after the event and not in time to shape events."

The board clerk would not comment on events leading to Auer's resignation.

"The meetings were closed because personnel matters were discussed. Peter (Auer) was at the first meeting and Kenneth Lowry of the county school department was at the second," he said.

Carpenter said Auer could have an open hearing any time he wished. He pointed out that Auer had said at the time of resignation that he wanted to become a fulltime principal or curriculum adviser and that the board had said it "accepted his resignation with regret."

Auer has been with the district six years, the last four as superintendent-principal. He also teaches fifth and sixth grades at Bolinas School.

If district residents had attend school board meetings, according to Carpenter, they would have been aware that Auer might wish to leave the district.

"I think one reason people are upset is that this comes as a shock, seems to have happened so suddenly," he said.

Carpenter discounted charges of conflict between recently appointed board members and Auer.

The new board members are Roberta Shockley, appointed last September; Ida Mendoca, appointed in November; John Collingwood appointed in March. Alyce Thompson, board president, has been a member for five years.

Ellen Dawson of Stinson Beach flatly said that since the series of appointments "the board no longer represents the people."

Carpenter said that if Mrs. Dawson and others want a more representative board they should submit candidates and write recommendations to the board. He said Collingwood was the only legally qualified applicant for the latest opening.

In a blistering letter to the board, to be read tomorrow night, Mrs. Dawson praised Auer's operation of the school and said, "Any board member . . . so irresponsible as not to care for the implications of his (Auer's) actions . . . can only represent his or her own ignorance, malice and irresponsibility."

Mrs. Dawson said she and others will demand that the board stand up and be counted. She said, "We want to know who is in favor of this resignation and why."

Mrs. Dawson said she would demand the resignation of those who "have made Mr. Auer's position untenable."

According to Carpenter, however, Mrs. Dawson's insistence on complete information should be addressed to Auer, and not the board. "It's up to him to decide," Carpenter said.

Originators of the petition were less militant. Said Mrs. Robert Grey, "We're just asking the board to request that the resignation be reconsidered." Mrs. Grey said that if the request is denied, the petitioners will ask the board why.

She said she believed Auer would stay on if asked to, but that this had not been discussed with him. "We felt that would be a disservice to Mr. Auer," she said. "This is a spontaneous action by the parents."

Carpenter said that since the petition was not on Tuesday's agenda its acceptance might be deferred to the following board meeting. "Or," he said, "we may listen to the petition and put it on the next agenda for action."

Public Schools Week In Marin Starts—Lasts Through Friday

Public Schools Week—the time when schools display their best and invite parents and others to visit—got under full steam today in Marin.

The week was given a sendoff yesterday with dedication of the new Dixie School at 1175 Idylberry Road in Marinwood, successor to the original school of the same name that until little over a decade ago served as only school of the new-sprawling Dixie District.

Open house visits were invited during class time today at Ross, Lagunitas and Lincoln schools.

"Big show" open houses will start tonight.

Seven of San Rafael's schools will be among those with open house programs tonight. Primary grades at Hartzell, MacPhail and San Pedro schools will feature new reading instruction techniques, including "Prime-O-Tec," "words in Color," and "Structural Linguistics." More advanced reading instruction methods will be shown at Laurel Dell Intermediate School. Sun Valley and West End schools will feature science fairs.

The schedule for Public Schools Week open houses follows:

A photographic display on San Rafael High School went on exhibit today at the Montecito Shopping Center in honor of Public Schools Week.

The display, called "San Rafael High School on Parade," was designed by Angelo Colombo, assistant dean of students; William Pearson, of the high school photographic department, and Charles Maurice of the art department.

Dairy Charged In Dead Fish Case

A misdemeanor complaint charging the operator of a Nicasio dairy with polluting a creek and killing more than 800 silver salmon was filed today by the district attorney's office.

The defendant, Steve Balzan of the Balzan Dairy at Bulltail Ranch, was notified to appear in Marin Municipal Court at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow for arraignment.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Gary Thomas said the ranch allegedly permitted overflow from a barn manure trap to run into Nicasio Creek, polluting the waters. He said the fish died as a result, and that Balzan had been twice warned by the Marin County Health Department, but the overflow situation was not corrected.

Planners Ask Freeze On Kentfield Corners

The Marin County Planning Commission, meeting for the first time since January with all seven seats filled, today approved an interim ordinance halting development at Kentfield Corners for six months to allow study of a parking district or federal development program.

Sitting on the commission for the first time were Claude Stoller and Michael Praszker, named by supervisors last week to replace Felix M. Warburg and Harry H. Heifetz.

Planning Director Paul C. Zucker told commissioners that his staff has met with tenants and property owners to see what can be done to improve the triangular area at the southwest corner of College Avenue and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

"Clearly what is needed is more parking," Zucker said. He said redevelopment project could bring considerable federal assistance because of the new construction at College of Marin.

If a parking district were formed, the county would have to rely on the owners and tenants to improve the shops.

He said owners of the several commercial lots within the district agreed to the six-month study.

Commissioners put off until June 6 discussion of school sites in the Marincello master plan, and postponed indefinitely a proposed ordinance establishing a mobile home district.

Spillway Fall Victim In Fair Condition

One of two young men who plunged 500 feet down a spillway on Lagunitas Lake remained in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Frank Clay, 22, of 347 Via Casitas, Greenbrae, was admitted with multiple cuts and bruises Friday following the fall at Kent Dam. His companion, David Volberg, 23, of 41 Grove Street, San Rafael, was released from Kaiser Foundation Hospital in San Francisco Saturday after treatment for similar injuries.

Car Hits Fence; Driver Injured

Donald Owen Kistner, 36, of 877 Marin Drive, Mill Valley, was injured at 11 p.m. yesterday when his car hit a fence beside Highway 17 near its junction with Highway 101.

He was reported in good condition today in San Rafael General Hospital with a mild concussion.

More Tardy Taxpayers In Marin

Fewer Marin County taxpayers paid their bills on time this year than last, and it will mean bad news for all taxpayers.

The tax delinquency was calculated today at 5.68 per cent, probably the highest delinquency rate on record, according to Treasurer-Tax Collector Stanley J. Fontez.

Last year after the second installment payment, the delinquency was 5.4 per cent.

County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell said the estimate in this year's budget called for 5.5 per cent delinquency. The miscalculation will mean the difference will reduce carryovers funds for next year.

"It will mean about a half cent increase in the tax rate," Mitchell said.

Next year's rate was estimated last week at $2.39 per $100 assessed valuation, a 20.5 cent increase over this year. With a higher allowance for delinquencies, the rate would go up 21 cents.

Auto Stereo Stolen

Novato police reported today that $180 in tape recordings and equipment was stolen Saturday from a car belonging to Michael R. Santorsola, 815 Diablo Avenue, Novato, parked in front of his residence. The thief broke a wing window and took an auto stereo and eight tapes.

Petition Issue Sidetracks Salary Study

Salary schedule for fiscal 1967 will not be discussed at a special meeting of the Bolinas-Stinson School District board at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Bolinas School, as scheduled.

Instead, trustees will sit as a "hearing body to hear concerns and suggestions of parents and constituents of the district regarding operation of the school," reported Mrs. Alyce Thompson, board president.

Questioned as to whether the board will hear the petition being circulated in Stinson Beach and Bolinas asking the board to reconsider the resignation of Supt.-Principal Peter M. Auer, Mrs. Thompson said, yes.

Tam Valley Vandals Hit School Windows

Two large windows valued at $40 each were broken by vandals at Marin Terrace School, 100 Harvard Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, according to sheriff's officers.

Colin Menzies, janitor, told deputies chunks of concrete were hurled from the outside to smash the blue-tinted windows during the weekend.

Driver Thrown Through Glass

S/Sgt. Arlem E. Russell, 36, of the 78th Civil Engineering Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base was in critical condition today at the base hospital from injuries suffered when he was thrown through the window of his Volkswagen in an accident in Petaluma Saturday.

The accident happened at 3:45 a.m. Saturday at Wilson Street and Washington Avenue in Petaluma. An unidentified passenger in the car suffered minor injuries, according to an air base spokesman.

The Russell car collided broadside with a second car, according to the Hamilton Base spokesman.

Two Youths Injured In Highway 1 Crash

Two 20-year-old youths were injured, one seriously, at 6:45 p.m. yesterday when the car in which they were riding ran off Highway 1 on a curve near Stinson Beach, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The passenger, Raymond G. Albrecht of Sacramento, was in fair condition today in Marin General Hospital with extensive bruises. The driver, John Lee Pullman of Dixon, Solano County, was treated at the same hospital for cuts and bruises.

Swimmer Hits Rocks, Injured At Sausalito

John Kelly of San Francisco was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital with a concussion after making a 10-foot dive off the deck at Zack's-by-the-Bay yesterday afternoon and reportedly striking his head on rocks in shallow water.

Kelly, 23, was given first aid by Sausalito firemen, then transported to the hospital by United Ambulance at 4:55 p.m.

The first ship sailed through the Suez Canal in 1867.

HOW TO BUILD A CLUBHOUSE

Workers tar the roof of the old Marin City maintenance building as remodeling began Saturday to turn the building into headquarters for the Boys Club of Southern Marin. A volunteer group of contractors, union members and others has agreed to add an arts and crafts shop, library and game room as well as repairing flaws in the building. Dedication of the refurbished club is slated for June 15 or sooner, and the club is seeking a full-time director. (Independent-Journal photo)

Visit To Public School Worthy Idea This Week

Keep America Strong—Support Our Public Schools.

That is the slogan for Public Schools Week this week, April 25 through 29.

Marin County schools join the nation in making a special effort this week to encourage visits from the public.

Everyone has a stake in our public schools, parents and non-parents alike. The bulk of our taxes go into public schools to prepare our youngsters to be contributing members of society, to add to our cultural, economic and technological strength. It's a trite expression, but the quality of education of our youngsters today does determine the prosperity and strength of our community and nation 10, 20 and 30 years from now.

Visits by parents to schools during Public Schools Week can also have immediate beneficial effect. They demonstrate to teachers and school administrators that the public is interested in the effort exerted by teachers throughout the year. Constructive criticism may even lead to improvements in the teaching methods or in school facilities.

But even more important, parents who take the time to leave their soft chairs and television programs for one evening to view the exhibits the youngsters have prepared are demonstrating by example their respect for school and for education.

Just as indifference by parents is bound to rub off on impressionable youngsters, interest shown by elders can be a big morale booster for the children.

To make the visits more meaningful, the California Teachers Assn. offers these tips:

Check to see if your school is in good physical condition, classrooms well lighted and ventilated, and facilities clean and well maintained.

Ask about class size to see if they approach the recommended ideal—25 in an elementary class and 30 in high school.

Check books and modern aids to see if your community is providing top educational opportunities.

Talk to your teacher, ask about any special problem your child may have, and clear up some of the puzzling stories your child may bring home.

Any compliments that are deserved should be expressed—to the teacher, the principal, or other school staff.

Let's make use of Public Schools Week to meet those who have custody of our children for almost half of their waking hours. Our schools deserve more than apathy for 11 months and unenlightened grumbling just at tax time.

The Lore Of Birds' Eggs

An impressive body of scientific lore has grown from the subject of bird eggs. Some of it falls in the realm of the curious.

Most wild birds cannot lay eggs without the visual presence of a male bird. But his just being there in the springtime trees is enough to trigger hormonal changes in the mature female that set off the egg laying process. On the other hand, domestic fowl can lay eggs without benefit of the visual stimulation of the male's presence. One leghorn chicken laid 1515 eggs in eight years without ever seeing a rooster.

Almost all wild birds lay their eggs in the morning daylight hours before noon. An exception is the pigeon, which chooses to lay at about 2 p.m.

So precise is the mother bird's feeling for the number of eggs, some birds refuse to incubate until the right number lie in the nest. For example, a female flicker must sense four before she will sit on the eggs to hatch them. One ornithologist kept removing one egg a day from a flicker's nest so that she had only three. She laid 71 eggs before she gave up.

Books have been written on the lore of avian eggs.

Budget Request Cut Just Drop But A Necessary Drop At That

By HENRY C. MACARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The sum of $25 million is a lot of money to an individual, in fact more than any individual ever hopes to have at one time, or ever. Yet in comparison with the figures dealt with by the state of California, $25 million has become a minor item.

THIS IS THE amount Republicans in the state Legislature are asking as a cut in Governor Brown's $4.6 billion dollar budget. It sounds good, and is better than nothing, but as far as the taxpayer is concerned, $25 million is a drop in the bucket compared to the grand total Mr. Public must provide for the 1966-67 fiscal year.

The $25 million reduction request amounts to slightly more than one half of one per cent of the total.

Reduced to figures the ordinary citizen can understand, it is like asking a man with $100 in his pocket to donate 50 cents to a cause or to pay 50 cents on a bill he owes which totals $100.

However, the Republicans should be congratulated for coming up with requests for any cut at all, even though miniscule. Reduction in expenditures, particularly those involving public money, marks an interest in government designed to cost the taxpayer the least amount of money possible to operate his government.

Unfortunately, too little regard for the condition of the taxpayers' financial status has been given over the past several years, with the result the public faces massive tax increases next year to operate government in the style to which it has become accustomed. The state has reached the bottom of the barrel as far as income under present laws is concerned.

IT HAS, in fact, come to the point of proposing an accrual system of accounting, which is nothing more than telling the citizens that "we have monies due and payable, so actually we've got the money."

The accrual system, to which accounting-wise there is no objection, is a "one-time shot" to alleviate the tax burden. It will have no lasting effect on that burden, for eventually, under the present program of spending, the taxpayer will have to face the music.

IT IS, OF COURSE, strange that the administration did not think of the accrual system before an election year. It is not a new procedure. It has been in effect in many private enterprises for many years. But it has not been proposed for state government until now, which is a time when, conceivably, it might do the politicians some good.

Thus the accrual system is a sad substitute for ways and means to reduce government spending. The GOP request for a reduction of $25 million is a beginning, but observers say it doesn't go far enough.

Annual Time Jump Results In Protest

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I really don't know why I'm writing you this since undoubtedly the majority little care how the minority feel about time changes each year, but since it's at hand, decided to sound-off.

If time could remain one way or the other (perhaps daylight saving) with out this perpetual switching the few would be happier. This seems inevitable . . .

I'm blue because it's time again
To set our clocks ahead,
It seems I'm getting up at dawn,
At dusk I go to bed;
I'll yawn and fret the summer through
Until I do not mind,
Then says the law, we all must set,
Our clocks an hour behind.

Mandate Is Denied When So Few Vote

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Under the system of government by the people and for the people which we identify with the modern term Democracy, every citizen has a voice in his government.

Since it is impractical for an entire citizenry to pass on all the elements and details arising in the course of governmental administration, we therefore elect members from amongst us to sit as our representatives in the consideration of these things.

It is increasingly apparent that this principle of representative government — that is to say, of Democracy — is understood by fewer and fewer of the people who run for public office, and the dominant political philosophy of today no longer includes any obligation that understanding be necessary. As a result, you and I are losing our representation on our administrative councils, commissions, school boards, etc.

We hear increasingly the word "mandate"; and what we get are public officials elected through concerted interest-bloc effort in balloting conducted by 15% to, rarely, 30% of the community's electors. Then these officials, often members of or tools of splinter ideological groups, use their offices to impair and erode the system which was the one great achievement in ethical polity since the Dark Ages. These people tend to be petty dictators, arbitrary and capricious in their selfish administration; or hand-maidens to the re-disguised and re-introduced tyranny of totalitarianism, the very victory over which by Democracy was man's highest achievement of more than a millennium.

There are no mandates in Democracy; there is only representation. When representative government is gone, Democracy is gone.

So it's Bravo! to the people of our near-neighbor, Castro Valley, for deposing a non-representative school board leader. Let us examine our own very weedy gardens through the same glass of Truth, and if similar action is called for, let us act.

Advance Publicity Lacking On Play?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I have been noticing your very complete coverage of theatrical productions in Marin County.

However, I cannot understand why an outstanding production, such as "The Pleasure of His Company" by the Ross Valley Players, received practically no advance publicity.

I have seen many amateur productions in Marin County and elsewhere, but this presentation warrants more coverage than most, as it was handled exceptionally well by a capable cast, which in my opinion would be accepted by discriminating audiences anywhere.

Any particular reason?

Stiffer Fines Urged For Drunken Driver

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your editorial of Monday, April 18, last, was very much appreciated.

Of all the damnable legislation that we are being throttled with these days, this bit about our police having the "right" to violate our personal beings or take away our driving "privileges" is about the worst.

The approach to eliminating the drunk driver is so weak that it is useless. What is a $100 fine; or a $200 fine; or a $300 fine to the drunks? It amounts to a license to do it again and make jokes about it at the bar they got drunk in. Our answer to drunk driving is $1000 fines and up for second and up again for thirds, with the alternative of six months for first offense, one year for second offense, five years in San Quentin for third offense WITH NO PROBATION. Let's decide now if we want to eliminate drunk drivers from the highways or do we want only to talk.

Violating the personal and private lives of all citizens at the decision of an arresting officer, is for the birds.

Thanks again for your editorial even if it was agreeing to compromise.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

AN AUTHOR who boasts publicly that it takes him a minimum of five years to write a novel (they are invariably worth waiting for) received an adulatory letter from a high school freshman asking for a bit of advice plus an autographed picture. What distinguished this letter from hundreds of a similar nature was its concluding sentence: "I know it takes you an awful long time to write a book, so I wrote this letter slowly, too!"

THE CITY of Sacramento (a community I happen to like very much) is still smarting from an observation made by visitor Gertrude Stein way back in the '30s. "When you get here," sniffed the famous creator of "A Rose Is a Rose Is a Rose," "there doesn't seem to be any here here."

No One Knows Yet How Johnson's Inflation Fight Will Come Out

WASHINGTON — President Johnson is working hard at the kind of thing he does with unmatched skill:

He is pulling out all the anti-inflation stops on the White House organ to try to make a further tax increase unnecessary.

His purpose is to coax every major group in the nation — consumers and producers, buyers and sellers, management and labor, housewives and husbands — to join in voluntarily taking some of the heat out of the economy. The target — keep prices, wages, and spending in check. It is truly a virtuoso performance. It is making far more headway than hardly anyone thought possible.

BUT IS ALL this going to be enough to cool off the boom and prevent runaway inflation? There is no proof yet that it will be enough and there is one grave danger. The danger is that both the President and the Congress will be impressed by limiting success and unlimited motion that they will think the inflationary peril has passed and thus fail to apply the sterner medicine of a tax increase.

There is no doubt that Johnson is doing a heroic job in trying to make voluntary measures work. The fact that it is to his political advantage to do so doesn't make it any the less justified. If a tax increase cannot be avoided, at least he will have tried.

AND HOW he is trying. Here is one week's work:

The President — together with Secretaries Fowler, Conner, Rusk, and McNamara — spent an evening at the White House with business leaders discussing Viet Nam and the urgent necessity of controlling inflation. He won written pledges of big anti-inflationary spending cuts from many of the largest corporations. More are coming in.

He won the support of the 50 governors to cut back programs which are not immediately imperative.

THE SAME WITH the mayors — by the same means, the power of the Presidency and the let-us-reason-together persuasiveness of a particular Texan.

And to the nation's housewives — a stirring appeal to buy lower-priced food and to take a cool and constant look at all prices before choosing.

Finally, a plea, which with LBJ is a near order, to his department heads to try to cut Federal spending $1 billion during the rush-spending last quarter of the fiscal year.

THE PLEADING approach to voluntary action is a Johnson specialty raised to a high art. Sometimes persuasion alone does it — like getting some cigarette price rises cut back. Sometimes he combines "persuasion" with coercion, like using government stockpiles to hold metal prices in line.

But in the end all of this may turn out to fit the description which Herbert Hoover once applied to Prohibition: "An experiment noble in purpose."

IT IS TOO EARLY to say that it will not be adequate, but the present evidence is that the economy is still running a dangerous fever.

The key indices are showing red, not just amber, lights. Industrial production keeps going up, prices keep going up. They rose nine-tenths of 1 per cent in the past three months, more than in any quarter in five years. The GNP is at a record-smashing rate of $714 billion a year. And Mr. Johnson has yet to prove that he can persuade labor to hold to the wage guidelines.

Castro's Sugar Production Down

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Communist-ruled Cuba's seriously faltering and disordered economy is facing still another crippling setback.

This year's sugar crop will be at least 1 million metric tons less than last year's — well under 5 million tons, as against slightly more than 6 million in 1965.

That will be a double blow.

ON ONE HAND, this heavy drop in Cuba's principal export means a drastic cut in the amount of cash and credit the Castro regime will be able to garner from sales to Western countries. On the other hand, Cuba's already severely rationed masses will be subjected to more belt tightening and deprivations in food, clothing, transportation, housing and other essentials.

Last year Cuban sugar sales to non-Communist countries netted around $100 million. Trade experts estimate this year Castro will wind up with less than $50 million from such exports.

In 1965, by forced - labor measures, including shutting down plants and schools to compel students and workers to "volunteer" to cut cane, Castro succeeded in harvesting a little more than 6 million tons of sugar. This was an increase of some 2 million tons over the record-low crop of about 3.5 million tons in 1964, approximately one-half the output of the year before Castro seized control.

BUT IN 1964 world market prices soared skyward as much as 11 cents a pound. Moscow allowed Castro to cut his barter commitments to the Soviet bloc to the bone in order to get a lot of Western cash.

As a consequence, he pocketed around $300 million and promptly went on a buying spree for British buses, Canadian machinery, spare parts, etc.

While last year's 6-million-ton crop was almost twice as large as 1964's, the world price was only about one-fifth — around 2 cents a pound. For the 1.7 million tons Castro unloaded on the free market, he got only an estimated $100 million in cash or credit.

THIS YEAR his prospects are even less promising.

Analysts figure that not more than 1.5 million tons of Cuban sugar will be available for free world sale. The remaining 3.5 million tons are committed to Russia and needed for home consumption —already drastically slashed.

With the world price hovering around 2 cents a pound, Castro's available 1.5 million tons can't earn much more than $65 million. In fact, he'll be lucky to get $50 million in cash. A number of potential buyers already have let it be known they intend to pay mostly in barter.

Foremost among them is Morocco which last year bought 190,000 tons, second only to Japan's 400,000. Morocco has announced it will pay Cuba only 35 per cent in cash, the remainder in goods.

SPAIN, WHICH purchased 150,000 tons, Egypt 100,000, and Britain the same, also are stressing barter for sugar.

This will leave Castro with a painfully meager cash take.

Drought and other adverse weather conditions are being blamed by Castro for the big drop in sugar output.

Sugar authorities attribute this mainly to other factors—mismanagement, bad planning, heavy losses due to machines bought from Russia at high prices that mangled the cane instead of cutting it, cane being cut before full growth with resulting lower sugar content, numerous processing mills shut down for lack of parts and others in faltering running order for the same reason.

There Must Be Great Meaning In That Statement–Somewhere

Here's the statement again. "Supervisor (Ernest N.) Kettenhofen moves that due to the concern of past events, the administrator be instructed to give further emphasis hereafter to full and unreserved disclosure to any board member upon general county problems upon the inquiry of any supervisor, and that he shall keep each board member fully informed of major matters without inquiry."

Reporters were given this at the end of the five-hour-and-40 minute closed meeting of the County Board of Supervisors Thursday and told by Kettenhofen that a good deal could be read into it.

THAT SEEMED to me to be a pretty friendly invitation, so I took the statement and tried reading something in. I ran into trouble right away. I couldn't understand it.

I tried holding it upside down for a little while, but that didn't help. I even pinned it on the wall like an eye chart. It was five minutes before I could relocate it. After all, it's a very short paragraph.

Supervisors had evidently spent a lot of time on it, evidently they kept making changes, each time making sure the thing said less and less.

I STARTED getting discouraged, but I kept on trying. After all, the statement is a pretty uncommon thing.

It's not uncommon to try to blame someone else for your ignorance, but when five men sit down and try to hammer out a statement to that effect behind closed doors with an armed deputy guarding the portal — that's uncommon.

Evidently what the statement says is "Keep us informed, will you?"

Supervisor Thomas T. Storer told County Administrator Alan Bruce the same thing in stronger language two weeks ago. Trouble was that Bruce at that time said it was his policy to report to the chairman and the chairman could spread the word or order it spread if it seemed worthwhile.

Notice in the statement adopted Thursday, there is no mention of the chairman.

Wait a minute!

Is it coming through? Are we starting to read something into this at last?

Was it actually chairman Byron W. Leydecker who was getting all the heat Thursday? Was it actually both administrator Alan Bruce and Leydecker?

Don't fellow board members trust their chairman to spread the word or have it spread?

DID LEYDECKER really rush off to the dentist in the middle of the meeting to get some fillings in a tooth or was that tooth jarred loose?

Well, I think we've done rather well as far as reading something into the statement, don't you?

I still wish someone would tell me what the thing means, though.

Things like "concern of past events" and "further emphasis hereafter" and "general county problems" and "any supervisor" are about as loose as language can get. The same goes for "supervisor," I guess.

Secret Student Agent Finds He Can't Believe In Professor

WASHINGTON—It was revealed last week that a study project on Viet Nam at Michigan State University was in reality a cover for a CIA-financed operation. It was charged that the project, which lasted from 1955 to 1959, was used to set up the Diem government in Viet Nam and keep it in power.

The university has admitted that it did go along with the CIA and knew the agents were on campus. But it denied an article in Ramparts magazine that it did anything wrong.

THE REVELATION has caused a certain amount of apprehension in the academic world and nobody can be sure anymore who is a legitimate student and who is a member of the CIA.

Just the other day at Rambling Tech University a professor of government called in one of his students and said, "Mr. Green, I don't understand this essay. You handed in nothing but a blank sheet of paper."

"What's the matter, professor, haven't you heard of invisible ink?"

"Invisible ink?"

"I ran out of ink, so I had to write with my other pen. Put it in a pan of water. The essay's all there."

THE PROFESSOR took the essay over to his sink and poured water on it. "This is very strange. Oh, yes, now I see it. The title of the essay is 'Zink the Zonk Government Zeek and Zak Higher Zip Education.'"

"That's right," Green said, "you have to read every second word."

"I don't understand."

"I can't help it. That's the way they taught me to write in high school."

"Green, I notice you never take any notes in my class. Can you explain this to me?"

"It's because of my tie clasp. You see, my tie clasp is really a radio transmitter. I have a tape machine back in my room and all I do is tape your lectures. It saves me writing with invisible ink."

"VERY INGENIOUS, Green. Now I noticed during the last test you kept photographing the other students' papers with a Minox camera."

"Yeah, well, it was just a training exercise."

"Yeah, I was thinking of working for Xerox when I finished school."

"Green, I don't want to seem unreasonable, but the last book report you handed in was on microfilm."

"What's wrong with that?"

"Nothing except you left it in a pumpkin behind your fraternity house. I don't have time to look for hidden book reports."

"I GUESS it's force of habit. Look, I've got a meeting this afternoon with a courier, I mean a fraternity brother. Is there anything else?"

"Yes, there is, Green, I'm going to have to flunk you."

"Flunk me in government?"

"Flunk you in the CIA." The professor whipped out a CIA card. "I'm your superior, Green, in charge of the operation at this school and you've made a hash of things."

"But how?"

"IT TURNS OUT the sorority girl your dating works for the Students Against American Intervention in Viet Nam. She's had you bugged from the beginning."

"But how?"

"Take a close look at her sorority pin which you're wearing."

"My, gosh, you can't trust anybody anymore."

Draper Offers New Plans For Quail Hill Holdings

The San Rafael Planning Commission will hold its first hearing tomorrow on the Draper Companies' latest plan to put housing on Quail Hill west of the Northgate Shopping Center.

Commissioners will meet at 7:30 p.m. at city hall.

The Quail Hill plan will be the third submitted in two years by the Draper firm. Instead of high-rise apartments, however, it mainly calls for one-story and two-story townhouses which would be purchased instead of rented.

It also would have less than a fourth of the 1,200 units shown in the first plan. That plan was turned down unanimously by the city council in March, 1964. The second, which showed 949 units, was denied by a 4-1 vote last June.

Tomorrow night, commissioners will see a plan which calls for a total of 250 units on the 82-acre hill. Of these, 34 will be single-family homes, while the rest will be townhouses. As before, the developers plan to reserve one acre for administrative-professional use.

Engineer Carlos Gonzalez, who worked on all three plans, said the new plan will cover only eight per cent of the hill, with the rest of the land guaranteed to stay open. It also calls for only a fourth of the grading required by the previous proposals, he said.

Gonzalez said he has calculated that the firm could build as many units if it erected nothing but single-family homes, complying with the city's new slope ordinance.

Hearing on Draper request to zone the hill as a planned community district, and on a use permit for the development, will be the first item on the commission's agenda.

Second item will be the first hearing on a smaller plan for townhouses, the Lynn Court Highlands development proposed by Carl A. Warden at the end of Lynn Court off Irwin Street.

Warden asks that the 6.6 acres be rezoned as planned community district, and that he be granted a permit to build 16 townhouses. The area is now zoned for single-family homes, some with a 10,000-square-foot minimum lot size.

Two more hearings will deal with proposed amendments to the city zoning ordinance. One will be the second hearing on adding a section providing for a new zoning classification called the "planned development district." The other will be the initial hearing on a section permitting removal of dirt without an excavation permit if none of the dirt is moved on or off the site.

Another item will be consideration of a variance permit to allow a 142-car shortage in parking spaces at the Montecito Shopping Center. Commissioners two weeks ago approved the use permit for additional stores in the center, subject to granting of the variance. Vote on the permit was 3-2.

The variance would permit 391 spaces where 533 would normally be required.

Final maps of two small subdivisions will come up for approval. They are a four-lot split asked by Raker, Hecht and Roberts on an extension of Main Drive, and the nine-lot subdivision planned by A. R. Nicolaisen at the former site of the Moore Hill Reservoir.

Three other items will relate to Humble Oil and Refining Co's. hopes of building a service station in the Loch Lomond Marina shopping center.

Commissioners will be asked to amend the marina master plan to permit a second station there. They also will consider a use permit and the plans for the proposed station.

Draft Rights To Be Told

"The Draft and Your Rights Under the Law" will be discussed by a four-man panel at the Corte Madera Recreation Center Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon.

The public meeting is sponsored by the Marin chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union. Howell Breece of Sausalito, president of the chapter, announced the following speakers will give information and answer questions from the floor:

Bert E. Krogen of San Francisco, chairman of the Selective Service Appeals Board of Northern California; Ben Seaver of San Francisco, member of the American Friends Service Committee; Alex Slivka of San Francisco, member of the Central Committee of Conscientious Objectors; and Lloyd McMurray, San Francisco attorney.

There will be an admittance charge.

Big-Time Gifts

NEW YORK (UPI) —Americans give big when it comes to music. About 26 per cent of the nation's 11 million household pianos are gifts, according to Wurlizter.

College Night Slated For Redwood Juniors

A college night at Redwood High School, to inform high school juniors and their parents on colleges in Northern California, is set for May 4 at 8 p.m. at the high school.

The session will be open to juniors from all Marin schools, and their parents.

Representatives from nine University of California campuses and from Chico State College, Sacramento State College, San Francisco State College, Stanislaus State College, and Sonoma State College will attend the program to provide information on their respective colleges.

Commercial Zones Asked For Novato

Creation of 22.6 acres of commercial zoning on various lots on South Novato and Rowland boulevards and Joyce and Donna streets will be considered by the Novato Planning Commission at its meeting at 8 p.m. today in the community house.

The land, owned by the Scottsdale Co., is now zoned partly limited agricultural and partly planned residential.

Also up for action will be a grading permit for property at the west end of Alice Street, south of Lamont Avenue, requested by L. J. Dervin and J. J. Angeloni. The excavation would leave cut banks more than 20 feet high.

Dr. Cecil H. Coggins has requested a use permit for a 70-bed convalescent hospital and nursing home at 1931 Novato Boulevard.

Final commission action is expected on the use permits and variances for service stations on three corners of the intersection of San Marin and San Andreas drives.

McCarthy Talk Set By TB Unit

State Sen. John F. McCarthy will discuss "Legislation Affecting the Health of Californians" at the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. annual dinner meeting Wednesday at Sabella's.

His talk will highlight the TB association's meeting during which officers are elected and installed.

The dinner, starting at 7:30 p.m. following a social hour, is open to the community. Reservations can be made at the TB association's San Rafael office.

Cooperative Nursery Still Seeks A Home

The San Rafael Cooperative Nursery School has been unable to find suitable new quarters at a price it can afford, school president Georgianne Harry reported today.

"But we are continuing to search," Mrs. Harry said. "I can't believe we won't find something not too far from downtown San Rafael."

The nursery school must eventually vacate the rent-free barracks-type building it has occupied for years on the San Rafael High School premises, because the structure is slated for demolition as part of the high school's building program.

The board of education has extended its original deadline for vacating the building sometime this summer, to give the nursery school more time to find new quarters. School Supt. Bert C. Corona said today, "If they do not find a suitable location, they can stay through next semester."

Mrs. Harry said the school can finance a $20,000 building and is looking for one with 1,225 square feet of floor space, so it can enroll 35 children and meet state requirements of 35 square feet per child.

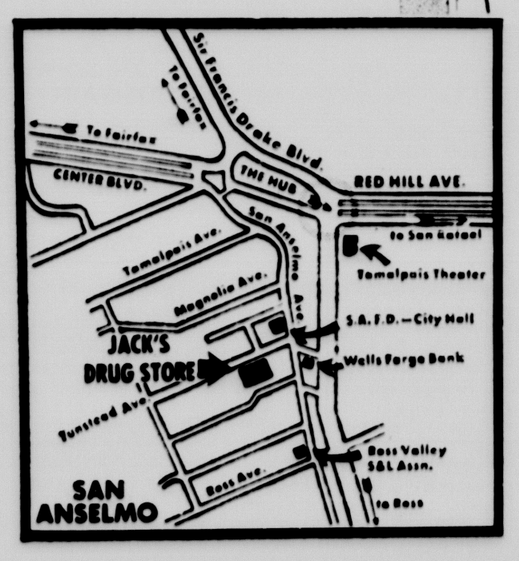
TO— THOSE WHO ARE USING A MAIL ORDER PRESCRIPTION SERVICE



You have probably reduced your medical expense by buying your prescriptions through mail order channels, even though at times it has been a rather inconvenient process.

You can effect the same, or greater, savings by having your prescriptions prepared at our drug store.

Jack's low prices are due to careful buying of quality pharmaceuticals from recognized leading laboratories . . . you can have the same low prices without receiving medical strangers in your home.

We have, also, reduced our store hours; thus reducing our overhead, and are passing the savings on to you.

Next time try us, just once, and learn first hand of JACK'S GUARANTEED-LOW PRESCRIPTION PRICES.

Please always remember—we meet or beat any prescription price.

CREAMPUFF '65 BUICK SKYLARK $2695

Here's the closest thing we can come to a brand new Skylark — its an almost new '65 2-dr. Hardtop that we sold new in '65 and just took in trade on a new 1967 Buick when the man returns from Europe in the fall.

Every conceivable extra including bucket seats, automatic transmission, radio, heater, power steering and even power windows.

Real low mileage makes this car an even better buy than a new one when you figure the depreciation the original owner has taken.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

In accordance with Section 56311 of the Government Code of the State of California, the North Marin County Water District hereby gives notice of a Public Hearing to be held at the Marshall School, Petaluma-Marshall Road, Town of Marshall, California, on May 9, 1966, at 8:00 P.M.

The purpose of the Hearing will be to consider the proposed annexation of approximately 10.4 square miles of land lying principally east and south of the Town of Marshall, and east of Tomales Bay, to the North Marin County Water District.

The distinctive short-form designation assigned by the Local Agency Formation Commission of the County of Marin to the territory proposed to be annexed is "North Marin County Water District; West Marin Annexation." A description of the exterior boundaries of said territory is as follows:

PARCEL ONE

All of that certain real property situated in the State of California, County of Marin and lying adjacent to an Easterly of the ordinary line of low water on the Easterly shoreline of Tomales Bay and described as follows:

COMMENCING at the intersection of the Southeasterly boundary of that certain 99.33 acre parcel of land conveyed to Paulina De Gottardi by deed recorded in Book 1226 of Deeds at page 84, Official Records of Marin County, which boundary bears South 10° 15' West, with the ordinary line of low water on the Easterly shoreline of Tomales Bay, and running thence Northeasterly along the Southeasterly boundaries of said parcel North 10° 15' East a distance of 1194.6 feet and North 44° East a distance of 693 feet to the most Northeasterly corner of said parcel. Railroad Conservative About Its Attitude

BLESSING, Tex. (UPI) — The naming of the railroad station "Blessing" in Matagorda County came through a compromise.

Jonathan Pierce was so pleased when the railroad agreed to build the station on his ranch in the 1880s he wanted to name it "Thank God." The railroad objected and he finally called it Blessing, as it is still known.

TELEVISION SHOW

How Marlo Thomas Made It On Her Own

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —There is a legitimate show business story-behind-the-story aspect to the casting of Marlo Thomas daughter of Danny Thomas, as star of ABC-TV's new comedy series, "That Girl," next season.

In the new half-hour show, the comedian's offpring plays an aspiring young actress who is attracted by the theater despite her family's desire for her to have a more conventional way of life. The parallel is similar to the decision that once faced Miss Thomas, except or course that her family was in show business.

Nevertheless, it was by no means, originally, a case of a famous star's child having a career tossed in her lap, as has happened many times recently in this town. Miss Thomas now has received accolades from the tough London critics for her starring performance in the play "Barefoot in the Park," but a famous family can't buy you that.

Some time ago, when Miss Thomas was just starting upward in her career, I had a conversation with her and her father, who naturally was quite proud of her, perhaps even more so at the time because he had tried to discourage her from the inevitable comedowns of show business, and saw her achieve success substantially because of her own talent.

Probably the key turnabout in her father's attitude toward her acting aspirations was her smash performance here in a local theater production of "Gigi."

And perhaps in view of this individualism on her part, and the parallel with her coming series, some quotes from our past three-way conversation are not amiss:

D. Thomas: "I wasn't enthusiastic about Marlo acting because our business is an uncertain business. The chances to make it are one in a million. But then I realized that maybe I was being selfish. I was trying to spare myself—not her. I didn't want to see her suffer and go through all my own heartaches all over again. I wonder if many parents don't say they're protecting their children when they really mean they're protecting themselves."

At her father's wish, Miss Thomas had studied to be a teacher, at the University of Southern California, although it wasn't what she wanted.

M. Thomas: "My father wanted me to have something to fall back on. He had only one year of high school himself, and we were a show business family. We were always traveling, on the road. We only became a real family when my father got his TV show . . . we settled down.

" . . . We've always been very close. Since I was seven, he's reasoned with me. I remember once I charged a lot of money for something I bought. He sat down with me and told me, 'whenever you spend $10, you're really spending $100, because that's how much daddy has to earn to get that $10.' It had a tremendous impression on me . He was always determined that I have a profession of my own. He told me, 'Daddy's not going to be here all your life to take care of you.' "

Mayor Hangs Badges On City Employes

ST. LOUIS (UPI) —Mayor Alfonso J. Cervantes has ordered identification badges to be worn by all city employes. The idea, said Cervantes, is to enable citizens to "easily identify an employee for any possible complaints —or compliments."

The badges, of red plastic, bear a reproduction of the seal of the city, and cost 19 cents each. Under each name on the badge are the words "At Your Service."

Motorists Pony Up

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Motorists in the United States paid $7.2 billion in vehicle fuel taxes in 1965, the National Automobile Club reports.

Teen-Ager Steals From Benefactor

Rocco D'Agostino of 50 Montezuma Road, Forest Knolls, a San Francisco restaurant operator, gave a dishwashing job Thursday to a 19-year-old youth who said he was broke.

Since the youth had no place to stay, D'Agostino took him into his home.

Then, D'Agostino told sheriff's deputies, he awoke at 11 a.m. Saturday to find the youth, his car, his wrist watch, $275 in cash and the keys to his restaurant gone.

D'Agostino reported the thefts occurred between 4:30 and 11 a.m.

Officials See $2 Million In Housing

The federal government has resumed a program of providing funds to aid private home buyers in Marin City, Congressman Donald H. Clausen announced today.

The government, through the Federal National Mortgage Association, will purchase mortgages to aid the financing of homes for persons moving to Marin City, according to Donald O. Stutsman, executive director of the Redevelopment Agency of Marin County.

Stutsman said that his "educated guess" on the amount of funds available is two million dollars for Marin City. He said that he knows of only three cities in the United States wnere this type of federal program is in effect: Marin City, Richmond and Philadelphia.

The federal government suspended the program in Marin City in December as part of a general cut-back in federal spending.

Teachers Play School District Salaries Against Each Other

The annual school teacher salary parade has by now mostly passed the reviewing stand. Most districts have granted raises which, although less than the teachers asked, are greater in per centage than those that will go within the next two months to other public employees.

Teacher organizations have learned a great deal about pay negotiating since the days when teachers, unprotected by special legislation, were at the mercy of local school boards for both renewal of their contracts and amount of pay. Nowadays, the shoe seems to be on the other foot: the boards appear pretty much at the mercy of the well-organized teachers.

The organizations have accomplished great improvements in salaries mostly by a simple, effective tactic: play off one school district against another. The multiplicity of districts in California is helpful with such a tactic.

Here is an example:

The California Teachers Assn.'s Bay Section Reporter, published by the CTA section covering the San Francisco Bay Area, devoted much of two issues this spring to what it called an "East Bay teachers' salary crisis."

James Sutton, finance consultant for the CTA Bay Section, led off the first of two articles with this:

"Throughout the East Bay region, from Vallejo to Fremont, low salaries for teachers threaten the quality of instruction and educational opportunities available to 300,000 public school students."

This scare lead was bolstered with an assortment of charts, all projectiong the rate of pay increases for East Bay teachers into future years ,and comparing it with the rates expected elsewhere (in selected areas, of course).

Throughout, the theme was that the students would suffer if the salaries were not increased more rapidly.

This heavy artillery salvo was the more interesting because, just four years ago, the same CTA Bay Section was boasting of the gains in these same districts in its publication called Salary Trends.

In successive issues in the spring of 1962, Salary Trends announced with pleasure that Mount Diablo Unified District had granted raises averaging 6 per cent, instituting a new salary scale running from $5,000 to $9,750 per year; that Hayward High School District had adopted a scale of $5,150 to $10,300, meaning an average 8 per cent increase; Acalanes High School District, $5,100 to $10,125, a 3.4 per cent average hike beyond the annual increment incorporated in the scale. It also reported top salaries exceeding $10,000—which was then the CTA's goal—in Fremont High School and Contra Costa Junior College districts. It followed with reports of increases ranging from 3.6 per cent up, plus the regular annual increments, in other East Bay districts.

How come a crisis threatens the quality of education because of low pay just four years later in these same districts?

Sutton explained it thus:

"Six years ago East Bay teachers received increases comparable to those reported from elsewhere in the Bay Rrea . . .Recent surveys . . . show East Bay districts now paying $500 per teacher below salaries paid by the rest of the Bay Area.

"From 1959 to date, the average salary paid East Bay teachers has increased 25 per cent, while the average elsewhere in the Bay Area is up 36 per cent."

The State Senate Fact-Finding Committee on Revenue and Taxation late last year made a proposal to do away with this district vs. district pay competition. The committee, headed by George Miller Jr. (from that same East Bay with the alleged salary crisis) proposed that the state set a uniform salary schedule for classroom teachers. It suggested a 10-step scale, with three levels (bachelor's degree, master's degree, and master's plus 48 hours), with a minimum starting salary of $5,500 and a maximum of $11,000.

The proposal didn't get much of anywhere, one obvious reason being that many districts had already gone beyond the suggested figures at both ends of the scale.

There is considerable doubt that a statewide schedule would work, anyhow. Variations in living costs are too wide. For instance, a check of "for rent" advertisements this month showed that in El Dorado County, plenty of three-bedroom houses were for rent from $90 to $125 per month. About 30 miles away, in Sacramento, such houses ranged from $90 to $165. And in high-priced Marin County, the range was from $145 to $350. Obviously, the $11,000-per-year top-paid teacher would be on a much higher rung of the economic ladder in El Dorado than in Marin.

Auto Safety Clinic Scheduled At Shops Center

A "clinic" to make sure cars are up to par will be held by the Kiwanis Club of Southern Marin May 14 and 21 at the Corte Madera Shopping Center.

Mechanics will be on hand from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. to check over vehicles for bad brakes, worn tires and other neglected items, said treasurer Ralph Mannella.

"Lanes will be set up for any motorist who wishes to take advantage of the free vehicle check," he said.

If all items, including lights, steering, exhaust system, glass, wipers, horn and safety belt, pass the test, a sticker will be issued for the car.

William Carroll of Tiburon and Dale Greenlee of San Rafael are co-chairmen of the safety check.

Meeting In Ross

Trustees of the Ross School District will hold a special meeting at 7:30 p.m. today to discuss teachers' salary schedule for 1966-67.

Tomales High Faculty Pay Higher Than First Listed

Tomales High School teachers, who were perhaps unique among Marin County teachers this year in not asking for a pay increase, receive higher pay than was reported in "The People's Schools" column last Thursday.

The column, and an earlier news story in the Independent-Journal, reported the Tomales High School District salary schedule as $5,400 to $9,288 per year.

This was the 1964-65 scale. Last year, the district board granted a healthy 13 per cent raise, introducing a new scale of $6,000 to $10,908. At the time, teachers said they would prefer to receive a sizeable increase every two years and not have to negotiate annually, reported Supt. Anthony Matulich.

Such resolutions usually go by the board as living costs rise and the "two-year raise becomes unsatisfactory. In this case, it did not. The teachers asked no further raise for 1966-67.

The Tomales salary scale is higher than the current schedule in Novato Unified School District, which is $5,520 to $10,656 Novato trustees, however, are expected to agree on a higher scale for next school year shortly.

The other two Marin districts operating high schools are San Rafael and Tamalpais. The new scale for '66-'67 in San Rafael High School District is $5,600 to $12,080. The '65-'66 scale in Tamalpais district is $5,950 to $12,150, with a higher schedule being considered for '66-'67.

Driver Is Injured As Cycle Hits Deer

J. E. Peterson, 21, of San Lorenzo, Alameda County, suffered leg and body scrapes when he was thrown from his motorcycle as it hit a deer on Shoreline Highway, about two miles north of Bolinas, at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

The deer was uninjured, the Californiia Highway Patrol reported. Peterson was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Garbage Firms Study Disposal

Two Marin County garbage collection firms, Marin Sanitary Service and Mill Valley Garbage Co., have jointly announced they have launched a study aimed at finding the best method of garbage disposal consistant with land and water conservation principles.

Directors of both firms said they were concerned that the present method of dumping garbage on tidelands or as fill in other places "may not be in the best interests of the public."

The two companies dispose of more than 200 tons of garbage each day at dump sites in Marin and Contra Costa counties.

Fairfax Sets Hearing On Building Site Law

The Fairfax Planning Commission will hold a public hearing at 8 p.m. Thursday on proposed amendments to its building site requirements ordinance.

Other items on the agenda include: a variance application from Leonard Nathan for a lot between 59 and 63 Creek Road; a request for a conditional zoning permit from Mary Traverso of 63 Manor Road; and lot split applications for lots in Deer Park and on Cascade Drive.

The great "Gold Rush" in Australia began in 1851 with the discovery of gold in New South Wales.

Nuclear power makes a good neighbor

America's electric utilities find that clean nuclear power plants play an increasingly important role in their efforts to supply reliable, low-cost electricity and that people everywhere welcome them as truly "good neighbors" in their communities.

Californians call nuclear power clean, safe

SAN FRANCISCO: Pacific Gas and Electric Company reports that its Humboldt Bay nuclear power unit at Eureka, California is "safe, clean, and a good neighbor by any standard of comparison. The residents of Eureka are urging us to build another nuclear power plant in their community." Reliable? Two years' experience has proved the nuclear unit to be more reliable than most coal, oil and natural gas fired power plants. PG&E believes that "after 1970 many, if not most, of the major electric generating units added to our system will be nuclear."

Michigan welcomes nuclear addition

JACKSON, MICH.: Consumers Power Company says of its Big Rock Point Station: "We are operating a plant that is safe for anybody—next to the plant or ten miles away." The utility is convinced that nuclear power plants are a welcome addition in any city—even downtown. "And we've got a real tourist attraction—over 325,000 people have toured our plant since 1962."

New York plant helps make progressive city

SYRACUSE, N. Y.: Nine-Mile-Point Nuclear Plant is now being built by Niagara Mohawk Power Corp. The mayor of Oswego, N. Y., says, "It will enhance our reputation as a progressive city and a clean, modern, good place to live."

Citizens praise New Jersey nuclear plant

MORRISTOWN, N. J.: Jersey Central Light & Power Co. is building a nuclear power plant chosen to hold down the cost of electricity; and communities involved see the plant as a welcome new neighbor. The president of the Chamber of Commerce at Greater Lakewood, N. J., for example, predicts the new Oyster Creek Nuclear Power Station "will strengthen our community economically."

Neighbors like nuclear plant in Illinois

CHICAGO: Commonwealth Edison Company is operator of the nation's first large commercial nuclear power plant, Dresden Nuclear Power Station. Neighbors in nearby Morris, Illinois are happy about Dresden after years of operation. "We are pleased that Commonwealth Edison has chosen safe, clean nuclear power for the large addition to Dresden, adding to the dynamic growth potential in the Morris area," says the mayor of Morris. Two 715,000-kilowatt General Electric boiling water reactors will join the first Dresden reactor in 1969 and 1970, supplying enough low-cost power to serve over a million homes in the Chicago area.

General Electric has built or is building 13 nuclear plants for these and other progressive electric utilities in a cooperative effort to help Americans live in a cleaner, better nation.

National, Pacific Records Fall In Marin Swim Meet

One national and seven Pacific AAU records were shattered over the weekend at the third annual Marin Swimming Championships in the Bon Air Recreation Center pool in Greenbrae.

Tom Balfanti of the Aquabears from Orinda, competing in boys 11-12 division, whizzed through the 50-meter freestyle in 28.1 to crack the 28.2 mark set by Oregon's Doug Windes.

Chris Paulson of the powerful Santa Clara Swim Club broke two Pacific Assn. records in the girls 15-17 division, swimming the 400-meter individual medley in 5:38.0 and the 200-meter butterfly in 2:39.4.

Other record breakers: Liz Close, unattached, 15-17 girls 400 free, 4:56.8; Paula Robison, Flying Fins (San Lorenzo), 15-17 girls 50 free, 29.0; Susan Fitzgerald, Peninsula Tigers (Redwood City), 11-12 girls 50 free, 30.2; Evenlyn Kossner, Del Norte (Sacramento), 13-14 girls 100 back, 1:21.1; and Gayle Benty, Del Norte and Lynn Vidaldi, San Francisco Park and Recreation, tied for the P.A. record in the 13-14 girls 100 breast, 1:21.6.

The two-day meet was co-sponsored by Schultz Enterprises, Marin Pirates Swim Club and the Independent-Journal. It was under the sanction of the Pacific Assn. of the Amateur Athletic Union.

The Aquabears won the team trophy with 207 points, followed by the San Francisco Park and Recreation team, 161½; Marin Pirates, 152; Del Norte Swim Club, 121½; San Rafael Swim Club, 119 5/6, and Peninsula Tigers, 70½.

Top performers among the Marin entrants were Katie Parnow of the San Rafael Swim Club and Steve Iverson of the Marin Pirates. Katie, swimming in girls 10 and under, was a double trophy winner, taking first place honors in the 40 free, 32.5, and the 50 breast, 43.6. Steve, swimming in the boys 11-12 division, was the only other Marin County Class A first place winner, taking top honors in the 100 breast, 1:26.2.

In addition to her two wins, Miss Parnow was third in the 50-meter butterfly and fourth in the 50 back. Iverson was also third in the 50-meter freestyle.

Other Marin County entrants who won awards in Class A and B events:

Marin Pirates — John Astor, Robin Bachrach, Candy Beeler, Deirdre Bullis, Teresa Carlisle, Sue Carlisle, Cheryl Cattan, Tacy Dunham, Carolyn Hill, Erik Humber, Dianne Johnston, Irene Johnson, Liz Locati, Michael McGee, Teri McGee, Terry Shistar, Roberta Shistar, Reagan Wader, Claudia Warner and Scott Warner.

Mays Ties HR Record, Comes Home To Break It

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

Little League Openers Recall Good Old Nickel Brick Days

Hello, young glovers, whoever you are,
I hope your bobbles are few . . .

PARDON ME WHILE I hum while I work. But spring does something to me. In the spring a young man's fancy turns to baseball. Heh-heh-heh—silly young man.

Many of Marin's Little Leagues opened their 1966 schedules over the weekend and just the thought of Little League drives me to think.

Can you remember when you were 12? Put down that brew and close your eyes and reminisce with me, will you?

HECK, LITTLE League then was just a gleam in Judge Landis' eye. We didn't have those fancy flannels and official balls and bats and shoes. Our field was the original diamond in the rough. Remember?

Our "official" ball was the beloved nickel brick wrapped in yards of friction tape and our bats had more nails than hits in them.

For bases we used any garment we could swipe off someone's clothesline. Pinkest bases in baseball.

AFTER CHOOSING up sides we always elected the toughest kid to catch because we didn't have masks in those days. And the toughest kid invariably became the ugliest kid. A foul tip meant a 10-minute time out to revive the catcher, but he always came back, bloody but unbowed.

And because our field had more bad hops than a condemned brewery, they always made the dumbest kid play third base, which is why I had the purplest chest in town and led the Fairfax Trojans in broken noses three years running. My badges of ignorance.

WE HAD more rocks in our infield than the Pebble Beach quarry. If you couldn't field a ground ball you just grabbed a rock and threw it to first. No body knew the difference. Except the first baseman. We called him "Hot Hands" Trimble.

Kids today are pretty fancy in their spikes. Our "spikes" were our toe nails poking through our shoes, I Ked you not. On Sundays the congregation could always tell which altar boy was the best ball player. His sole was bared, this angelic most valuable prayer. Bless me, Father, for I have punned.

AND OUR uniforms were our school clothes. Sliding pads? Ha! A pink anny-fay peeking through a torn hip pocket was your merit badge for sliding into second base.

Heck, we didn't have scorebooks in those days; we used calendars because our game started in April and didn't end until September, unless the kid who owned the bat got mad and went home in August.

OUR FIELD in Fairfax was long and narrow and sloped toward town where most hits rolled. The outfielders had a good deal chasing homers. For every home run they managed to stop at Pilson's Drug Store for a cherry phosphate or bum a slice of baloney from Rome the butcher before bringing the ball back.

We had to umpire our own games in those days, so you can imagine the arguments. If a bad hop didn't hit you in the mouth the catcher would. But that was alright because your next time at bat you stood deep in the batter's box and accidentally knocked the catcher through the infield. Those were the original bleeding singles.

I GUESS the kids today feel pretty lucky with all their first class equipment, manicured ball parks and large crowds of moms and dads cheering their plays. And I'm happy for them.

But I think we were pretty lucky, too, with our taped nickel bricks, the torn jeans and skinned backside, the bad hops and all.

Every game was a world serious to us. And everytime I look at my nose in the mirror I'm reminded of the only record I ever broke. Three years running.

Marin Drivers Win On Petaluma Oval

Jim Rogers of Nicasio won the fourth heat and placed third in the trophy dash in the 1966 hardtop opener at the Petaluma Fairgrounds track Saturday.

Mart Howard won the first heat and Jim Giambra and Chuck Louwaert finished second and third in the second heat. The trio is from San Rafael.

511 For Wondrous Willie

HOUSTON (AP) — "The season," said Willie Mays ,"is just beginning."

That seemingly innocent statement, after Mays drilled his 511th home run yesterday to tie Mel Ott's National League career record, served notice that the San Francisco Giants slugger has set his sights on another 50-homer season. If Willie hits the 50 mark again he will:

—Move into the No. 2 spot behind Babe Ruth's 714 total on the all-time home run list.

—Become the only player in history — other than the Babe — to hit 50 homers in three or more seasons. Ruth topped 50 four times.

Barring injury, the 34-year-old Mays will pass Ted Williams, 52, and Jimmy Foxx, 534, third and second, respectively, on the homer list, as well as Ott before he finishes his 15th major league campaign. Ott, who played for the Giants when they were based in New York, set the National League mark in 22 seasons.

"It was just one home run," Mays said after the Giants' 4-2 victory over the Astros. "I hope I'll get a lot more."

However, he admitted he was "going for a homer every time up, all four of them.

"I wanted to tie the record in San Francisco, but the game was on television, and I don't guess it makes much difference."

His homer tied the score in the eighth inning. "When I was circling the bases, I was thinking '2-2'. When I got back to the dugout I didn't hear anybody say anything I hadn't heard before. But there were so many people talking I couldn't hear what many of them said."

Houston reliever Jim Owens was the victim of Mays' 420-foot left center field homer. "His hit tied up the game and that's what I'm concerned about," Owens said. "The record is okay for him but I don't care about it."

The blast was Mays' sixth of the year and his second in two days at the Astrodome. He also hit Nos. 500 and 501 in the domed stadium.

Mays said he likes to shoot for left center and center when batting in the Dome. "The ball travels real well in those alleys in this park. It seems to stop going down the lines, though."

Grady Hatton, the Astros' manager, said Owens "threw a fastball and Willie was looking fastball all the way. Anytime you give him that pitch and he's looking for it you've got big trouble."

Tiger Has Big Weight Advantage

NEW YORK (AP)—Middleweight champion Dick Tiger of Nigeria will have a 9½-pound weight advantage over welterweight champion Emile Griffith of New York in their 15-round middleweight title fight at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Tiger scaled 160 pounds and Griffith 150½ at the weigh-in ceremony. The middleweight limit is 160 pounds.

The 36-year-old Tiger weighed 158½ when he regained the crown from Joey Giardello at the Garden last Oct. 21. Griffith weighed 155, eight over the welterweight limit in his last start. That was a non-title 10 round decision victory over Johnny Brooks at Las Vegas, Nev., on Feb. 3 (See story on page 32).

Giants Top N.L.; Open Home Stand

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Willie Mays commands the attention as the San Francisco Giants returned home today for a 10-game stand during which the great centerfielder should set a new National League home run record.

Willie hit the 511th of his career yesterday in Houston to tie Mel Ott for the league's career leadership in the homer department.

Now he faces the Atlanta Braves today and tomorrow night and then Cincinnati, St. Louis and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the current Candlestick Park stand.

Ken Johnson was Atlanta's probable pitcher today with Bob Shaw slated to hurl for the Giants. A pulled muscle suffered in his last outing has forced Juan Marichal out of his usual place in the rotation. He may get the call tomorrow night.

Mays' homers helped the Giants out of a batting slump that saw them shut out in their first two games at Houston but come back to win 2-1 Saturday in the second game of a twin bill and 4-2 yesterday.

They came home tied for first place with Pittsburgh at 9-3 for the infant season.

Yesterday, Mays came up with one out and the Giants trailing 2-1. With the count two balls and no strikes, he connected on a Jim Owens pitch and slammed it into the left-center-field stands.

Jim Hart then broke the tie with another home run.

Mays' record tying clout sailed 420 feet and was his sixth home runu of a season during which he's also expected to break Jimmy Foxx' record of 534, the most ever by a right-handed hitter in the major league baseball. Babe Ruth, a left-handed swinger, holds the all-time record at 714.

On Saturday, Mays had broken a 1-1 tie in the night game after the Astros had beaten the Giants 4-0 in the opener.

A VERY HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Lotz Fires Brilliant 63 To Lead Dallas Tourney

DALLAS (AP) — The $85,000 Dallas Open rolls into its final mud-splattered round today with two golfers who never won a PGA tournament closely pursued by two who were supposed to fight for it in the first place.

Harold Henning, a South African who has won a lot of tournaments around the world but never in the United States, and John Lotz, of Hayward, Calif., who professes to be in awe of the big names of the game, pushed into a tie for the lead yesterday.

Doug Sanders, who had topped the field at the 36-hole mark with 137, had water and tree trouble out on the soggy 6,923-yard Oak Cliff Country Club course and the best he could do was shoot a one-under-par 70.

This might be considered quite good in any tournament other than this one, where teeing up rules have allowed the players to batter par 69 times in the last two days.

Lotz celebrated his 25th birthday by shooting an eight-under-par 63 —one stroke over the Oak Cliff Country Club course record — and his 205 looked like a fairly safe lead until Henning, the quiet, lanky man from Johannesburg, South Africa, came in with a 65 that put him, also, at 205.

Sanders wasn't in too bad a shape though, because he was only two strokes back at 207. Gay Brewer, co-favorite with Sanders for the $15,000 first money, also rested at 207.

Joining them at two strokes away was Ken Still, who eagled the 18th hole with an 80-foot chip shot for a 67.

Brewer had a 69 with some terrific putting, including two 15-footers and one from 25 feet away.

JOHN LOTZ

Lotz presented the most intriguing story. He said he was nervous playing with the big names of golf and had to talk himself into relaxing under pressure.

He did that yesterday after three-putting the first hole for a bogey. "I said, 'Look here, John, don't be nervous. These big names make bogeys just like you and they don't always make the right shot. Just relax, boy.' "

He sure did as he drove and putted like the big shots of golf would want to do themselves. Included in his sensational round was a 90-yard wedge shot that holed out for an eagle on 12.

Golf Winners

Mrs. Thomas Gibson shot 112-36—76 to win the Indian Valley Business Women's "iron" golf tournament Saturday. Next were Chris Griffin, 101-24—77, Mrs. Torc Bedayan, 100-22—78; Mrs. Joseph Mestas, 105-25—80.

Seals In Bad Shape For Final

VICTORIA, B.C. (AP) — How much fire is left in the San Francisco Seals' sparkplug, player-coach Charlie Burns?

That is the question which the Seals will be asking themselves as they work out today in preparation for their final game tomorrow with the Victoria Maple Leafs in the best-of-seven semi-final series of the Western Hockey League playoffs.

Burns, who lately has taken on a distinctly wan look, is the first to admit he's tired.

"In the last 10 games of the season, I did too much to get us here," the player-coach admitted Sunday. "And now, I'm not getting that extra day of rest." He referred to the increased demands of the playoffs.

In Saturday's 5-4 overtime loss, which evened the series at 3-3, Burns lost the puck, passed erratically and came out on the short end in scraps for the puck in the corner.

"When I'm playing the way I am, I'm not helping the club," Burns conceded. "But there's nobody else who can do any better, and the guys look to me."

When the Seals practice today, Burns will stay off the ice. He hopes the rest will be the needed tonic for him.

Before Burns suffered a back injury in the regular season, the Seals had a 10-11-2 record. While he was recuperating from a disc operation, the club was a miserable 12-21-0. Then after Burns returned to play on March 13, San Francisco won 10 and tied two of its last 14 games, edging into the playoffs.

But the tired playerc-oach did not provide much inspiration Saturday.

The Seals were behind 3-0 until late in the second period. They took advantage of defensive lapses to tie the game at 3-3 and then again at 4-4 with only 70 seconds left in regulation play.

Victoria's Bob Barlow ended the game by scoring in the 13th minute of sudden death overtime.

Gordie Redahl, Sandy Hucul and Lou Jankowski scored the other Maple Leaf goals. Wayne Connelly, Ron Harris, Ron Schock and Tom Thurlby scored for the Seals.

WORLD MIDDLEWEIGHT FIGHT

Grifith Predicts Kayo Win Over Tiger Tonight

NEW YORK (AP) — Welterweight king Emile Griffith hopes to catch up to a tiring Dick Tiger in the late rounds and then knock him out in their battle of boxing champions at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The odds, however, favor the 36-year-old Tiger by 8-5 to make a successful defense of his middleweight title against the 28-year-old challenger.

The 15-rounder is scheduled to starting at 7 p.m., PDT.

"I'll be going for a knockout in the late rounds," said the confident Griffith. "I'll be going for it as soon as Tiger gets tired. When you see me go after him, you'll know that I know he's tired."

"If there's going to be a knockout, the victim won't be me," said Tiger, a Nigerian who never has been stopped or dropped. "I think it will go 15 rounds. He's a good champion and a good fighter. But when it's over I'll still be the middleweight champion."

Griffith is bidding to become the third welterweight (147 pounds limit) champion to capture the middleweight crown (160 pounds limit). Four others have tried and failed.

This will be the superbly conditioned Tiger's first title defense since he regained the crown from Joey Giardello on a 15-round decision at the Garden last Oct. 21. It will be his sixth title fight in his two-time reign. He first won the title from Gene Fullmer in 1962 and lost it to Giardello in 1963.

Griffith will be engaging in his 12th championship contest in a three-time reign as king of the welterweights. He has a 9-2 record in title fights.

The battle of the champions, which could be the fight of the year, may lure some 15,000 customers and gross $150,000. It also will be telecast to 60 or more stations from coast to coast. The New York area will be blacked out of the live telecast.

Tiger, already a rich man with investments in seven apartment houses, a 2,000-seat outdoor movie and other businesses in his native Nigeria, has been guaranteed a minimum of $75,000 against 40 per cent of all receipts. Griffith, a high-living youngster who also supports more than a dozen relatives, will get 20 per cent. He figures to earn about $40,000.

A pro 14 years, Tiger has a 54-14-3 won-lost-draw record, including 25 knockouts. Griffith, a pro nearly eight years, has a 49-7 record, including 18 knockouts. He has been stopped once, by middleweight contender Rubin Carter in the first round at Pittsburgh, Dec. 20, 1963.

Although both are regarded as aggressive fighters who give the fans a run for their money, they have hardly a mark on their faces.

"We both come to fight — it should be a good one," said Griffith.

Tiger figures to have about a six pound weight advantage. He will scale about 159 to Griffith's 153.

FIGHT ON TV

Tonight's title fight will be shown on television in Northern California on Channel 10 (KXTV) and Channel 11 (KNTV) starting at 7 o'clock. A viedeo-tape rerun will be shown on Channel 2 (KTVU) at 10:30.

San Jose Sprinter Near World Record

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

San Jose State's superb Tommy Smith appears closer than ever to setting a world sprint record.

In a track meet with Fresno State Saturday, Smith raced 220 yards on a curve in 20.4 and 200 meters in 20.3, the first time only two-tenths of a second off a world mark and the second only one-tenth.

Observers said he might have had a world record except for a slow start. His first attempt off the blocks was very fast—a fraction ahead of the starter's gun—and on the second try he hung back slightly.

Smith, a sprinter in a class by himself, had to share the West Coast track spotlight over the weekend, however, with Dennis Carr of the University of Southern California.

Carr won the 880 yard run in a meet with Stanford in 1:47.9, believed to be the fastest time in the world outdoors this year.

UCLA's track team provided some fine performances in a meet with Oregon. Bob Day ran a 4:00.0 mile, Marc Savage sailed 16-2 in the pole vault and Ron Copeland sped over the 120 yard high hurdles in 13.7.

Oregon's Neal Steinhauer won a double victory — 61-1 in the shot and 183-2 in the discus.

Team results of the three top meets: San Jose State 111, Fresno State 34; University of Southern California 94, Stanford 51 and UCLA 91, Oregon 54.

Smith, a junior, also set a school record in the long jump with a leap of 25-11. He took only three jumps and until this season had not competed in the State's 440 yard relay team, which won in 41.0.

Washington State handed California its 10th straight Pacific Coast Athletic Conference dual meet defeat 78-67, sweeping the high jump and the triple jump.

But California's Bob Price came through with a strong effort, nipping WSU's Chris Westman in a 4:08.3 miles and a 8:54.1 two mile.

Raiders In Home Debut On Sept. 18

OAKLAND (AP)—The Oakland Raiders of the American Football League have a brand new schedule today to go with their new 53,000-seat Alameda County Coliseum.

The Raiders open their 1966 season Sept. 2 against the Miami Dolphins in the Florida city, they announced Saturday, but they have to wait until Sept. 18 for their first home game, against the Kansas City Chiefs.

Other scheduled games: Sept. 9 or 10, at Houston; Sept. 25, San Diego at Oakland; Oct. 2, no game; Oct. 9, Miami at Oakland; Oct. 16, at Kansas City; Oct. 23, at New York; Oct. 30, at Boston; Nov. 6, Houston at Oakland; Nov. 13, at San Diego; Nov. 20, at Denver; Nov. 24, Buffalo at Oakland; Dec. 3, New York at Oakland; Dec. 11, Denver at Oakland; Dec. 18, no game.

Cal Derby Stars Nix Kentucky

ALBANY (AP) — Tragniew and Postage, the colts who finished one-two in Saturday's California Derby with only a short nose separating them, won't be going to the Kentucky Derby.

Barry J. Richards of Los Angeles explained that his winner was a late foal and won't be a full 3-year-old until later in the year and he doesn't want to rush him.

So Tragniew will be pointed toward the rich races at Hollywood Park this summer.

M. H. Gluck of the Elmendorf Farm decided not to send Postage either and he'll also remain in the West.

So only Fleet Shoe, the favorite who ran fifth at Golden Gate Fields, will make the trip to Churchill Downs. Held far off the pace, Fleet Shoe failed to make up the distance needed as Tragniew won in 1:47 2-5, the fastest ever for the California Derby at a mile and an eighth.

A golf game and an airplane ride put jockey Don Pierce in the winner's circle with Tragniew, and 11-1 shot who returned $23.80.

"During a game of golf with Barry Richards last winter, he told me about his colt," Pierce recalled. "Then he called a few days ago and asked if I'd ride him in this race.

"It's the nicest airplane ride I ever took in my life."

After winning the $60,600 purse, Pierce flew back to New York.

The race grossed $94,850 making it the richest for 3-year-olds in Northern California turf history.

Pierce kept Tragniew in good position throughout and went into the lead briefly as the field headed into the home stretch. Postage, with Miguel Yanez aboard, moved out ahead a furlong out but Tragniew came again and nipped him in the nal jump. Photos showed only inches separating the two.

Drin, second choice in the betting, took third followed by Big Red Rocket.

Marin Tars Split Double-Header With Sierra Nine

College of Marin's baseball squad split a Golden Valley Conference doubleheader with Sierra of Redding Saturday, dropping the first one 9-7, then coming back to take the "nightcap," 10-9, on the Tars' diamond in Kentfield.

Marin now has a 3-5 GVC record.

Jerry Daniele bombed a 380-foot homer over the leftfield fence, barely fair, staking the Marin nine to a 2-0 lead in the first game, but going into their half of the ninth, the Tars trailed 9-4. Singles by Bill Kilcoyne and Bob Marder and walks to Denny Thorne and Ray Valconesi produced three runs, but the rally ended with two left on base.

Thorne, with two hits in three trips, Daniele, two for five and Kilcoyne, three for five, each drove in a pair of runs for the Mariners.

Sierra tallied twice to start things going in the second tussle, but the Tars erupted for five big runs with five singles and a double, centerfielder Lorrie Galassi getting the two-base hit.

Bill Kilcoyne brought the Mariners from two behind in the seventh with a homer, driving in Ray Valconesi, who had singled, making it a 9-9 deadlock. The crucial sequence that followed saw Fred Rodoni single, steal second, and then come around to score the winning run when Marder ripped a shot between shortstop and third base.

The fielding gem of the day was provided by Galassi who made a fine running, one-handed catch of a ball hit deep to center, snuffing out a sixth inning Sierra uprising in which three runs were scored.

TERRA LINDA TOP MARIN TEAM IN SANTA ROSA TRACK RELAYS

Independent-Journal Sports
Mon., April 25, 1966 33

The five high school track and field teams that represented Marin County in the Santa Rosa Relays didn't return with a bundle of first place medals Saturday, but did make their presence felt in the stiff competition that fielded at least 20 schools.

This was the first meet of its kind for Santa Rosa, and will now be an annual affair. El Cerrito won both varsity and Class B divisions.

Because Santa Rosa has a rubberized, asphalt track (a track that becomes "sticky" and "dead" in hot weather) the 90 degree heat had a lot to do with some of the poor individual performances, yet the thinclads managed to record some good marks, too. For example, Dean Lazzarini of Drake, who just last Friday ran a 9.6 seconds 100-yard dash to rate with the fastest century men in Northern California, tied for third along with Tam's Honor Jackson with a 10.1 clocking; and Tam's 440 relay team of Ron Turner, Horace White, Don Smith and Jackson set a new school record with a 43.9 in the trials.

Some of the other Marin highlights were:

Terra Linda did best teamwise, racking up about 20 points for sixth place. The Trojans finished fourth in the 180 shuttle hurdles, second in the distance medley and second in the two-mile relay. Pete Mills set a new school record in the pole vault, clearing 11-4; and Ron Banks copped a fourth in the tripple jump, an event he had done only once before.

Tam's Ken Blasingame placed second in the 120 high hurdles, 15.1, and the Indian "Bee" 440 relay quartet of Reggie Walker, Steve Ellis, Luther Brown and Alan Lee also established a new school record turning a 44.5 in the trials, though finishing second in the finals.

Jackson, with a third in the long jump, 21-3½, and Drake's Doug Manuel, third in the shot with a toss of 53-1, notched best in the county to date with those marks.

For Redwood, it was Jeff Hicks with a second in the pole vault, 12-1, although Hicks has cleared 13-1½ this season and lost out only on number of misses; Tom Cooke with a 51.7 in the 440, fifth, and Dave Howell with a fifth in the triple jump, 39-8.

Gary Wittenmeier chalked up Marin Catholic's only points with a toss of 148-9 in the discuss, good for a fifth.

Other Class B highlights were provided by Redwood's Andy McIlroy who tied for fourth in the high jump, Drake's Ron Piombo, 46-7 in the shot; Tam's Malcolm Collier with a blistering 3:15.4 clocking in the 1320 and Tam's mile relay team with a 3:35.6.

Lakers Win As Celts Play Worst Game

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics move back to Los Angeles with a feeling of foreboding today about the sixth game of the National Baskteball Assn.'s championship playoffs.

"They'll be at their best with the crowd behind them and knowing there's no tomorrow," said John Havlicek of the Celtics after the defending champions put on their worst performance of the series to lose the fifth game 121-117 yesterday at Boston Garden.

Losing Coach Red Auerbach was especially burned about having to make the trip to Los Angeles for the game Tuesday night.

"We have that long, long trip for nothing," he moaned. "And I warned the guys this might happen. Once we got the lead we got careless. We thought it was over."

It was a combination of poor Boston shooting and a stronger Los Angeles defense that gave the Lakers the fifth game victory, slicing Boston's lead to 3-2.

The Celtics had two terrible shooting periods, falling behind 37-23 in thefirst period while making only eight of 25 shots. Boston sunk only nine of 22 field goal tries in the fourth period although they still outscored the Lakers from the floor 45-43 for the game.

Independent-Journal Sports

34 . Mon., April 25, 1966

Elgin Baylor and Jerry West were the heroes of the victory, combining for 72 points. Baylor, playing despite the loss of a thumbnail earlier in the week, wound up with 41 points and contributed 16 rebounds as the Lakers outrebounded the Celtics 62-60.

"Under the circumstances, Elgin played a fantastic game," said Lakers' Coach Fred Schaus. He was fantastic under both boards as well as shooting."

Auerbach complained about one call — a rebounding foul called on Sam Jones with seven seconds left to play.

The Celtics had closed to within two points and Jones grabbed the rebound of the third Celtics' shot in a row but he was charged with fouling West.

West made the two foul shots to insure the victory.

"I can't agree with calling that foul on Jones," Auerbach grumbled. "Sam says he didn't touch him."

"Still you can't blame the loss on one call," added Auerbach, who retires from the coaching ranks as the most successful ever when the playoffs close.

The Lakers may be in backcourt trouble if two games injuries fail to respond to treatment before the sixth game.

Rookie Gail Goodrich sprained an ankle in the third period and an ice pack was applied to reduce the swelling. Walt Hazzard suffered a muscle spasm and trainer Frank O'Neill warned that the injury could work right out in the first few hours or it could last.

Wow! Litchfield '9' Romps To 19-0 Win

An already strong Litchfield's semi-pro baseball team from San Rafael is even stronger.

Three new Litchfield's pitchers combined for a two-hit shutout, and catcher Steve Howder, another newcomer, hit for the cycle to drive in nine runs yesterday as Litchfield's walloped the Berkeley All-Stars 19-0 at Albert Park in San Rafael.

Southpaw Harvey Kaufmann struck out seven of the nine men he faced in no-hitting the visitors for the first three innings; Buzz McGee worked the middle three frames and gave up two infield hits and struck out four, and Ed Minosi hurled the final three innings, allowing no hits and fanning four.

Howder had a single, double, triple and a homer, his roundtripper coming with two men on base. Other bat stars for the Marin team which collected a total of 26 hits were Alex Barrett and Don Lauters with two doubles and a single apiece, and Jess Jacinto, John Brokman and Barry Krohn, each with a single and double.

It was the 13th straight win without a loss for the Litchfield's aggregation.

Mariner Tennis Team Clinches Conference Title

College of Marin's tennis team will be going for the championship tomorrow at Yuba College in Marysville when it goes against the 49ers in Golden Valley Conference action.

The Tar netters clinched at least a tie for the title Saturday at Napa Junior College by drubbing the Chiefs, 7-0, winning every set.

After the match tomorrow, the Tars return to their home court in Kentfield to host Shasta College of Redding Friday, 2 p.m., in the final dual meeting of the season. By then, Marin, undefeated in GVC play this year, will most likely be undisputed champ.

Results Saturday in Napa:

Singles winners for Marin: Greg Parkerson, 6-1, 6-0; John Zwieg, 6-0, 6-0; Jeff Herr, 6-1, 6-2; Ron Theisen, 6-0, 7-5; Bill Theircof, 6-1, 6-0.

Doubles winners for Marin: Parkerson-Zwieg, 6-2, 6-0; Theisen-Theircof, 6-2, 6-4.

NATIONAL LEAGUE ROUNDUP

A $50 Homer For Mr. Mays Dodgers And Pirates Lose

One baseball, slightly scuffed, $50.

Herman Franks may have an interesting time explaining that item on the next expense account he hands the San Francisco Giants.

But it's legitimate. So was the cause — the 511th homer of Willie Mays' career, a 420-foot shot in the eighth inning that tied Mel Ott's National League career record and triggered the Giants to a 4-2 victory over Houston yesterday.

Mays came to the plate with the Giants trailing 2-1, took aim at Jim Owen's 2-0 pitch and drilled a belt-high fastball into the Astrodome's left center field seats, where H. V. Smith of Palestine, Tex., pounced on the baseball.

Smith eventually got his reward, and Mays his trophy when Franks popped into the dressing room after game and walked up to his $125,000 center fielder with the ball sitting in the palm of his hand.

"Here," said Franks. "I paid the man 50 bucks for this."

Then Mays took over.

While Mays was making history, St. Louis whipped Pittsburgh 5-2, the Chicago Cubs shutout Los Angeles 2-0, Cincinnati edged Philadelphia 3-2 in a game shortened to 5½ innings by rain and Atlanta downed the New York Mets 5-2 before losing the nightcap 3-2.

In the American League, Baltimore edged the New York Yankees 2-1, Minnesota defeated California 5-3, the Chicago White Sox nipped Kansas City 4-3 in 10 innings and Detroit swept Washington 4-0 and 4-1. The Cleveland-Boston doubleheader was rained out.

Ray Sadecki made his first start for the Cardinals but didn't go the distance. However, he stayed around long enough to get two key hits, slamming a two-run homer in the second inning that put it out of the Pirates' reach. Sadecki also singled and scored in the seventh inning but then needed Tracy Stallard's relief help.

Rookie Ken Holtzman, a full-time student and parttime pitcher available to the Cubs when they are at home, and veteran Ted Abernathy combined to shut out the Dodgers on five hits. The loser was Don Drysdale, who gave up five hits in the six innings he worked and lost on a two-run triple by Don Kessinger in the second inning.

Johnny Edwards and Vada Pinson homered for the Reds but a triple by Tony Perez and Mel Queen's sacrifice fly in the fourth inning brought in the decisive run that ended Cincinnati's losing streak at six games. Sammy Ellis held the Phillies' to three hits in the rain-shortened game but two were homers by John Briggs.

Wade Blasingame won his own game in the opener against the Mets by stroking a two-run single in a three-run second inning uprising that extended the Braves winning streak to six. But a throwing error by third baseman Eddie Mathews enabled the Mets to push across two seventh inning runs in the nightcap and snap their five-game losing streak despite a two-homer performance by Felipe Alou.

Sohner Softball Team Splits Pair With Hayward '9'

Sohner Tree Service of San Anselmo and Red and White Shell of Hayward split a sloppily-played softball doubleheader at San Rafael's Albert Park Saturday evening.

Hayward captured the opener, 6-1, but Sohner rallied to register a 9-8 victory in the nightcap.

Jess Munyon set a Sohner record in the second contest when he batted in six runs on a grand-slam home run and a two-run homer.

Dan George also contributed a home run for Sohner in the second tilt.

Ed Schultze continued his torrid hitting as the Sohner first baseman had five hits in the two games to hike his average to a phenomenal .638.

Gary Swarm was the loser in the first game. Morey Swarm relieved Lou Perazzo in the finale and received credit for the win. Perazzo was betrayed by six Sohner errors (a club record for one game) in the first five innings. None of Hayward's eight runs were earned.

The Treemen return to action next week-end with a pair of twin-bills in Marin. Sohner hosts Harpo's of San Francisco Saturday night at Albert Park and Windsor Merchants of Santa Rosa Sunday at San Anselmo's Memorial Park.

West Coast Headquarters Is Opened By Ticonium Company

New West Coast headquarters have been opened at 1201 Second street, San Rafael, for Ticonium Co., a division of CMP Industries (Consolidated Metal Products) of Albany, N. Y.

The company wholesales dental laboratory supplies — in particular, "Ticonium," an extremely hard, patented alloy used in place of gold for removable bridge dentures, to franchised laboratories. The San Rafael office is a transferral from Pasadena and covers the territory west of Denver, including Alaska, Hawaii, Okinawa, Japan and the Philippine Islands. West Coast manager George M. Hayes said the office was relocated to this area to be closer to extensive franchised dealerships in the northwest. The territory is covered by West Coast sales representative Theodore Korosy of Corte Madera.

There is no francised laboratory for Ticonium in San Rafael. The company expects to open a training school at this office soon for dental technicians in the use of the metal under Dr. Harold Brill.

The office occupies former quarters of the Rafael Medical Pharmacy at the corner of Second and B streets and was leased to Ticonium through Jerry Newbauer of Gallagher-Sturiale Realty.

It will also act as an agency for two other CMP subsidiaries —Vernon Benshoff Co. (acrylics and plastics) and Water Vliet Tool Co. (hydraulic jacks for service stations). Ticonium maintains laboratories throughout the United States and in France, Germany, Italy, England and South America.

THE BOARDWALK in San Anselmo should be a colorful place this summer. This is the boardwalk over the creek at Tunstead and San Anselmo Avenues which gives access to some stores of the Cheda Building.

John and Paul Patrick, who opened Patrick Bros. Art Supplies at 2 Tunstead Avenue about eight months ago, have been using the old Jack's Drug Store quarters at the corner for a temporary gallery while it is untenanted. This summer the Patricks propose to have some of their paintings displayed on the boardwalk, along with tables and chairs to make browsers comfortable.

Their store contains an extensive line of art supplies, frames and greeting cards. Art classes are conducted on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights. Both brothers were formerly commercial artists in southern California and on the East Coast.

ARTHUR L. BRUCKNER of San Rafael has joined the San Francisco engineering firm of Korker, Chapman and Associates as a project engineer. He was formerly chief engineer for Peter J. Frumenti Enterprises of Concord. As a civil engineer he is experienced in supervision and planning for subdivisions and municipal and governmental developments.

Levitt Wants Loan Agency To Finance All-New Cities

WASHINGTON — William J. Levitt, dean of American homebuilders, has proposed a bold multi-billion dollar federal mortgage insurance program to create new cities "in the middle of nowhere."

With U. S. population slated to double by A.D. 2000 and with most American cities "foundering under their present burdens," the nation must disperse its industry and "start building new cities from scratch as the only way out of our present mess," he said.

Levitt, president of Levitt and Sons, Inc., the international community builder, appeared before the Senate Housing subcommittee, chaired by Sen. John J. Sparkman, D-Ala., to comment on the Title II section of the proposed Urban Development Act.

LIMIT PROTESTED

Levitt called "unrealistic and inadequate" a provision of the bill setting $25 million as the maximum mortgage amount for any one new development that might be undertaken if the bill becomes law.

The proposed legislation, he charged, does not call for really new self-contained cities but rather for "smallish satellite communities" surrounding the "swollen megacities that are engulfing us," thus compounding the problem and not solving it.

"The kind of program I'm talking about," the builder declared, "is not to build more housing developments in the suburbs of existing cities. We must build new cities. This can't be done with pennies.

"I estimate it would take a minimum of $1 billion to build a city for 100,000 people—houses, streets, schools, sewer and water systems, plants, factories, office buildings and shops, police and fire stations, parks, playgrounds and all the rest."

NEED U. S. AID

Levitt emphasized that committing such tremendous sums is beyond the ability of private industry and that building new cities requires the help and participation of the federal government. He said that just as Congress years ago created the Federal Housing Administration to insure the financing of new dwelling units, now it can create a similar system to insure the financing of new cities.

"In some 40 years," he said, "we will have to create the housing and jobs and schools and factories and cars and everything else for a new United States equal to or greater than the United States of today."

If our cities can't provide a workable and worthwhile environment today, Levitt queried, how can they accommodate the "50 million additional people who will be here by 1980, let alone the extra 200 million who will be here in the year 2010?

The bigger the city, the worse shape it's in, and every big city is going the way of New York. "It's as sure as death and taxes," he said, "that every day, until far-reaching and positive steps are taken to make them better, our cities will get worse."

IBM Slump Marks Slow Market Day

NEW YORK (AP)—A slump in IBM highlighted the close of a mixed stock market today.

IBM fell 11 points as the company was announcing a plan to issue more common stock for the purpose of raising about $350 million.

The market spent most of the session in a mild decline in sluggish trading.

Prices recovered partially toward the end of the day.

Boeing held a gain of several points.

Here was the picture near the close:

Volume for the day was estimated a 7.3 million shares compared with 8.66 million Friday.

The operations of the small trader and daylight trader, which have led to some hectic conditions, were restriced today be new credit rules imposed by the American and New York Stock exchanges.

Airlines were down sharply on profit taking. Steels yielded fractions. General Motors slipped 1½, Ford (ex-dividend) and Chrysler fractions.

Boeing, up 1, was a firm spot in a soft aerospace group. Douglas Aircraft fell nearly 2.

Some of the top-quality chemicals rallied. Du Pont and Union Carbide rose nearly a point, Eastman Kodak 1½, Allied Chemical a fraction.

Radio Corp.'s 1-point loss highlighted a slow decline by color television and other electronics.

Xerox dropped 2. IBM and Polaroid gained a point or better

Coppers became scrambled after and early flash of strength on the Zambian price move. Kennecott held a gain of more than a point. Anaconda wipe out a similar rise and eased.

Roan Selection Trust looked like the volume leader as it advanced fractionally. Calumet & Hecla slid 1½.

American Metal Climax rose 2, Joy Manufacturing 2½, Motorola nearly 3, Texas Gulf Sulphur and Texas Instruments more than a point.

Prices were mixed in heavy trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mostly unchanged. U.S. Treasury bonds declined.

Bank Buying Mortgage Company

Redwood National Bank has purchased Marin Mortgage Co., it was announced today.

Byron W. Leydecker, president of the bank, said the company, formerly owned by Robert C. McGowan and John J. Hourihan, will be maintained as a wholly owned subsidiary corporation. Its office will be moved into new quarters adjacent to Redwood's office at Fourth and E streets, San Rafael.

Marin Mortgage was opened by McGowan and Hourihan more than three years ago and is at 900 Mission Avenue, San Rafael. It is the Marin representative for Western Mortgage Corp., correspondent for Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. Hourihan said there will be no change in this operation, but the company will handle all real estate loans for the bank in addition to its other business. He said he and McGowan will be managing officers of the company.

ELWIN L. SKILES
Baccaulareate speaker

Graduation Scheduled At Seminary

Dr. Elwin L. Skiles, chairman of the board of trustees of Golden Gate Baptist Seminary in Mill Valley, will deliver the annual address at the seminary baccalaureate service to be held Thursday at 8 p.m.

Dr. Skiles was recently named president of Hardin - Simmons University in Abilene, Texas.

Thursday will also mark the observance of Alumni Day at the seminary.

Commencement exercises will be held the following day at 10 a.m. Three-fourths of the 75 graduating seniors will enter the ministry in the West.

Following the exercises, there will be a meeting of the executive committee of the seminary board of trustees.

VFW Post Elects New Leadership

Sidney Smith will command Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 72, San Rafael, for the coming year, the post announced today.

Other post officers elected Thursday were Art Wederaneyer, Ulysses S. C. Plum, Edward Lawrence, Robert I. McPherson, Rafael G. Dufficy, and James Von Bima.

Eleanor Blabon was elected president of the auxiliary. Other new officers are Cora Hansen, Ragna McPherson, Fran Ossman, Mabel Vandermark, Louise Garcia, Geraldine Riley, and Marjorie Dupree.

Oklahoma Surrenders To Females' Vanity

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI) — Female vanity has finally forced Oklahoma's Department of Public Safety to drop an old regulation.

With women continually dyeing their hair or wearing wigs, authorities finally admitted they were licked, and omitted the hair color question from all licenses for women drivers.

Knights To Travel

Representing Council 1292, San Rafael, at the Knights of Columbus state convention in Palm Springs May 20 will be Grand Knight Michael J. Nelson and Past Grand Knight Noel R. Tully.

Board Of Education May Name Principal

The San Rafael Board of Education tomorrow is scheduled to fill one of its vacant high school principal jobs, then go into a closed session to see if it can fill the other one. The board will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the administration building, Third and E streets.

Alan Ellsberg, now principal of Emery High School, Emeryville, is slated to be hired at $15,775 annually. Supt. Bert C. Corona said it has not yet been decided, however, whether he will take the job of San Rafael High School Principal Alfred N. Thomson or of Terra Linda High School Principal George Yertson. The closed session will come at the end of the regular meeting.

The board also is expected to approve assignment of Thomson as a teacher at Santa Venetia School. Yertson was named principal of that school two weeks ago.

Both men have asked to step down from their high school jobs.

Other items on the agenda will be administrators' salaries, a tentative budget for fiscal 1967, and adoption of several new policies, including one on community complaints against instructional materials.

Beverly Anderson is scheduled for appointment to head the Terra Linda High School home economics department for one year. The regular department head, Nancy Richardson, has been granted an extension of maternity leave.

New teachers to be hired are Mrs. Miriam Davis, intermediate grades at $6,005; Russell Gorman, high school mathematics and science, $6,410; Lorna Plotts, intermediate grades, $6,005; Mrs. Eilizabeth Sullivan, intermediate grades, $9,245, and Mrs. Jane Sullivan, continuation education.

Hillis Newcomb is scheduled to be assigned as assistant principal of West End School, where he teaches fifth grade. Beverly Beeler, now teaching English at Davidson School, is to be re-assigned to the high school district.

The board will receive resignations of these teachers:

William Buskirk, chemistry at San Rafael High School (now on leave in Germany); Mrs. Jean Carmichael, first grade at West End School; Mrs. Kathleen Fleming, French at Davidson; Mrs. Lurene Mattson, English at Terra Linda High School; Mrs. Irene Pettit, English at San Rafael High School; Robert Schwartz, English at Terra Linda High; Mrs. Ingeborg Thompson, German at San Rafael High; Mrs. Bennie Walvoord, second grade at San Pedro School.

A year's leave will be considered for Alan Hopkins, geography and history teacher at Davidson School, who plans to teach a year in Guam.

Dallas Had Pioneer Traffic Controls

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Dallas was the first U.S. city to use traffic signals.

In 1911, electrically operated bells were placed up and down the main streets. When a fire alarm sounded, the bells were set off, signaling all traffic to stop.

Fireproof Back Is Proposed

The county board of appeals will meet at 2 p.m. May 4 to discuss a proposed change in the county building code which would require fireproof backing behind flammable walls.

County supervisors asked for a study of ways to strengthen the code after a March 22 fire in Lucas Valley which killed 7-year-old Rebecca Ellen Fong and destroyed her family's Eichler-built home.

Results of the May 4 meeting will be reported to supervisors May 10.

After 600,000 miles at a penny per mile, "Diesel knock" sounds like the sweetest music this side of heaven

The Mercedes-Benz 200 Diesel makes one of its infrequent stops for fuel—a tankful can take you 500 miles.

The Mercedes-Benz 200 Diesel costs $4,280. At stoplights, people may perk up their ears at its "pocketa-pocketa" sound. But it can chop your fuel costs in half. And can keep doing it long after other cars are on the scrap pile. Old stuff to over 500,000 Mercedes-Benz Diesel owners. Take 3 minutes to find out for yourself.

MR. JESSE L. GRAY of Albany, Oregon bought a Mercedes-Benz Diesel in 1957. Since then he has rolled up over 600,000 miles—at a fuel cost of slightly less than one cent per mile.

But a Diesel saves more than fuel expense. "The total operating cost," Mr. Gray reports, "has been 4.6¢ per mile. This figure includes repairs, tires, fuel, insurance and depreciation."

Stunning proof of Diesel economy. And quite beyond the grasp of even those tiny gasoline-powered cars.

The 200D burns diesel fuel, cheaper in most places than the cheapest gasoline. And burns it at a stingy average rate of one gallon every 30 miles.

A Diesel is far more efficient than any gasoline engine. Fuel is fed by injection nozzles directly into the combustion chambers. Sheer compression ignites the fuel—not a spark. A Cadillac's compression ratio is only 10.5 to 1. The 200D has a compression ratio of 21.0 to 1. Result: 30 percent more fuel energy is converted into power.

A further economy: no spark plugs, no condensers, no distributors, no points—not even any carburetors to adjust or replace. The engine block and other moving engine parts are extravagantly strong. Durable enough, in fact, to last tens of thousands more miles than conventional engine parts.

Technical sidelight: Diesel fuel helps lubricate engine parts while they work. By reducing friction, this cuts wear. Piston rings are often still serviceable after 250,000 miles.

Mercedes-Benz motor cars: from $25,785 to $4,065

Maybe you can afford a Mercedes-Benz without knowing it. Suggested retail prices* for a few popular models:

600 Grand Mercedes	$25,785
230SL Roadster	6,262
230S Sedan	4,900
230 Sedan	4,250
200 Diesel Sedan	4,280
200 Sedan	4,065

*West Coast ports of entry, exclusive of state and local taxes if any.

Forget the ear plugs

That combustion inside a Diesel engine produces the sound commonly known as "Diesel knock." It's audible mostly at idling speeds and under 20 mph. Thirty years of Mercedes-Benz refinement has made it more of a "Diesel murmur" in the 200D—as CAR LIFE magazine attests: "Once under way, things quiet down and many unsuspecting passengers are surprised to learn that they've been riding in a Diesel."

Note: Many veteran Diesel owners prefer a little noise. Without it, they say, people wouldn't know it was a Diesel. The 200D may be something of a status symbol, at that.

Thousands of highway transport trucks and buses use diesel fuel. While not handy at every corner gas station, it isn't hard to find. And once you've tanked up, the 200D can cover 500 miles before needing a refill.

More than an engine

You'll find many other remarkable things in the 200D besides its engine. No seasick wallowing in curves, for example. No bouncing or pitching on potholed back roads. The 200D's fully independent suspension comes from the 300SLR—a world championship Mercedes-Benz sports racing car.

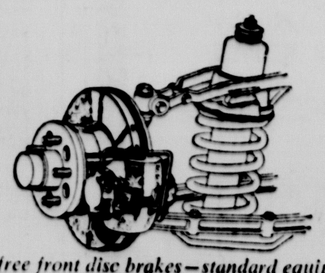
One reason for this suspension's perfect balance: its coil springs are graded before assembly in 4 tests. Each car gets a precisely matched set.

Welded at 10,000 points

The 200D won't age to the tune of squeaks, rattles or groans. Its body is a taut steel shell, welded in 10,000 places. Far stronger and more twist-resistant than separate body-and-frame types that must be bolted together.

Trustworthy brakes

The 200D supplies braking power you dare not expect from commonplace cars. The secret: front disc brakes. No heart-stopping "fade" in repeated hard use. No swerving in sudden stops. For extra security, the 200D uses a dual circuit brake system. If one system ever failed, a "back-up" system would instantly act to halt the car.



Fade-free front disc brakes—standard equipment.

More reassurance: brake, steering and suspension parts on the 200D are hand tightened with a unique torque wrench. The moment exact tightness is reached, this wrench squirts a blot of yellow paint. Visible proof of perfect adjustment.

Squelching muscle fatigue

Orthopedic physicians dictated the 200D's large, firmly upholstered seats. Your body is so correctly supported that 600-mile trips leave you rested and relaxed. Even the rear seat—an afterthought in so many modern cars—is carefully contoured.

Skeptics: Check the 200D's interior dimensions with a tape measure. Then compare them with a large domestic car. Surprise—the 200D is as roomy, and in many cases roomier. It's shaped around its occupants—not a styling theme.

Mercedes-Benz and safety

Mercedes-Benz considers safety a sober obligation—not a public relations problem. Safety starts with the car's basic design. The 200D body is a patented safety feature. Front and rear sections are designed to yield on violent impact, absorbing shock before it can reach the passenger area. Roof and windshield pillars are rigid. Door locks are designed to keep doors shut in collisions from any angle. Inside, safety padding extends even to the steering wheel hub. And super premium-grade 4-ply tires are standard equipment.

Pot Party Arrest Of College Youths, High School Girls

Suspects Found In Kentfield In Car By Sheriff's Officers

Three Tamalpais High School girl students and two College of Marin Negro youths were arrested last night for allegedly participating in a pre-dance "pot-smoking" party while parked in plush Kent Woodlands last Friday night.

A sixth suspect, Roy Morgan, 19, who was involved as a juvenile in June 3, 1965, roundup of marijuana suspects in southern Marin County, was being sought.

The three youths and two of the girls are jointly charged with felony possession of the weed. The third girl, 17, was booked in county juvenile hall to face a marijuana possession charge in juvenile court.

Booked in county jail last night were Deborah Elizabeth Bullock, 18, of 374 Marin Avenue, Tamalpais Valley; Jenny Astrid Veggeby, 18, of 2 Upper Hill Road, Mill Valley; Jim Clearance Durbin, 20, of 27 Pacheco Street, and Michael Holloway, 19, of 16 Dutton Court, both Marin City.

All were released on $276 bail each. They are scheduled for arraignment in Marin Municipal Court at 1:30 p.m. Thursday.

Sheriff's Inspector A. V. Menjou and Jesse P. Foster, state narcotics agent, said they heard several youths and girls were expected to smoke marijuana prior to attending a club dance in the college gymnasium Friday night.

BEFORE DANCE

The dance, they heard, was going to be "a real swinging affair."

Inspector Menjou said he and Foster were parked in an unmarked automobile when they saw a car containing the three youths and a station wagon occupied by the three girls drive through the Kent Woodlands entrance and park near Magnolia Avenue and Woodland Road about 9:10 p.m.

TRIO OF YOUTHS

The officers said the trio of youths entered the station wagon, and the six drove to an isolated place at the end of Crown Road and parked. There, according to Menjou, the officers observed smoking. They approached the station wagon, ordered the six from the car and allegedly found about half a dozen partially smoked cigarettes in the immediate vicinity.

In addition, they said, they confiscated a cigarette one youth was attempting to pass to another. A small match box containing what appeared to be marijuana was also found, Menjou said.

SIX SUSPECTS

The six suspects were taken to the sheriff's office, questioned, then released late that night. Menjou said Foster took the cigarettes and match box to state narcotics laboratories in San Francisco, where the contents were found to be marijuana.

Menjou said the complaint was issued by the district attorney's office, and warrants for arrest were obtained.

He said source of the weed was not immediately learned.

Morgan, of House 130, Marin City, and still being sought, was charged in the 1965 roundup with sale of marijuana. He was then 17 years old, however, and his case was handled by juvenile authorities.

Marijuana Witness Takes Fifth

Frank Bonomolo of Novato, described by Police Chief Robert DiGrazia as the star witness in the trial of another Novato man on a charge of selling marijuana, was served with a court order last night by Novato police, ordering him to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court.

Bonomolo yesterday took the Fifth Amendment at the preliminary hearing in Marin County Municipal Court for John W. Rundle of 1363 Cambridge Street, Novato, who was arrested March 25 and charged with selling marijuana.

Rundle's hearing was continued to Thursday after Bonomolo refused to testify.

Chief DiGrazia said the court order served on Bonomolo last night at his home at 201 San Felipe Way, orders him to appear at 2 p.m. Thursday in Superior Court prior to Rundle's hearing.

The preliminary hearing is then scheduled to resume at 3 p.m. Thursday before Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. of Marin Municipal Court.

LAMP PLUG FIRE

Six-year-old Ernest Genberg of 60 Fairfax Street, Apt. 10, San Rafael, plugged in a defective lamp today in a closet and started the fire shown below, which did a total of $6,900 damage to his family's apartment and that of Judy T. Bush, Apt. 11 upstairs. At right, Fire Chief Vance Trivett (left) talks to the boy while Kenneth Mazza of the fire department prevention bureau looks on. Ernest was home with his brother, 4-year-old Tony, and baby-sitter Caroline Sheehan of 355 Canal Street, Apt. 3. She said the older boy ran from his bedroom and cried "My shirt is on fire." Miss Sheehan got the boys out and called firemen after trying in vain to put out the blaze. All but $300 of the damage was to the lower apartment. (Independent-Journal photos by Bob Hax)

U.S. Jet Downs New Russ Plane

Hanoi Pledges Fight

SAIGON — An American supersonic jet fighter shot down an MIG-21 today over North Viet Nam, a U.S. spokesman announced.

The MIG, newest and fastest type used by the Communists in Asia, was hit by Sidewinder missiles in a brief aerial duel 65 miles northeast of the North Vietnamese capital of Hanoi, the spokesman said.

It was downed by an F4-C Phantom fighter in a dogfight in which two Phantoms attacked two MIG-21s.

Neither of the U.S. planes was damaged, the spokesman said.

FIRST KILL

It was the first MIG-21 kill of the Viet Nam war and the eighth Soviet-built fighter downed in the conflict. The previous seven were the older - version MIG-17s.

The pilot of the destroyed MIG was believed to have ejected before his flaming plane crashed, the spokesman said.

STANDOFF DUEL

Two of the delta-winged Communist fighters and two Phantoms dueled undamaged to a standoff north of Hanoi yesterday. American planes and the Soviet-built MIGs had clashed three times Saturday.

As against the eight MIGs shot down so far, three U.S. jets have been lost in air-to-air combat. MIGs downed two U.S. Air Force F-105 Thunderchiefs April 4, 1965, 80 miles south of Hanoi. A Phantom failed to return after tangling with MIG fighters in the area of Red China's Hainan Island April 9.

In the fight yesterday, two Air Force Phantoms got off 11 or 12 Sidewinder and Sparrow air-to-air missiles at their delta-winged foe but none hit the mark, the U.S. spokesman said. The MIGs also took some shots at the Phantoms without scoring.

Despite the heavy air blows, there was no evidence of any softening in the attitude of North Viet Nam's Communist

COMMENT ON MIG

'No Sanctuary' In Viet Nam

COMBINED AP & UPI

WASHINGTON—A State Department spokesman, replying to questions on the possibility that new model MIG jet fighters encountered in Viet Nam may have come from Red China bases, said today "there is no sanctuary" in the Viet Nam War.

But the spokesman, press officer Robert J. McCloskey, said he had no information the MIG-21s came from China.

In stating that "there is no sanctuary," McCloskey said he was repeating a position set forth by Secretary of State Dean Rusk in the past.

McCloskey declined to go into whether the "no sanctuary" policy means American planes may chase enemy jets into Communist China if the Red craft flee across the frontier.

The question came up at the State Department's daily news briefing, shortly after word of the first U.S. downing of a delta-wing MIG-21.

Over the past few days, the high-performance MIGs have taken to the air to challenge U.S. Aerial superiority over North Viet Nam as the American craft struck closer to the country's capital, Hanoi, and its chief port of Haiphong.

McCloskey said, when asked whether the MIG-21s came from Communist Chinese bases: "We have no information that would lead to such a conclusion."

In London, Russian-trained Communist Vietnamese were reported today to be piloting the Soviet-supplied MIG-21 supersonic jet fighters now in action

Marincello Petitions Circulating

Opponents of the Marincello project today announced they have begun circulating a referendum petition in an effort to block the planned development on the Golden Gate headlands.

George Wheelwright, acting chairman of the Golden Gate Headlands Committee, said that although the referendum petition needs 6,200 authenticated signatures to qualify for a ballot "it is apparent that many more will be obtained."

The petition specifies only the Tennessee Valley Access Road ordinance, approved by the county board of supervisors as the first detail of the precise development plan, but the committee said the petition is "tantamount to blocking the entire Marincello project."

Wheelwright said this ordinance provides the first legal opportunity for his committee to take action against the headlands community.

"That approval was given by ordinance, and that ordinance is subject to referendum. We have the best possible legal advice to that effect," he declared.

The committee contends that when the requisite number of signatures on the referendum petition have been verified it will be mandatory that the Board of Supervisors either repeal the ordinance or call an election.

Supervisors Seek Poverty Work Money

Marin County Supervisors today took steps to reinstate the application for neighborhood youth corps funds—an application that Marin's former War on Poverty Director Walter Bremond held up. (Douglas J. Quiett was named Bremond's temporary replacement. See page 3.)

County Administrator Alan Bruce told supervisors it will require a county reserve of $3,000 at the most to meet requirements of county support under the application. Supervisors transferred this amount from unbudgeted reserves.

The project, three months of work for 30 high school dropouts, would be cleaning up and painting of buildings at the old Naval Net Depot at Tiburon.

Bremond, without consulting supervisors, held the application up because he did not believe that $1.25 an hour to be paid was realistic.

The job project calls for $55,000 in federal money.

ASKS STANDARDS

Auto Industry Reverses Stand On Safety Control

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reversing its previous position, the automobile industry called today for "effective and forceful governmental machinery for setting vehicle safety standards without delay."

John S. Bugas, vice president of Ford Motor Co., told a House committee in behalf of the auto manufacturers:

"We favor a strong role for the federal government in setting vehicle safety performance standards."

The industry contended in earlier congressional testimony that it should be allowed to set car safety standards. But many members of Congress have demanded strong federal standards.

In a 64-page statement read from the House Commerce Committee, Bugas said, "Today's U.S.-built cars are the safest in our history."

But he added that the rising traffic toll demands "development of nationally uniform and legally binding vehicle safety standards."

"We believe," he said, "that the federal government should have the ultimate authority and duty under appropriate guidelines to establish the standards applicable to the manufacture and first sale of the vehicle, and

Munich Awarded 1972 Olympic Summer Games

ROME (AP) — Munich was awarded the Summer Games and Sapporo, Japan, the Winter events of the 1972 Olympics today.

In one of the most tension-packed voting session of its history, the International Olympic Committee chose Munich over Detroit, Montreal, and Madrid to give Germany its first Olympics since 1936 when Hitler was in power.

Then the IOC caused a sensation by naming Sapporo over Banff, Canada; Salt Lake City, Utah; and Lahti, Finland.

IOC President Avery Brundage said undoubtedly "one reason for awarding the games to Sapporo was the fact that the 1940 games would have gone to Sapporo."

Those games were never held because of World War Two.

The Japanese had come to Rome openly fearful that they had no chance because Japan

Damage Put At $37,000 In Muir Beach Home Fire

Fire raged through a $55,000 home on Shoreline Highway at Muir Beach early today, doing $37,000 damage before it was finally contained some two hours later.

Hampered by lack of water in the area, county firemen drained the home's swimming pool and three fire trucks' supplies to fight the flames.

The 10-room home, at Franks Valley Road and Shoreline Highway, is owned by Jack C. Magruder and Calvin M. Garrison.

Garrison awoke at 4:45 a.m., smelled smoke, and roused the other occupants, who included his 20-year-old daughter Judy, and her guest, Martha Pasley.

Three units from the Marin County Fire Department fought the blaze, from Throckmorton Ridge, Marin City, and Woodacre stations.

Cause of the fire was not determined, according to County Chief Louis V. Bloom, but the origin was pinpointed to the area around the home's oil furnace.

Special District For Marincello

Marin County supervisors today, asked for a resolution to set a hearing on the proposed formation of a county serivce area to provide services in Marincello.

No date was fixed.

Frouge Corp., developer of Marincello, asked the creation of the county service area to provide police, structural fire protection, recreation, sewers and other services not provided by the county.

Redwood Road Study

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly voted 54-0 today for a bill creating a committee to study and develop plans for a national redwood road between Monterey County and the Oregon border.

Farm Employment Up For California

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California farm employment swelled seasonally to 276,700 in mid-April, up nearly 20,000 from March, the State Employment Department reported today.

About 9,600 more workers were employed on farms in mid-April than the same month in 1965.

Board Of Education May Name Principal

The San Rafael Board of Education tomorrow is scheduled to fill one of its vacant high school principal jobs, then go into a closed session to see if it can fill the other one. The board will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the administration building, Third and E streets.

Alan Ellsberg, now principal of Emery High School, Emeryville, is slated to be hired at $15,775 annually. Supt. Bert C. Corona said it has not yet been decided, however, whether he will take the job of San Rafael High School Principal Alfred N. Thomson or of Terra Linda High School Principal George Yertson. The closed session will come at the end of the regular meeting.

The board also is expected to approve assignment of Thomson as a teacher at Santa Venetia School. Yertson was named principal of that school two weeks ago.

Both men have asked to step down from their high school jobs.

Other items on the agenda will be administrators' salaries, a tentative budget for fiscal 1967, and adoption of several new policies, including one on community complaints against instructional materials.

Beverly Anderson is scheduled for appointment to head the Terra Linda High School home economics department for one year. The regular department head, Nancy Richardson, has been granted an extension of maternity leave.

New teachers to be hired are Mrs. Miriam Davis, intermediate grades at $6,005; Russell Gorman, high school mathematics and science, $6,410; Lorna Plotts, intermediate grades, $6,005; Mrs. Eilizabeth Sullivan, intermediate grades, $9,245, and Mrs. Jane Sullivan, continuation education.

Hillis Newcomb is scheduled to be assigned as assistant principal of West End School, where he teaches fifth grade. Beverly Beeler, now teaching English at Davidson School, is to be re-assigned to the high school district.

The board will receive resignations of these teachers:

William Buskirk, chemistry at San Rafael High School (now on leave in Germany); Mrs. Jean Carmichael, first grade at West End School; Mrs. Kathleen Fleming, French at Davidson; Mrs. Lurene Mattson, English at Terra Linda High School; Mrs. Irene Pettit, English at San Rafael High School; Robert Schwartz, English at Terra Linda High; Mrs. Ingeborg Thompson, German at San Rafael High; Mrs. Bennie Walvoord, second grade at San Pedro School.

A year's leave will be considered for Alan Hopkins, geography and history teacher at Davidson School, who plans to teach a year in Guam.

Dallas Had Pioneer Traffic Controls

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Dallas was the first U.S. city to use traffic signals.

In 1911, electrically operated bells were placed up and down the main streets. When a fire alarm sounded, the bells were set off, signaling all traffic to stop.

Fireproof Back Is Proposed

The county board of appeals will meet at 2 p.m. May 4 to discuss a proposed change in the county building code which would require fireproof backing behind flammable walls.

County supervisors asked for a study of ways to strengthen the code after a March 22 fire in Lucas Valley which killed 7-year-old Rebecca Ellen Fong and destroyed her family's Eichler-built home.

Results of the May 4 meeting will be reported to supervisors May 10.

After 600,000 miles at a penny per mile, "Diesel knock" sounds like the sweetest music this side of heaven

The Mercedes-Benz 200 Diesel makes one of its infrequent stops for fuel—a tankful can take you 500 miles.

The Mercedes-Benz 200 Diesel costs $4,280. At stoplights, people may perk up their ears at its "pocketa-pocketa" sound. But it can chop your fuel costs in half. And can keep doing it long after other cars are on the scrap pile. Old stuff to over 500,000 Mercedes-Benz Diesel owners. Take 3 minutes to find out for yourself.

MR. JESSE L. GRAY of Albany, Oregon bought a Mercedes-Benz Diesel in 1957. Since then he has rolled up over 600,000 miles—at a fuel cost of slightly less than one cent per mile.

But a Diesel saves more than fuel expense. "The total operating cost," Mr. Gray reports, "has been 4.6¢ per mile. This figure includes repairs, tires, fuel, insurance and depreciation."

Stunning proof of Diesel economy. And quite beyond the grasp of even those tiny gasoline-powered cars.

The 200D burns diesel fuel, cheaper in most places than the cheapest gasoline. And burns it at a stingy average rate of one gallon every 30 miles.

A Diesel is far more efficient than any gasoline engine. Fuel is fed by injection nozzles directly into the combustion chambers. Sheer compression ignites the fuel—not a spark. A Cadillac's compression ratio is only 10.5 to 1. The 200D has a compression ratio of 21.0 to 1. Result: 30 percent more fuel energy is converted into power.

A further economy: no spark plugs, no condensers, no distributors, no points—not even any carburetors to adjust or replace. The engine block and other moving engine parts are extravagantly strong. Durable enough, in fact, to last tens of thousands more miles than conventional engine parts.

Technical sidelight: Diesel fuel helps lubricate engine parts while they work. By reducing friction, this cuts wear. Piston rings are often still serviceable after 250,000 miles.

Mercedes-Benz motor cars: from $25,785 to $4,065

Maybe you can afford a Mercedes-Benz without knowing it. Suggested retail prices* for a few popular models:

600 Grand Mercedes	$25,785
230SL Roadster	6,262
230S Sedan	4,900
230 Sedan	4,250
200 Diesel Sedan	4,280
200 Sedan	4,065

*West Coast ports of entry, exclusive of state and local taxes if any.

Forget the ear plugs

That combustion inside a Diesel engine produces the sound commonly known as "Diesel knock." It's audible mostly at idling speeds and under 20 mph. Thirty years of Mercedes-Benz refinement has made it more of a "Diesel murmur" in the 200D—as CAR LIFE magazine attests: "Once under way, things quiet down and many unsuspecting passengers are surprised to learn that they've been riding in a Diesel."

Note: Many veteran Diesel owners prefer a little noise. Without it, they say, people wouldn't know it was a Diesel. The 200D may be something of a status symbol, at that.

500 miles on a tankful

Thousands of highway transport trucks and buses use diesel fuel. While not handy at every corner gas station, it isn't hard to find. And once you've tanked up, the 200D can cover 500 miles before needing a refill.

More than an engine

You'll find many other remarkable things in the 200D besides its engine. No seasick wallowing in curves, for example. No bouncing or pitching on potholed back roads. The 200D's fully independent suspension comes from the 300SLR—a world championship Mercedes-Benz sports racing car.

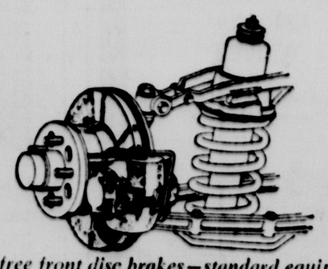
One reason for this suspension's perfect balance: its coil springs are graded before assembly in 4 tests. Each car gets a precisely matched set.

Welded at 10,000 points

The 200D won't age to the tune of squeaks, rattles or groans. Its body is a taut steel shell, welded in 10,000 places. Far stronger and more twist-resistant than separate body-and-frame types that must be bolted together.

Trustworthy brakes

The 200D supplies braking power you dare not expect from commonplace cars. The secret: front disc brakes. No heart-stopping "fade" in repeated hard use. No swerving in sudden stops. For extra security, the 200D uses a dual circuit brake system. If one system ever failed, a "back-up" system would instantly act to halt the car.



Fade-free front disc brakes—standard equipment.

Squelching muscle fatigue

Orthopedic physicians dictated the 200D's large, firmly upholstered seats. Your body is so correctly supported that 600-mile trips leave you rested and relaxed. Even the rear seat—an afterthought in so many modern cars—is carefully contoured.

Skeptics: Check the 200D's interior dimensions with a tape measure. Then compare them with a large domestic car. Surprise—the 200D is as roomy, and in many cases roomier. It's shaped around its occupants—not a styling theme.

Mercedes-Benz and safety

Mercedes-Benz considers safety a sober obligation—not a public relations problem. Safety starts with the car's basic design. The 200D body is a patented safety feature. Front and rear sections are designed to yield on violent impact, absorbing shock before it can reach the passenger area. Roof and windshield pillars are rigid. Door locks are designed to keep doors shut in collisions from any angle. Inside, safety padding extends even to the steering wheel hub. And super premium-grade 4-ply tires are standard equipment.
